Qur'anic Studies Mustafa Shah, M. A. S. Abdel Haleem, 2020-04-28 The Qur'an is the foundational sacred text of the Islamic faith Traditionally revered as the literal word of God its pronouncements and discussions form the bedrock of Islamic beliefs and teachings Notwithstanding its religious pre-eminence and the fact that it is the sacred text for over one billion of the world's Muslims the Qur'an is also considered to be the matchless masterpiece of the Arabic language Its historical impact as a text can be discerned in all aspects of the heritage of the Arabic literary tradition Over recent decades academic engagement with the Qur'an has produced an impressive array of scholarship ranging from detailed studies of the text's unique language style and structure to meticulous surveys of its contents concepts and historical contexts The Oxford Handbook of Qur'anic Studies is an essential reference and starting point for those with an academic interest in the Qur'an It offers not only detailed reviews of influential subjects in the field but also a critical overview of developments in the research discourse It explores the tradition of Qur'anic exegesis and hermeneutics making it a comprehensive academic resource for the study of the Qur'an No single volume devoted to such a broad academic survey of the state of the field currently exists

The Mission and Death of Jesus in Islam and Christianity Mathias Zahniser, 2015-03-11 The common wisdom is that Christians and Muslims should dialogue only about what they agree on This book takes a different approach As the author observes If we focus only on our common ground we will miss some of the motivating force of our traditions because that force derives not only from what we hold in common but also from those convictions that keep us apart Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas, 2019-01-16 Does Islam call for the oppression of women Non-Muslims point to the subjugation of women that occurs in many Muslim countries especially those that claim to be Islamic while many Muslims read the Qur'an in ways that seem to justify sexual oppression inequality and patriarchy Taking a wholly different view Asma Barlas develops a believer's reading of the Qur'an that demonstrates the radically egalitarian and antipatriarchal nature of its teachings Beginning with a historical analysis of religious authority and knowledge Barlas shows how Muslims came to read inequality and patriarchy into the Qur'an to justify existing religious and social structures and demonstrates that the patriarchal meanings ascribed to the Qur'an are a function of who has read it how and in what contexts She goes on to reread the Qur'an's position on a variety of issues in order to argue that its teachings do not support patriarchy To the contrary Barlas convincingly asserts that the Qur'an affirms the complete equality of the sexes thereby offering an opportunity to theorize radical sexual equality from within the framework of its teachings This new view takes readers into the heart of Islamic teachings on women gender and patriarchy allowing them to understand Islam through its most sacred scripture rather than through Muslim cultural practices or Western media stereotypes For this revised edition of Believing Women in Islam Asma Barlas has written two new chapters Abraham's Sacrifice in the Qur'an and Secular Feminism and the Qur'an as well as a new preface an extended discussion of the Qur'an's wife beating verse and of men's presumed role as women's guardians and other updates throughout the book

Scholars of Faith Usha Sanyal, 2020-06-12 Since the late twentieth century new institutions of Islamic learning for South Asian women and girls have emerged rapidly particularly in urban areas and in the diaspora This book reflects upon the increased access of Muslim girls and women to religious education and the purposes to which they seek to put their learning Scholars of Faith is based on ethnographic fieldwork in two institutions of religious learning the Jami a Nur madrasa in Shahjahanpur North India and Al Huda International an NGO that offers online courses on Islam especially the Qur an In this monograph Sanyal argues that Islamic religious education in the early twenty first century particularly for women is thoroughly modern and that this modernity reflected in both old and new interpretations of religious texts allows young South Asian women to evaluate their place in traditional structures of patriarchal authority in the public and private spheres in novel ways

Jerusalem in Memory and Eschatology Emma O'Donnell Polyakov, 2025-06-12 Investigating a range of eschatological ideologies this volume explores the connection between notions of sacred space and time in Jewish Christian and Muslim understandings of Jerusalem The recognition of Jerusalem as a holy city both unites and divides Judaism Christianity and Islam While these three religious traditions share a reverence for the same ancient city this veneration leads more often to tension and violence than to commonality and cooperation Each of these religions draws heavily from religious memory and eschatological prophecies and sees Jerusalem as a site of past and future upheaval however the distinctions in their visions imbue Jerusalem with meanings that reinforce conflicting and contested ideologies Offering multiple analyses of religious interpretations of the city and its sacred sites this volume explores these divergent visions of the remembered and anticipated Jerusalem

