Depth Psychology And A New Ethic:

Depth Psychology and a New Ethic Erich Neumann, 1973 The modern world has witnessed a dramatic breakthrough of the dark negative forces of human nature The old ethic which pursued an illusory perfection by repressing the dark side has lost its power to deal with contemporary problems Erich Neumann was convinced that the deadliest peril now confronting humanity lay in the scapegoat psychology associated with the old ethic We are in the grip of this psychology when we project our own dark shadow onto an individual or group identified as our enemy failing to see it in ourselves The only effective alternative to this dangerous shadow projection is shadow recognition acknowledgement and integration into the totality of the self Wholeness not perfection is the goal of the new ethic Depth psychology and a New ethic, tr Erich Neumann,

Life and Work of Erich Neumann Angelica Löwe, 2020-05-10 Life and Work of Erich Neumann On the Side of the Inner Voice is the first book to discuss Erich Neumann's life work and relationship with C G Jung Neumann 1905-1960 is considered Jung's most important student and in this deeply personal and unique volume Angelica Löwe casts Neumann's comprehensive work in a completely new light Based on conversations with Neumann's children Ralf Loewenthal Neumann and Professor Micha Neumann Löwe explores Neumann's childhood and adolescent years in Part I including how he met his wife and muse Julie Blumenfeld In Part II the book traces their life and work in Tel Aviv where they moved in the early 1930s amid growing anti-Jewish tensions in Hitler's Germany Finally in Part III Löwe analyses Neumann's most famous works This is the first book-length discussion of the existential questions motivating Neumann's work as well as the socio-historical circumstances pertaining to the problem of Jewish identity formation against rising anti-Semitism in the early 20th century It will be essential reading for Jungian analysts and analytical psychologists in practice and in training as well as scholars of Jungian and post-Jungian studies and Jewish studies

Business Ethics 3.0 Erhard Meyer-Galow, 2018-05-22 The reputation of business managers is declining due to their disregard for moral decisions and ethical practices Business students are currently taught only technical knowledge without concern for being compassionately and holistically engaged However when entering the business sector these graduates encounter a world which necessitates difficult personally challenging decisions ones for which technical knowledge is insufficient Successful sustainable resolutions can only be expected to result from a holistic sustainable approach which accommodates the difficulty in balancing ethical practices with the demands for ever-increasing profits This unique graduate textbook addresses the issue of business ethics from the perspective of an individual's internal growth facilitated by a consideration of the principles of depth psychology spiritual wisdom meditation and quantum physics written by a CEO with an enormous business background It not only promotes a new ethical approach but also addresses the implementation of this new approach in the most important business sectors as a replacement for previous ineffective codes of conduct which have failed It's a must-read for business students with aspirations of becoming managers or entrepreneurs in the economic sector as well as for all young professionals managers and entrepreneurs to improve their ethical performance and sustainable success Message from the author This book creates an impetus for change in a business world where unethical practices are rampant by providing a suggested a New Integral Ethics for the economy an ethical approach based upon inner psychological and spiritual development arising from a serious consideration of Depth Psychology Readers will learn how adoption of specific Practices which lead to inner growth and spiritual maturity will result in ethical morally sound business practices not because they are mandated but because once the SELF is actualized you cannot do otherwise Laws appeals and directives which have never successfully resulted in ethical practices become unnecessary replaced by intrinsically ethical individuals who collectively influence corporate ethical behaviour This is a giant leap into a new dimension in our globalized digitized economy Business Ethics 3 0 by Erhard Meyer Galow provides a much needed beacon of light to a segment of our society that seem to be sinking deeper and deeper into darkness The term business ethics once an important topic within the business community has slowly descended through the fog of profitable ends justifying unprincipled means to become nothing more than a self contradictory oxymoron especially among large international corporations In Business Ethics 3 0 Erhard Meyer Galow has taken a fresh approach that appeals to individual personal growth rather than the usual proffering of academic arguments that are not implementable in the real world of relentless Machiavellian competition Only through raising and improving individual awareness and responsibility can real long term change have a chance of developing Business Ethics 3 0 is on the right track with a positive and compelling message may it succeed where the academics have failed Thomas Campbell physicist consciousness researcher author of My big TOE Finalist at the 2018 Humanistic Management Book Awards The Analyst and the Rabbi Murray Stein, Henry Abramovitch, 2019-06-20 A meeting between C G Jung and Rabbi Leo Baeck took place in Zurich in October 1946 at the Savoy Hotel Baur en Ville Very little is actually known about this meeting There are no extant notes or reports from the principals indicating what was said or discussed There was no secretary present taking down minutes of the conversation What is known from the few documents attesting to this meeting is that it took place at Jung s request and that Baeck did not wish to meet with Jung The play is an imaginative construction of what might have happened in this historic meeting of two great men Murray Stein Ph D is a training and supervising Jungian psychoanalyst at ISAPZURICH and has a private practice in Zurich Switzerland He is the author of Jung s Map of the Soul and other books and articles Henry Abramovitch Ph D is training analyst and founding President of Israel Institute of Jungian Psychology He is Professor Emeritus at Tel Aviv University Medical School and former President of Israel Anthropology Association He is the author of Brothers and Sisters Myth and Reality as well as numerous articles and book chapters He lives and practices in Jerusalem International Research Handbook on Values Education and Student Wellbeing Terence Lovat, Ron Toomey, Neville Clement, 2010-08-05 Informed by the most up to date research from around the world as well as examples of good practice this handbook analyzes values education in the context of a range of school based measures associated with student wellbeing These include social emotional moral and spiritual growth elements that seem to be present where intellectual advancement and academic achievement are being maximized This text comes as values education widens in scope from being concerned with morality ethics civics and citizenship to a broader definition synonymous with a holistic approach to education in general This expanded purview is frequently described as pedagogy relating to values and wellbeing This contemporary understanding of values education or values and wellbeing pedagogy fits well with recent neuroscience research This has shown that notions of cognition or intellect are far more intertwined with social and emotional growth than earlier educational paradigms have allowed for In other words the best laid plans about the technical aspects of pedagogy are bound to fail unless the growth of the whole person social emotional moral spiritual and intellectual is the pedagogical target Teachers and educationalists will find that this handbook provides evidence culled from both research and practice of the beneficial effects of such a values and wellbeing pedagogy

