Nietzsche and the Question of Interpretation Alan D. Schrift, 1990 First Published in 1991 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Hegel and Language Jere O'Neill Surber, 2012-02-01 The first anthology explicitly dedicated to Hegel's linguistic thought Hegel and Language presents various facets of a new wave of Hegel scholarship The chapters are organized around themes that include the possibility of systematic philosophy truth and objectivity and the relation of Hegel's thought to analytic and postmodern approaches to language While there is considerable diversity among the various approaches to and assessments of Hegel's linguistic thought the volume as a whole demonstrates that not only was language central for Hegel but also that his linguistic thought still has much to offer contemporary philosophy The book also includes an extensive introductory survey of the linguistic thought of the entire German Idealist movement and the contemporary issues that emerged from it International Theory at the Margins Nicholas Greenwood Onuf, 2024-03-12 This book brings together thirteen essays from the celebrated international theorist Nicholas Greenwood Onuf They address topics that Onuf has puzzled over for decades prompting him to develop a distinctive perspective on international theory as social theory Among these topics are the problem of materiality in social construction epochal change in the modern world and the power of language Building on the work of giants from Aristotle and Cicero Hume and Kant to Derrida and Foucault and drawing on diverse contemporary theorists including Seyla Benhabib James Der Derian Johan Galtung Morton Kaplan Joseph Nye James Rosenau Elaine Scarry and Kenneth Waltz the book ranges over the margins of the field and settles on issues that have never been put to rest

Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä, 2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkil asserts that the implications of the work of art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkil shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art

The Context of Logocentrism in Derrida's Thought Roland Theuas DS. Pada, 2023-07-24 This collection of essays explores Derrida's critique of logocentrism from the problem of prioritising speech over writing to the fundamental assumptions of the metaphysics of presence While Derrida is often portrayed as a staunch critic of logocentrism in his reading of philosophical texts the central premise here is that Derrida was implicitly affirming the necessity of logocentrism in his works As such this book explores this implicit affirmation of logocentrism as a relatively stable foundation for meaning that can be revised altered and appropriated to give way to new possibilities of meaning while operating within the context of the axioms of logocentrism

Adorno's Nonidentical and Derrida's Différance - For a Resurrection of Negative Dialectics Stefan Zenklusen, 2020-11-06 The virulent anti Hegelianism of French poststructuralism and its difficult confrontation with Jürgen Habermas has long obscured the closeness of Jacques Derrida's différance to Theodor W Adorno's Nonidentical Taking the overarching theme of identity and difference as a guide we can peel apart what unites and separates these two thinkers In so doing certain de-realizing effects of Derrida's entrapment in signs reveal themselves By contrast Adorno's social and cultural diagnosis when extrapolated to a post Fordian context is astonishingly fruitful Attempts to trivialize negative dialectics as a model of intellectual self understanding from a past age or as an esthetic reserve of ways of life are untenable

On the Future of History Ernst Breisach, 2007-11-01 What does postmodernism mean for the future of history Can one still write

