Disavowed Knowledge Peter Maas Taubman, 2012-05-22 This is the first and only book to detail the history of the century long relationship between education and psychoanalysis It provides not only a historical context but also a psychoanalytically informed analysis

Disavowed Knowledge Peter Maas Taubman, 2012-05-22 This is the first and only book to detail the history of the century long relationship between education and psychoanalysis Relying on primary and secondary sources it provides not only a historical context but also a psychoanalytically informed analysis In considering what it means to think about teaching from a psychoanalytic perspective and in reviewing the various approaches to and theories about teaching and curriculum that have been informed by psychoanalysis in the twentieth century Taubman uses the concept of disavowal and focuses on the effects of disavowed knowledge within both psychoanalysis and education and on the relationship between them Tracing three historical periods of the waxing and waning of the medical therapeutic and emancipatory projects of psychoanalysis and education the thrust of the book is for psychoanalysis and education to come together as an emancipatory project Supplementing the recent work of educational scholars using psychoanalytic concepts to understand teaching education and schooling it works to articulate the stranded histories the history of what could have been and might still be in the relationship between psychoanalysis and education

Internationalizing Curriculum Studies Cristyne Hébert, Nicholas Ng-A-Fook, Awad Ibrahim, Bryan Smith, 2019-01-14 This book seeks to understand how to internationalize curriculum without imperializing or imposing the old colonial and so called first world conceptualizations of education teaching and learning The collection draws on the groundbreaking work of Dwayne Huebner in order to invite scholars into conversation with histories of curriculum studies and to posit them within it opening up new spaces to work in and through curricular issues This book will appeal to scholars teachers and students looking to reconceptualize international curriculum development and theory

Reconceptualizing Teacher Education Anne M. Phelan, William F. Pinar, Nicholas Ng-A-Fook, Ruth Kane, 2020-01-14 This book counters the cultural homogenization of global policy It examines the integrity of teacher education in particular places serving particular communities at particular historical moments In this collection Canadian scholars articulate a response to their collective concerns about the impact of global policy on teacher education provoking a far reaching dialogue about teacher education in and for our times The first two decades of the new millennium have witnessed unprecedented appraisal analysis and educational policy formulations related to teaching K 12 across the Western world In turn teacher education has been greatly impacted as governments around the world see the reform and management of teacher education as a key component in restructuring education toward greater economic competitiveness The result has been an unwarranted and undesirable level of standardization It is vital to the future of teacher education and concomitantly public education that we imagine alternatives to the homogenization of the educational experience that globalizing policies install What is needed are vocabularies that enable educators and teacher educators to discern and articulate educational purposes beyond capital and which focus on the kinds of educational experiences that can help prepare the young to lead good and worthwhile lives Using lessons learned from the Canadian context the authors identify and investigate the importance of initial and continuing professional education that fosters teachers intellectual freedom and study advances an informed and critical appreciation of civic particularity and historical circumstance and cultivates ethical i e pedagogical engagement with ideas and histories teachers own and their students as crucial themes of teacher education globally Published in English

Provoking Curriculum Studies Nicholas Ng-a-Fook, Awad Ibrahim, Giuliano Reis, 2015-08-11 Provoking Curriculum Studies pushes forward a strong reading of the theoretical and methodological innovations taking place within curriculum studies research Addressing an important gap in contemporary curriculum studies conceptualizing scholars as poets and the potential of the poetic in education it offers a framework for doing curriculum work at the intersection of the arts social theory and curriculum studies Drawing on poetic inquiry psychoanalysis phenomenology life writing and several types of arts based research methodologies this diverse collection spotlights the intellectual genealogies of curriculum scholars such as Ted Aoki Geoffrey Milburn and Roger Simon whose provocations inquiries and recursive questioning link the writing and re writing of curriculum theory to acts of strong poetry Readers are urged to imagine alternative ways in which professors teachers and university students might not only engage with but disrupt blur and complicate curriculum theory across interdisciplinary topographies in order to seek out blind impresses those areas of knowledge that are left over unaddressed by mainstream curriculum scholarship and that instigate difficult questions about death trauma prejudice poverty colonization and more