Jewish Exiles' Psychological Interpretations of Nazism Avihu Zakai, 2020-08-31 This book examines works of four German Jewish scholars who in their places of exile sought to probe the pathology of the Nazi mind Wilhelm Reich s The Mass Psychology of Fascism 1933 Erich Fromm s Escape from Freedom 1941 Siegfried Kracauer s From Caligari to Hitler A Psychological History of the German Film 1947 and Erich Neumann s Depth Psychology and a New Ethic 1949 While scholars have examined these authors individual legacies no comparative analysis of their shared concerns has yet been undertaken nor have the content and form of their psychological inquiries into Nazism been seriously and systematically analyzed Yet the sense of urgency in their works calls for attention They all took up their pens to counter Nazi barbarism believing like the English jurist and judge Sir William Blackstone who wrote in 1753 scribere est agere to write is to act

Living in the Borderland Jerome S. Bernstein, 2006-02-01 Living in the Borderland addresses the evolution of Western consciousness and describes the emergence of the Borderland a spectrum of reality that is beyond the rational yet is palpable to an increasing number of individuals Building on Jungian theory Jerome Bernstein argues that a greater openness to transrational reality experienced by Borderland personalities allows new possibilities for understanding and healing confounding clinical and developmental enigmas There are many people whose experiences of reality is outside the mainstream of Western culture often they see themselves as abnormal because they have no articulated frame of reference for their experience The concept of the Borderland personality explains much of their experience In three sections this book examines the psychological and clinical implications of the evolution of consciousness and looks at how the new Borderland consciousness bridges the mind body divide Subjects covered include Genesis Evolution of the Western Ego Transrational Data in a Western Clinical Context Synchronicity Trauma and Borderland Transcendence Environmental Illness Complex Integration of Navajo and Western healing approaches for Borderland Personalities Living in the Borderland challenges the standard clinical model which views normality as an absence of pathology and which equates normality with the rational Jerome S Bernstein describes how psychotherapy itself often contributes to the alienation of Borderland personalities by misperceiving the difference between the pathological and the sacred The case studies included illustrate the potential this has for causing serious psychic and emotional damage to the patient This challenge to the orthodoxies and complacencies of Western medicine's concept of pathology will interest Jungian Analysts Psychotherapists Psychiatrists and other physicians as well as educators of children Jerome S Bernstein is a Jungian Analyst in private practice in Santa Fe New Mexico

