Designing An Older Adult Ministry:

Designing an Older Adult Ministry Richard H. Gentzler, 1999 Building on the success of Designing a Ministry by with and for Older Adults author Rick Gentzler gives readers new ways to develop and strengthen ministries with older adults providing information about the needs and life issues of older adults tools to help congregations evaluate their current situation models for ministry with older adults suggested resources For more information on ministries with older adults contact the Center on Aging Older Adult Ministries or call the toll free number 877 899 2780 extension 7177

An Age of Opportunity Richard H. Gentzler, 2018-05-01 A companion to the author's earlier book Designing an Older Adult Ministry Discipleship Resources 1999 this book will provide new information and outline ways to develop and strengthen ministries by with and for older adults that can and will enhance the spiritual growth and well being of people of all ages The church is beginning to recognize that there are vast numbers of older people in its membership It is becoming aware of its indebtedness to them for the leadership support service and faith that has made the church of today possible The church is uniquely positioned to help older adults respond to the challenges of aging to see the tremendous potentialities in the lives of older adult for making the church and community better and to assist older people as they experience new meaning and purpose in their later lives Chapters include Why Older Adult Ministries Understanding the Aging Process Aging and the Spiritual Journey The New Seniors Boomers Intentional Ministry by with and for Older Adults Organizing for Intentional Ministry in the Local Church Organizing for Intentional Ministry in the Conference Congregational Care Ministry Additional Ideas for Intentional Ministry and Trends in Aging Appendixes include a Facts about Aging quiz information on creating and using older adult surveys and suggested resources for further reading and study

Aging & Ministry in the 21st Century Richard H. Gentzler, 2008 The church is in the hands of its elders While the popular perception is that the aged are needy and infirm Gentzler affirms that the majority of older adults have plenty to give The church needs to tap into their wisdom energy experience and talents Gentzler stresses that older adult ministries need to be by and with elders as well as for them since participants will represent all stages of retirement and activity levels In addition to the practical issues of programming Gentzler takes on more difficult topics of aging including chronic conditions depression and death He also recommends that churches pay special attention to the needs of the Baby Boomer generation since they are now becoming the older adults who will determine the church's path for years to come As Boomers have cycled through their various life stages they passed through hippie and yuppie to become abbies aging Baby Boomers Gentzler writes But don't tell Boomers they're aging They really do expect to stay young and see getting old as an option rather than a reality The Leader's Guide is here

Designing a Ministry By, With, and for Older Adults Richard H. Gentzler (Jr), 1993

Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18 Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly By 2030 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well being

Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach instead presenting a step by step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations both large and small to create a focused older adult ministry No two congregations are alike The resources perspectives and skills of each congregation are different as are the needs of its members Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs cultural history and structure of their individual congregations Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections The Fundamentals defining your audience your mission and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process Programming Possibilities spiritual needs based on the aging process continued learning for older adults opportunities to serve and be served providing quality pastoral care and community building Putting it All Together deciding on a direction using desired outcomes for evaluation establishing target dates and ongoing evaluation Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process The book is an invaluable resource for clergy ministry committees and planning groups and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries positions within congregational life the book explores biblical roots and dimensions of leader development It includes new thinking based on field research and training leaders in a variety of settings Purchasers receive permission to reproduce individual job description pages for use in church workshops Older People in Modern Society Anthea Tinker,2014-10-13 Older People in Modern Society is an established classic text in its field and through subsequent editions its reputation and that of its author has grown In this fourth and renamed edition Anthea Tinker synthesises and discusses a wide range of literature about older people drawing from fields such as medicine sociology and social policy and using primary source material to illustrate the text She also introduces a number of topics that have attained greater importance since publication of the third edition in 1992 for example continuing care and the abuse of older people Job Descriptions and Leadership Training in the United Methodist Church 2013-2025 Betsey Heavner,2015-10-14 Job Descriptions and Leadership Training is a handbook for congregations to develop leaders as a vital part of their discipleship system The first portion of the book provides a framework for a nominating committee to build a culture of leadership development including suggestions for ministry organization It contains an exploration of both biblical roots and contemporary research for training leaders The second part of the book has one page job descriptions for positions suggested in the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church Purchasers receive permission to reproduce individual job description pages for use in church workshops Each job description includes the following information Ministry Result Expected from This Position Spiritual Gifts and Qualifications Helpful for This Position Responsibilities of the Position Tips for Getting Started Resources for Help Including People and Websites A great resource for helping United Methodist church leaders understand the difference between job and ministry Introduction to Educational Gerontology Ronald H. Sherron,D. Barry Lumsden,2013-11-12 Educational gerontology is the study of the changes in the learning process caused by old age This new edition provides an update of developments in this field of research The volume probes topics such as implications for education for the aging reminiscence methods of teaching social exchange and equal opportunity LIFTING UP THE SENIOR SPIRIT REV. JANET MITCHELL HISBON,2012-06 The crocus flower bulb has special meaning for the design cover It was selected because it is symbolic of the act of lifting the Senior Spirit from the emotional dark cold winter season of an older adult s mundane and dull life to give birth to change and the springtime of a new way of life These beautiful blossoms breaking through the snow and ice represent the inner struggle that one encounters to bloom where they are planted What is happening to them is not mere happenstance something larger than them are at work within them Someone wiser than they are has a word to speak and that word is Yes to God s will and His way in their new life It is also a reminder of the death and resurrection of Jesus from the dark tomb to the newness of life Jesus rose that we may have life and that we may have it more abundantly So it is with Older Adults they rise to a better quality of life and at the same time preserve their dignity The Nuts & Bolts of Christian Education Delia Halverson,2010-10-01 Can you give me the book that will tell me how to DO Christian education The Nuts