history in postmodernity To answer questions such as these Ernst Breisach provides the first comprehensive overview of postmodernism and its complex relationship to history and historiography Placing postmodern theories in their intellectual and historical contexts he shows how they are part of broad developments in Western culture Breisach sees postmodernism as neither just a fad nor a universal remedy In clear and concise language he presents and critically evaluates the major views on history held by influential postmodernists such as Derrida Foucault Lyotard and the new narrativists Along the way he introduces to the reader major debates among historians over postmodern theories of evidence objectivity meaning and order truth and the usefulness of history He also discusses new types of history that have emerged as a consequence of postmodernism including cultural history microhistory and new historicism For anyone concerned with the postmodern challenge to history both advocates and critics alike On the Future of History will be a welcome guide The Ways We Think Emma Williams,2016-02-16 The Ways We Think critiques predominant approaches to the development of thinking in education and seeks to offer a new account of thought informed by phenomenology post structuralism and the ordinary language philosophical traditions Presents an original account of thinking for education and explores how this alternative conception of thought might be translated into the classroom Explores connections between phenomenology post structuralism and ordinary language philosophical traditions Examines the relevance of language in accounts of how we think Investigates the philosophical accounts of Gilbert Ryle Martin Heidegger John Austin and Jacques Derrida Draws upon experience of own teaching practice as philosopher in residence A Postmodern Theology of Ritual Action Jonathan L. presenting themselves as the ultimate bearers of truth and reality have created unprecedented technological cultural and political framings This new order conspires to undermine the interpretive practices of open ended critique normalizing a sense of threat to preserve control The greatest emergency has become the absence of emergencies Tracing an intellectual alliance between academics such as Jordan Peterson and Christina Hoff Sommers and right wing populist politicians such as Donald Trump and Marine Le Pen this book denounces framings that make a claim to objectivity With the help of contemporary thinkers including Bruno Latour Judith Butler and Giorgio Agamben as well as discussion of the Cambridge Analytica whistleblower Christopher Wylie and the emergency of biodiversity loss due to climate change Santiago Zabala illustrates that the twenty first century question is not whether we can be free but how to be at large unconstrained by the new realist order Being at Large demonstrates the anarchic power of hermeneutics calling for interpretive disruptions of the authoritarian narrative as a way of reclaiming freedom in the age of alternative facts

Globalization and Human Subjectivity Yun Kwon Yoo,2021-10-14 Globalization and Human Subjectivity argues that Hegelian subjectivity could serve as a philosophical basis for a new conception of human subjectivity for the age of globalization Why then does globalization demand a new conception of human subjectivity at all What constitutes the Hegelian subjectivity such that it is not only relevant and but also necessary to the contemporary postmodern context of globalization This book largely addresses these two questions Capitalist globalization the context in which we find ourselves today strategically leads to the death of the subject in the sense that it reduces human beings merely to consumers who without critical subjectivity simply succumb to the imperialism of a globalizing market In this context we are impelled to envision a new conception of human subjectivity for the age of globalization This book explores Hegel s view on human subjectivity as spiritual subjectivity particularly presented in his Phenomenology of Spirit which could function as a new anthropological vision about what it means to be authentically human in a globalizing world that is a sort of cosmopolitan citizen who is constantly universalizing oneself through self transcending self determined ethico political actions in solidarity with others to create a global community of co existence and co prosperity for all

In the Spirit of Critique Andrew J. Douglas,2013-12-02 Focusing on the critical postures of Hegel Marx and a series of twentieth century intellectuals including Sartre Adorno and C L R James this book explores what dialectical thinking entails and how such thinking might speak to the lived realities of the contemporary political moment What is revealed is not a formal method or a grand philosophical system but rather a reflective energy or disposition a dialectical spirit of critique that draws normative sustenance from an emancipatory moral vision but that remains attuned principally to conflict and tension and to the tragic uncertainties of political life In light of the unique challenges of the late modern age as theorists and citizens struggle to sustain an active and coherent critical agenda In the Spirit of Critique invites serious reconsideration of a rich and elusive intellectual tradition

From Violence to Peace Alex Deagon,2017-08-24 This book contributes to the literature on jurisprudence and theology by arguing for the role of a theoretically robust Christian theology in a legal community dominated by secular and liberal ideology It is not a doctrinal or empirical analysis but a theoretical exposition of the way in which modern law has contingently drifted from its theological origins As a result the legal system and the ideal of individual and communal relationship it envisages is characterised by antagonism and alienation or more broadly violence The book contends that the way to restore a legal community of peace is to return to a Christian theology which is informed by Trinitarian thinking or the notion of unity in diversity and reunites faith with reason Returning reason to its ground in being allows peaceful persuasion by the revelation of God's perfect being through the Trinity and Incarnation which models and enables the peaceful coexistence of difference through self sacrificing love This in turn produces the law of love to love your neighbour as yourself Since love does no wrong to a neighbour a legal community operating by the law of love can fulfil the obligations of law by going beyond merely what is required by law and love individuals as part of a community