Reconceptualizing Curriculum Development James Henderson, and Colleagues, 2014-12-05 Reconceptualizing Curriculum Development provides accessible clear guidance on curriculum problem solving and educational leadership through the practice of a synoptic curriculum study This practice integrates three influential interpretations of curriculum curriculum as deliberative artistry curriculum as complicated conversation and curriculum as currere with John Dewey s lifetime work on reflective inquiry At its heart the book advances a way of studying as a way of living with reference to the question How might I live as a democratic educator The study guidance is organized as an open ended scaffolding of three embedded reflective inquiries informed by four deliberative conversations Study recommendations are provided by a carefully selected team The field tested study based approach is illustrated through a multi layered multi voiced narrative collage of four experienced teachers personal journeys of understanding in a collegial study context Applying William Pinar s argument that a conceptual montage enabling teachers to lead complicated conversations should be the focus for curriculum development in the field s current post reconceptualist moment the book moves forward the educational aim of facilitating a holistic subject self social understanding through the practice of a balanced hermeneutics of suspicion and trust It closes with a discussion of cross cultural collaboration and advocacy reflecting the interest of curriculum scholars in a wide range of countries in this study based lead learning approach to curriculum development

Pragmatism, Post-modernism, and Complexity Theory Donna

Trueit,2012-08-21 The first collection of the key works of the major curriculum studies scholar William E Doll Jr this volume provides an overview of his scholarship over his fifty year career and documents the theoretical and practical contribution he has made to the field The book is organized in five thematic sections Personal Reflections Dewey Piaget Bruner Whitehead Process And Transformation Modern Post Modern Structures Forms and Organization Complexity Thinking and Reflections on Teaching The complicated intellectual trajectory through pragmatism postmodernism and complexity theory not only testifies to Doll s individual lifetime works but is also intimately related to the landscape of education to which he has made an important contribution Of interest to curriculum scholars around the world the book will hold special significance for graduate students and junior scholars who came of the age in the field Doll helped create one crafted by postmodernism and more recently complexity theory

The Concept of Care in Curriculum Studies Jung-Hoon Jung,2015-12-22 The question at the heart of the book is what might an education with self care and care for others look like Juxtaposing self understanding through the method of currere and the historical character of hakbeolism a concept indigenous to Korea referring to a kind of social status people achieve based on a shared academic background this book articulates how subjective reconstruction of self in conjunction with historical study can be transformative and how this can be extended to social change Articulating how having one s own standard can be a way of making one s life a work of art the author looks at how Korean schooling exercises coercive care disconfirmation and the whip of love for the children s own good Emphasis is given to the internalized status of these practices in both students and teachers and to teachers and parents culpability not only in exercising but also in reproducing these practices through themselves Going beyond describing and analysing the educational problem of academic intellectual achievement oriented education based on aggressive competition this book suggests ways to address these issues through autobiography using the method of currere to reconstruct one s subjectivity and an ethic of care

Distinct among contemporary philosophical studies focused on education this book engages the history of phenomenological thought as it moves from philosophy proper the European phenomenological hermeneutic tradition through curriculum studies It thus presents the best of both worlds for the reader there is a play or movement from philosophy proper to educational philosophy and then back again in order to locate and explicate what is intimated suggested and in some cases left unsaid by educational philosophers This amounts to a work on education philosophy that elucidates through various permutations within the unique foci of each essay the general phenomenological theme of the fundamental ontology of the human being as primordial learner Reflecting his experience as scholar teacher and perennial learner the author suggests how research in phenomenology might prove beneficial to the enhancement of both the theoretical and practical aspects of education readers are invited to envision education as far more than merely a means by which to organize an effective learning experience in which

