Design and the Decorative Arts Michael Snodin, John Styles, 2001-10 London was rivalled only by Paris as a focus for international interest in design and the decorative arts By the nineteenth century British design was widely admired and copied Its products could be found right across the globe from palaces and stately homes to the living rooms of ordinary people History of Design Bard Graduate Center, 2013-12-10 A survey of spectacular breadth covering the history of decorative arts and design worldwide over the past six hundred years Design & the Decorative Arts Michael Snodin, John Styles, 2001 Design & the Decorative Arts Michael Snodin, John Styles, 2004 Now available in trade paperback for the first time the V who decided what was to be considered beautiful fashionable and desirable It looks at how fashionable things from houses to clothing were used It asks what was new examining new products and innovations in the ways they were made Together the chapters provide an indispensable resource for the study of design and the decorative arts in Victorian Britain Ceramics in the Victorian Era Rachel Gotlieb, 2023-06-29 This book broadens the discussion of pottery and china in the Victorian era by situating them in the national imperial design reform and domestic debates between 1840 and 1890 Largely ignored in recent scholarship Ceramics in the Victorian Era Meanings and Metaphors in Painting and Literature argues that the signification of a pot a jug or a tableware pattern can be more fully discerned in written and painted representations Across five case studies the book explores a rhetoric and set of conventions that developed within the representation of ceramics emerging in the late 18th century and continuing in the Victorian period Each case study begins with a textual passage exemplifying the outlined theme and closes with an object analysis to demonstrate how the fusing of text image and object are critical to attaining the period eye in order to better understand the metaphorical meanings of ceramics Essential reading not only for ceramics scholars but also those of material culture the book mines the rich and diverse archive of Victorian painting and literature from the avant garde to the sentimental from the well known to the more obscure to shed light on the at once complex and simple implications of ceramics agencies at this time

Introduction to Modern Design George H. Marcus, 2019-12-26 With some 280 colour illustrations Introduction to Modern Design takes us on a visual survey of design from the Industrial Revolution of the eighteenth century to the Maker Movement of today It offers a new understanding of the birth of modern design in the early twentieth century and chronicles the way its meaning has changed over the decades The narrative is supported by twenty six readings from significant texts by designers and critics offering readers an opportunity to learn about design from those who created it and those who commented on it as it was done The focus of this book is on the objects themselves from industrial design furniture ceramics textiles graphics electronics to automobiles and explores the development of these designs in relation to industrialization technology environmental responsibility consumerism individual needs and the expression of the social values of their day Clearly written and accessible Introduction to Modern Design provides a succinct history of and fascinating insights into the world of design     Collectors, Collections and Museums Stacey Pierson, 2007 This book presents the first comprehensive study of the collecting consumption and display of Chinese porcelain in Britain from the 16th to the 20th century as well as the impact of this activity on British culture Beginning with the early porcelains acquired as objects of exotica and vessels for the consumption of tea and coffee followed by porcelains for display in the country house interior the first part of this book reveals the role of porcelain in Britain's developing economic relations with China and the impact of this material on both daily life and interior design The subsequent diplomatic and political conflicts of the 18th and 19th centuries provide a framework for an examination of British consumption of Chinese porcelain as both spoils of war and iconic representations of China material which helped to shape and influence British perceptions of China The final section demonstrates how these perceptions of China and its porcelain began to change significantly in the 20th century with porcelains acquired as works of art and displayed publicly in museums Collectors in Britain began to specialise in this area and actively invented a field of Chinese ceramics that was promulgated by learned societies and culminated in the founding of a museum of Chinese ceramics in London by one of the foremost British collectors Sir Percival David who donated his world class collection to the University of London in 1950     The Spinning World Giorgio Riello, Prasannan Parthasarathi, 2011-09-22 This collection of essays examines the history of cotton textiles at a global level over the period 1200-1850 It provides new answers to two questions what is it about cotton that made it the paradigmatic first global commodity And second why did cotton industries in different parts of the world follow different paths of development     The Art of a Corporation Jennifer Howes, 2023-04-14 The Art of a Corporation is a comprehensive study of artworks that were commissioned and collected by the East India Company from the early seventeenth to the midnineteenth centuries These items range from oil paintings on canvas and marble statuary to sandstone Buddhas and metal figurines of Hindu deities The book takes a chronological approach and focuses on provenance to show that objects are valuable primary resources for understanding the East India Company's history The artworks illustrate how one of the longest surviving multinational corporations in the Western world changed over its three century history and provide a powerful visual account of its perpetually reinvented image This book is a must read for scholars and researchers of art history colonial art colonial studies British history economic history business history South Asian history post colonial studies and cultural studies Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution NonCommercial NoDerivatives 4.0 International license     Design & the Decorative Arts Michael Snodin, John Styles, 2004-06-08 Georgian has come to define a period characterized by elegance and refinement as seen in the work of designers such as Thomas Chippendale Robert Adam Thomas Sheraton and Josiah Wedgwood     The Chinese Taste in Eighteenth-Century England David Porter, 2010-11-11 Eighteenth century consumers in Britain living in an increasingly globalized world were infatuated with exotic Chinese and Chinese styled goods art and decorative objects However they were also often troubled by the alien aesthetic sensibility