Public Relations Ethics and Professionalism Johanna Fawkes, 2014-08-01 Do professions really place duty to society above clients or their own interests If not how can they be trusted While some public relations PR scholars claim that PR serves society and enhances the democratic process others suggest that it is little more than propaganda serving the interests of global corporations This is not an argument about definitions but about ethics yet this topic is barely explored in texts and theories that seek to explain PR and its function in society This book places PR ethics in the wider context of professional ethics and the sociology of professions By bringing together literature from fields beyond public relations sociology professional and philosophical ethics and Jungian psychology it integrates a new body of ideas into the debate The unprecedented introduction of Jungian psychology to public relations scholarship shifts the debate beyond a traditional Western Good Bad ethical dichotomy towards a new holistic approach with dynamic implications for theory and practice This thought provoking book will be essential reading for students academics and professionals with an interest in public relations ethics and professionalism

Ethics and Analysis Luigi Zoja, 2007 Also available in an open access full text edition at http://repositories.tamu.edu/bitstream/handle/1969.1/86082/Zoja\_585445783\_Txt.pdf sequence 1 Most books on psychoanalytical ethics focus on rules but author Luigi Zoja argues that ethics is really concerned with personal decisions as is analysis itself Rules are defined by others and center on punishment but the purpose of analysis is to free the individual to make choices from his or her own best psychological and emotional center while still respecting society Rules establish black and white real ethics and psychological understanding both operate in the gray zone Rules emerge from Enlightenment rationality true ethics proceeds from choices and thus cannot be given in advance or be satisfied by respecting the rational part of the psyche only After considering the nature of ethics Zoja turns to Immanuel Kant and Max Weber for a practical consideration of therapeutic relationships He applies his ethical principles to the first psychoanalytical cases Anna O and Sabine Spielrein described by Freud and Jung In his thorough examination of these original examples Zoja balances the traditional ethic of rules and law with the new ethic proposed by Erich Neumann The result is an appreciation of the complex at times even contradictory yet healing nature of analysis      The Roots of Jewish Consciousness, Volume One Erich Neumann, 2019-04-24 The Roots of Jewish Consciousness Volume One Revelation and Apocalypse is the first volume fully annotated of a major previously unpublished two part work by Erich Neumann 1905 1960 It was written between 1934 and 1940 after Neumann then a young philosopher and physician and freshly trained as a disciple of Jung fled Berlin to settle in Tel Aviv He finished the second volume of this work at the end of World War II Although he never published either volume he kept them the rest of his life The challenge of Jewish survival frames Neumann s work existentially This survival he insists must be psychological and spiritual as much as physical In Volume One Revelation and Apocalypse he argues that modern Jews must relearn what ancient Jews once understood but lost during the Babylonian Exile that is the individual capacity to meet the sacred directly to receive revelation and to prophesy Neumann interprets scriptural and intertestamental apocalyptic literature through the lens of Jung s teaching and his reliance on the work of Jung is supplemented with references to Buber Rosenzweig and Auerbach Including a foreword by Nancy Swift Furlotti and editorial introduction by Ann Conrad Lammers readers of this volume can hold for the first time the unpublished work of Neumann with useful annotations and insights throughout These volumes anticipate Neumann s later works including Depth Psychology and a New Ethic The Origins and History of Consciousness and The Great Mother His signature contribution to analytical psychology the concept of the ego Self axis arises indirectly in Volume One folded into Neumann s theme of the tension between earth and YHWH This unique work will appeal to Jungian analysts and psychotherapists in training and in practice historians of psychology Jewish scholars biblical historians teachers of comparative religion as well as academics and students      Collected Works of C.
