Disciplining the Holocaust Karyn Ball, 2008-10-23 Disciplining the Holocaust examines critics efforts to defend a rigorous and morally appropriate image of the Holocaust Rather than limiting herself to polemics about the proper approach to traumatic history Karyn Ball explores recent trends in intellectual history that govern a contemporary ethics of scholarship about the Holocaust She examines the scholarly reception of Goldhagen's Hitler's Willing Executioners the debates culminating in Eisenman's Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin Lyotard's response to negations of testimony about the gas chambers psychoanalytically informed frameworks for the critical study of traumatic history and a conference on feminist approaches to the Holocaust and genocide Ball's book bridges the gap between psychoanalysis and Foucault's understanding of disciplinary power in order to highlight the social implications of traumatic history BOOK JACKET The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma Meera Atkinson, 2017-07-27 The first decades of the twenty first century have been beset by troubling social realities coalition warfare global terrorism and financial crisis climate change epidemics of family violence violence toward women addiction neo colonialism continuing racial and religious conflict While traumas involving large scale or historical violence are widely represented in trauma theory familial trauma is still largely considered a private matter associated with personal failure This book contributes to the emerging field of feminist trauma theory by bringing focus to works that contest this tendency offering new understandings of the significance of the literary testimony and its relationship to broader society The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma adopts an interdisciplinary approach in examining how the literary testimony of familial transgenerational trauma with its affective and relational contagion illuminates transmissive cycles of trauma that have consequences across cultures and generations It offers bold and insightful readings of works that explore those consequences in story Alison Bechdel's Fun Home A Family Tragicomic 2006 Hélène Cixous's Hyperdream 2009 Marguerite Duras's The Lover 1992 Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy 1999 and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria 2006 and The Swan Book 2013 concluding that such testimony constitutes a fundamentally feminist experiment and encounter The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma challenges the casting of familial trauma in ahistorical terms and affirms both trauma and writing as social forces of political import SUNY Series in Psychoanalysis and Culture, 1993

Contemporary Psychoanalysis and the Legacy of the Third Reich Emily A. Kuriloff, 2013-08-15 For most of the twentieth century Jewish and or politically leftist European psychoanalysts rarely linked their personal trauma history to their professional lives for they hoped their theory their Truth would transcend subjectivity and achieve a universality not unlike the advances in the hard sciences Contemporary Psychoanalysis and the Legacy of the Third Reich confronts the ways in which previously avoided persecution expulsion loss and displacement before during and after the Holocaust shaped what was and remains a dominant movement in western culture Emily Kuriloff uses unpublished original source material as well as personal interviews conducted with migr survivor analysts and scholars who have studied the period revealing how the quality of relatedness between people determines what is possible for them to know and do both personally and professionally Kuriloff's research spans the globe including the analytic communities of the United States England Germany France and Israel amidst the extraordinary events of the twentieth century Contemporary Psychoanalysis and the Legacy of the Third Reich addresses the future of psychoanalysis in the voices of the second generation thinkers and clinicians whose legacies and work remains informed by the pain and triumph of their parents and mentors Holocaust stories These unprecedented revelations influence not only our understanding of mental health work but of history art politics and education Psychoanalysts psychologists psychiatrists sociologists cultural historians Jewish and specifically Holocaust scholars will find this volume compelling

Testimony Shoshana Felman, Dori Laub, 2013-10-18 In this unique collection Yale literary critic Shoshana Felman and psychoanalyst Dori Laub examine the nature and function of memory and the act of witnessing both in their general relation to the acts of writing and reading and in their particular relation to the Holocaust Moving from the literary to the visual from the artistic to the autobiographical and from the psychoanalytic to the historical the book defines for the first time the trauma of the Holocaust as a radical crisis of witnessing the unprecedented historical occurrence of an event eliminating its own witness Through the alternation of a literary and clinical perspective the authors focus on the henceforth modified relation between knowledge and event literature and evidence speech and survival witnessing and ethics
