Salma Rajathi Salma, Kim Longinotto, 2013-10-01 In this book the Indian poet Salma and filmmaker Kim Longinotto come together to portray Salma's extraordinary life and the challenges of capturing it in a documentary film When Salma a young Muslim girl growing up in a South Indian village was 13 years old her family shut her away for eight years forbidding her to study and forcing her into marriage After her wedding her husband insisted she stay indoors Salma was unable to venture outside for nearly two and a half decades During that time words became her salvation She began covertly composing poems on scraps of paper and through an intricate system smuggled them to the outside world The poems many of which are included here describe the hardships Salma and countless women like her suffer in their secluded lives Eventually they reached a local publisher who printed them Against all odds and in a direct challenge to the stultifying traditions of her village Salma has gone on to become a renowned Tamil poet and influential human rights activist

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds

Diaspora and Multiculturalism, 2021-12-28 In postcolonial theory we have now reached a new stage in the succession of key concepts After the celebrations of hybridity in the work of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak it is now the concept of diaspora that has sparked animated debates among postcolonial critics This collection intervenes in the current discussion about the new diaspora by placing the rise of diaspora within the politics of multiculturalism and its supersession by a politics of difference and cultural rights theory The essays present recent developments in Jewish negotiations of diasporic tradition and experience discussing the reinterpretation of concepts of the old diaspora in late twentieth century British and American Jewish literature The second part of the volume comprises theoretical and critical essays on the South Asian diaspora and on multicultural settings between Australia Africa the Caribbean and North America The South Asian and Caribbean diasporas are compared to the Jewish prototype and contrasted with the Turkish diaspora in Germany All essays deal with literary reflections on and thematizations of the diasporic predicament Feminism and Modernity in Anglophone African Women's Writing Dobrota Pucherová, 2022-07-29

This book re-reads the last 60 years of Anglophone African women's writing from a transnational and trans-historical feminist perspective rather than postcolonial from which these texts have been traditionally interpreted Such a comparative frame throws into relief patterns across time and space that make it possible to situate this writing as an integral part of women's literary history Revisiting this literature in a comparative context with Western women writers since the 18th century the author highlights how invocations of tradition have been used by patriarchy everywhere to subjugate women the similarities between women's struggles worldwide and the feminist imagination it produced The author argues that in the 21st century African feminism has undergone a major epistemic shift from a culturally exclusive to a relational feminism that conceptualizes African femininity through the risky opening of oneself to otherness transculturation and translation Like Western feminists in the 1960s contemporary African women writers are turning their attention to the female body as the prime site of women's oppression and freedom reframing feminism as a demand for universal human rights and actively shaping global discourses on gender modernity and democracy The book will be of interest to students and researchers of African literature but also feminist literary scholars and comparatists more generally The Missionary Self-Perception of Pentecostal/Charismatic Church Leaders from the Global South in Europe Claudia Währisch-Oblau, 2009-03-16 In a situation of growing interest in the religion of migrants there are still few publications dealing with pentecostal and charismatic Christians from the global South and the churches they have been starting all over Europe This ground-breaking study based on extensive interviews conducted during a nine-year research period encompassing more than 100 churches describes how pentecostal charismatic migrant pastors live out their pastoral role how they construct their missionary biographies and how they conceptualize and practice evangelism The result is a comprehensive portrait of an immigrant group which does not define itself as victimized and in need of assistance but as expatriate agents with a clear calling and a vision to change the continent they now live in