these goods embodied This ambivalence figures centrally in the period's experience of China and of contact with foreign countries and cultures more generally David Porter analyzes the processes by which Chinese aesthetic ideas were assimilated within English culture Through case studies of individual figures including William Hogarth and Horace Walpole and broader reflections on cross cultural interaction Porter's readings develop new interpretations of eighteenth century ideas of luxury consumption gender taste and aesthetic nationalism Illustrated with many examples of Chinese and Chinese inspired objects and art this is a major contribution to eighteenth century cultural history and to the history of contact and exchange between China and the West

Consuming Splendor Linda Levy Peck, 2005-09-19 A fascinating study of the ways in which consumption transformed social practices gender roles royal policies and the economy in seventeenth century England It reveals for the first time the emergence of consumer society in seventeenth century England

Creating the British Galleries at the V & A Christopher Wilk, Nick Humphrey, 2004 Opened in 2001 the British Galleries immediately received international acclaim and subsequently won awards This book details the immense task of putting the galleries together from the initial early days of research to the acquisition design and implementation

International Arts and Crafts Victoria and Albert Museum, 2005-03-08 This book presents exciting new research on one of the most popular far reaching and influential design movements of modern times Lavishly illustrated this is the first major global examination of the Arts and Crafts movement including the US Europe and for the first time Japan The Arts and Crafts movement revolutionised attitudes to work and the home and laid the foundations for a radical shift in approach to design and lifestyle in the early twentieth century From the pioneering example of William Morris and the writings of John Ruskin to a new generation of architects artists designers and patrons the movement championed a unity of the arts and was broadly defined by the common aims of social and industrial reform the revival of handicrafts a return to the simple life and the improvement of art for everyday life It was the first major art movement to focus on the decorative arts but it flung its net much wider drawing architecture garden design photography and graphics into its orbit and changing the way we think about design Leading scholars in the field explore the regional national and international manifestations of Arts and Crafts looking at the work of many leading designers including Walter Crane C F A Voysey M H Baillie Scott C R Mackintosh Jensen Gustav Stickley Frank Lloyd Wright in Europe and America and Hamada Shoji and Bernard Leach in Japan Lavishly illustrated and extensively researched this book is a major contribution to a wider understanding of Arts and Crafts and an invaluable visual record of an ever popular era of design

Imagined Interiors Jeremy Aynsley, Charlotte Grant, 2006 Now available in paperback Imagined Interiors presents an extraordinarily diverse body of visual and textual material suggesting fresh histories of the home its contents and representation and appealing to all who are interested in art history interior design social history and the decorative arts

Current Research in Britain, 1989

Fashion and Modernity Christopher Breward, Caroline Evans, 2005 What is the relationship between fashion and modernity and how is this unique relationship manifested in the material world This book considers how the relationship between fashion and modernity tests the very definition of modernity and enhances our understanding of the role of fashion in the modern world      Chinese Textiles Verity Wilson, 2005-08 Every Chinese textile tells a story and this book tells many stories of Chinese life and legend through the sumptuous textiles that adorn its pages Breathtaking in workmanship colour and design they were made for a purpose and it is those created for celebrations that dominate the selection in this book As well as dealing with technique and influence Wilson tells the story of each piece why it was made and for whom and introduces us to a galaxy of characters from China's history and legend The superb photography allows us to see how richly these textiles reflect the culture from which they come      British Sculpture 1470 to 2000 Diane Bilbey, Marjorie Trusted, 2002-11 The unrivaled collection of post medieval British sculpture in the Victoria and Albert Museum is here catalogued and illustrated for the first time Its great strengths lie in the works from the 17th 18th and 19th centuries and virtually every major sculptor active during this period is represented among them Nicholas Stone John Michael Rysbrack Louis Francois Roubiliac Joseph Wilton John Flaxman and Alfred Stevens A total of 770 pieces by 189 sculptors are included more than a third of which have never been published before The catalogue wide ranging and scholarly will serve both as an invaluable work of reference and in effect a history of the great tradition of sculpture in Britain      Guide to Microforms in Print , 1998