The Meaning of Surah 99 Az-Zalzalah (The Earthquake) From Holy Quran Bilingual Edition English Spanish Standar Version Jannah Firdaus Mediapro, 2019-08-09 The Meaning of Surah 99 Az Zalzalah The Earthquake From Holy Quran Bilingual Edition In English and Spanish Language Standar Version Surah Al

Zalzalah The Earthquake is the 99th chapter surah of The Holy Qur'an composed of 8 verses ayat. Though it is usually classified as a Medinan surah, the period under which the surah was revealed is not unanimously agreed upon by Quranic exegetes. The surah begins by describing how on the Day of Judgment the Earth will give off a terrible earthquake and throw up her burdens. Through the inspiration of God, the Earth will bear witness to the actions of men it has witnessed. According to Michael Sells, the earth opening up and bearing forth her secrets in this surah is indicative of a birth metaphor. The earth, as the feminine gender, bears forth of how her lord revealed the final secret to her. Human beings will then realize that the moment of accountability has arrived. This meticulous accountability will reflect good and evil deeds that might have seemed insignificant at the time. The two concluding verses state that all men will be sorted out into groups according to their deeds and they will see the consequence of everything they have done. Every atom's weight of good or evil. That day, mankind will issue forth in scattered groups to be shown their deeds. And whoso doeth good, an atom's weight will see it. Then And whoso doeth ill, an atom's weight will see it. Then. The Holy Qur'an, verses 99:6-8 translated by Marmaduke Pickthall. Its theme is the second life after death and presentation in it before man of the full record of the deeds done by him in the world. In the first three sentences, it has been told briefly how the second life after death will take place and how confounding it will be for man. In the next two sentences, it has been said that this very earth on which man has lived and performed all kinds of deeds thoughtlessly and about which he never could fancy that this lifeless thing would at some time in the future bear witness to his deeds will speak out on that Day by Allah's command and will state in respect of each individual person what act he had committed at a particular time and place. Then it has been said that men on that Day rising from their graves will come out in their varied groups from all corners of the earth to be shown their deeds and works and their presentation of the deeds will be so complete and detailed that not an atom's weight of any good or evil act will be left unnoticed or hidden from his eyes.

Ecumenical Community Hamza M. Zafer, 2020-11-23. In Ecumenical Community, Hamza M. Zafer explores the language and politics of community formation in the Qur'an. Zafer proposes that ecumenism or the inclusivity of social difference was a key alliance building strategy in the western Arabian proto-Muslim communitarian movement, 1st-7th century. The Proto-Muslims imagined that their pietistic community, the ummah, transcended but did not efface prior social differences based in class, clan, and custom. In highlighting the inclusive orientation of the Qur'an's ummah building program, Zafer provides new insights into the development of early Islam and the period preceding the Arab conquests.

The Quranic Noah and the Making of the Islamic Prophet, Carlos A. Segovia, 2015-09-25. Still in its infancy because of the overly conservative views and methods assumed by the majority of scholars working in it since the mid-19th century, the field of early Islamic and Quranic studies is one in which the very basic questions must nowadays be addressed with decision. Accordingly, this book tries to resituate the Qur'an at the crossroads of the conversations of old to which its parabiblical narratives witness and explores how Muhammad's image, which was apparently modelled after that of the anonymous prophet repeatedly alluded to in the Qur'an originally matched that of other prophets and or charismatic figures distinctive in the late antique sectarian milieu out of which Islam gradually emerged Moreover it contends that the Quranic Noah narratives provide a first hand window into the making of Muhammad as an eschatological prophet and further examines their form content purpose and sources as a means of deciphering the scribal and intertextual nature of the Qur'an as well as the Jewish Christian background of the messianic controversy that gave birth to the new Arab religion The previously neglected view that Muhammad was once tentatively thought of as a new Messiah challenges our common understanding of Islam's origins
