Reading Revolutionary Iran Ze'ev Maghen,2023-03-06 The burden of this book is twofold The first half is charged with identifying and critiquing the many prejudices and misconceptions that inform popular and even scholarly perceptions of Islam and Iran those rooted in neo conservative hostility no less than those arising out of pro regime apologetics or what we will argue are misleading post modern methodologies This is a key component of our overall investigation both because the illusions occluding our view of the Islamic Republic are we assert piled so high and deep and because setting the record straight on many a contentious issue is the most appropriate context for elucidating the positive positions of the revolutionary clerics These last represent perhaps more than anything else the premier critics of Western civilization in our day and their ideologies may therefore be best comprehended when placed in dialogue with and in polemic against the worldviews of that civilization which in their own turn are often most profoundly understood when offset by their present day Islamist nemeses As noted above it is not all contention unexpected meeting points and congruities emerge as well when the activist Shi ite clerics are placed in the same virtual room with their occidental counterweights The second half of the book deploys a large number of rarely tapped primary sources both ancient and contemporary in order to tease out the attitudes of the class of Muslim scholars recently and currently at the helm of the Iranian state in a variety of significant fields including the role of religion in society the relationship between democracy and theocracy the modern Western Weltanschauung the Sunni Shi i schism and much more Though the author parses and provides background and context for the myriad citations from these influential Muslim thinkers the ultimate objective is to allow them to speak for themselves