Bolts of Christian Education is designed to answer the most frequently asked questions by new as well as veteran teachers and leaders Even though most churches provide teacher and leader training at least once a year generally these one or two day sessions are unable to answer every question that arises during the year The Nuts Bolts of Christian Education is a practical guidebook that leads new and experienced teachers through the challenging and sometimes confounding landscape of the education ministry of a congregation This is not a collection of lesson plans it is a chock full survey of nearly every aspect of Christian education one could imagine DOING Christian Education starts here The Doctrine and Discipline of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church 2012 Discipline Codification Commission,2014-12-11 The Doctrine and Discipline of the AME Zion Church 2012 is the Book of Discipline for this 218 year old denomination Based upon the original tenets of Wesleyan theology and doctrine and under girded by its founders of African birth the churchs mission is to promote freedom and liberty to the lost and disenfranchised Arts and Culture for Older People in Singapore: An Annotated Bibliography Belinda Yuen,Penny Kong,2018-01-23 This book combines in a single volume numerous studies concerning the use of arts and culture to enhance quality of life health and wellbeing among older people especially in Singapore The bibliography covers not only research conducted in Singapore both published and grey literature but also a global body of work encompassing the Asia Pacific region Europe and North America In addition to the annotated bibliography the opening chapter introduces the current state of policy practice and research on arts and culture for older people in Singapore The book offers a valuable point of reference for all readers interested in the use of artistic and cultural development as creative and non pharmacological approaches to providing support throughout the ageing process It will be particularly useful for anyone interested in research advances in participatory arts therapies and recreational activities for older individuals

Whether you're a student looking for textbooks, a professional seeking industry-specific manuals, or someone interested in self-improvement, these digital resources provide an efficient and accessible means of acquiring knowledge. Moreover, PDF books and manuals offer a range of benefits compared to other digital formats. PDF files are designed to retain their formatting regardless of the device used to open them. This ensures that the content appears exactly as intended by the author, with no loss of formatting or missing graphics. Additionally, PDF files can be easily annotated, bookmarked, and searched for specific terms, making them highly practical for studying or referencing. When it comes to accessing Designing An Older Adult Ministry books and manuals, several platforms offer an extensive collection of resources. One such platform is Project Gutenberg, a nonprofit organization that provides over 60,000 free eBooks. These books are primarily in the public domain, meaning they can be freely distributed and downloaded. Project Gutenberg offers a wide range of classic literature, making it an excellent resource for literature enthusiasts. Another popular platform for Designing An Older Adult Ministry books and manuals is Open Library. Open Library is an initiative of the Internet Archive, a non-profit organization dedicated to digitizing cultural artifacts and making them accessible to the public. Open Library hosts millions of books, including both public domain works and contemporary titles. It also allows users to borrow digital copies of certain books for a limited period, similar to a library lending system. Additionally, many universities and educational institutions have their own digital libraries that provide free access to PDF books and manuals. These libraries often offer academic texts, research papers, and technical manuals, making them invaluable resources for students and researchers. Some notable examples include MIT OpenCourseWare, which offers free access to course materials from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and the Digital Public Library of America, which provides a vast collection of digitized books and historical documents. In conclusion, Designing An Older Adult Ministry books and manuals for download have transformed the way we access information. They provide a cost-effective and convenient means of acquiring knowledge, offering the ability to access a vast library of resources at our fingertips. With platforms like Project Gutenberg, Open Library, and various digital libraries offered by educational institutions, we have access to an ever-expanding collection of books and manuals. Whether for educational, professional, or personal purposes, these digital resources serve as valuable tools for continuous learning and self-improvement. So why not take advantage of the vast world of Designing An Older Adult Ministry books and manuals for download and embark on your journey of knowledge?