knowledge is assimilated and skill sets are efficiently imparted but rather as a holistic and integrated process in which knowing acting and valuing are original ways of Being in the world Curricular Conversations Margaret Macintyre Latta,2013 Curricular Conversations is about play as a medium for teaching and learning that asks teachers and students to participate through adapting changing building and creating meaning Contemplating Curriculum Wanda Hurren,Erika Hasebe-Ludt,2013-08-29 Contemplating Curriculum takes up world renowned curricular scholar teacher and mentor Ted T Aoki s invitation to contemplate where curriculum scholars situate themselves in their work At the same time it probes into the historical and present conditions that make it both possible and impossible to attend to this work in classrooms and communities in mindful embodied and aesthetic ways both locally and globally The book offers a strong representative sampling of contemporary thinking in the field with a focus on contemplative approaches to curriculum In their theorizing contributors call on literary and other mixed genre formats such as creative nonfiction poetry and essay They acknowledge the importance of intergenerational dialogue and recognize the importance of time and place in curricular pedagogical and personal sense making These written and visual texts invite contemplation on notions of curriculum both planned and lived in an Aokian spirit of intertextuality Education and Social Dynamics Arnd-Michael Nohl,R. Nazlı Somel,2015-08-27 Education and Social Dynamics offers a new approach to analyzing curriculum change by investigating the entanglement of education and society in markedly heterogeneous Turkey which has recently witnessed nation wide curriculum reforms While the new curriculum has attempted to homogenize all Turkish primary schools since 2005 Nohl and Somel drawing on a theoretical differentiation of social entities reveal how subsequent curricular practices have had to account for the diversity of milieus and organizations in the nation s educational sector and how inequality and competition run rampant in the standardization efforts Using expert interviews group discussions and other empirical data that compare instructional practices within five distinct schools the book represents a breakthrough in our understanding of developments in Turkey and their significance for extant theories of curriculum development and reform worldwide By linking specific case study material from Turkey to intensifying international concerns it provides an important and relevant global commentary

Discontents Gunnlaugur Magnússon, Anne M. Phelan, Stephen Heimans, Ruth Unsworth, 2024-09-16 This unique collection of essays from researchers and teacher educators from around the world presents innovative approaches to education theory critical policy analyses de colonializing reformulations of teacher education and a standard of dissensus for teacher education This first volume from the International Teacher Education Research Collective ITERC illustrates common themes and problems in the politics of education in particular standardization marketization governance and policy in education with both country specific cases and generally formulated theoretical discussions The book has three primary aims to illustrate and critique the ethical epistemological and political discourses shaping teacher education to identify and unravel the entanglements of politics knowledge and ethics in teacher education in a range of international settings and to revitalize teacher education by proposing and exploring alternative modes of thought and practice The volume contributes to further reflection and in depth discussion in education to the formulation of new areas for educational research and to critical resistance to hegemonic discourses of education Making an important contribution to contemporary education discourse this book is a useful guide for education researchers and theorists teacher educators and postgraduate and higher degree research students in education Alternatives to Privatizing Public Education and Curriculum Daniel Ness, Stephen J.

Farenga, 2017-03-16 Through conversations in honor of Dale D Johnson this book takes a critical view of the monoculture in curriculum and policy that has developed in education with the increase of federal funding and privatization of services for public education and examines the shift from public interest and control to private and corporate shareholder hegemony Most states educational responsibilities assessment of constituents curriculum development and instructional protocols are increasingly being outsourced to private enterprises in an effort to reduce state budgets These enterprises have been given wide access to state resources such as public data from state sanctioned testing results field testing rights to public schools and financial assistance Chapter authors challenge this paradigm as well as the model that has set growing premiums on accountability and performance measures Connecting common impact between the standards movement and the privatization of education this book lays bare the repercussions of high stakes accountability coupled with increasing privatization Winner of The Society of Professors of Education Book Award 2018 Teacher Education and the Political Matthew Clarke, Anne Phelan, 2017-01-12 Teacher Education and the Political is a striking book which addresses the nature and purpose of teacher education in a global context characterised by economic and political anxieties around declining productivity and social inclusion These anxieties are manifested in recent policy developments such as the promotion of professional standards the deregulation and marketisation of teacher education and the imposition of performance related regimes that tie teachers pay to outcomes in high stakes testing The book assesses the implications of such policies for the work of teachers as well as for teacher educators and those undertaking initial teacher training It is argued that these policy moves can be read as a depoliticising and de intellectualising of teacher education In this context they illustrate how contemporary theory can provide a language for critiquing recent developments and imagining new trajectories for policy and practice in teacher education Drawing on the work of theorists from Derrida and Mouffe to Agamben and Lacan this book argues for the need to maintain a space for intellectual autonomy as a critical dimension of the ethico political work of teachers Together these ideas and analyses provide examples of the power of negative thinking illustrating its capacity to unsettle comfortable truths and foreground the political nature of teacher education Current teachers teacher educators and school leaders will be particularly interested readers alongside those concerned with policy in the wider educational landscape
