British Indian Picture Postcards in Bengaluru Emily Stevenson, 2023-12-18 Combining ethnographic and archival research this book examines the lives of colonial period postcards and reveals how they become objects of contemporary historical imagination in India Picture postcards were circulated around the world in their billions in the early twentieth century and remained until the advent of social media unmatched as the primary means of sharing images alongside personal messages This book based on original research in Bengaluru shows that their lives stretch from their initial production and consumption in the early 1900s into the present where they act as visual and material mediators in postcolonial productions of history locality and heritage against a backdrop of intense urban change The book will be of interest to photographic historians visual anthropologists and art historians

An Indian Village Through Letters and Pictures Detlef Kantowsky, 1995 n Indian Village through Letters and Pictures provides an intimate picture of Rameshwara village with its day to day activities and preoccupations illustrated with numerous photographs personal documents and letters It is lucidly written without professional jargon Numerous photographs personal documents and letters give the account a rare quality of authenticity and enable us to feel the pulse of a typical north Indian village Bulletin of the Public Library of the City of Boston, 1919 New Hampshire Public Libraries, 1929 Bulletin of the New Hampshire Public Libraries, 1920
