Case Studies On Educational Administration 6th Edition Allyn Bacon Educational Leadership:

Case Studies on Educational Administration Theodore J. Kowalski, 2008 This book immerses prospective administrators in the realities of practice Problem solving and decision making skills are addressed through the use of open ended case studies Effective practice in school administration requires both leadership and management In today s reform minded information based society practitioners must be able to frame problems correctly and then make effective decisions to ameliorate them As leaders district and school level administrators are expected to focus on what should be done to improve schools as managers they are expected to focus on how to do things successfully The cases in this book are designed to make students think about common problems of practice by encouraging them to bridge theory and practice More precisely the cases are intended to hone four essential practitioner skills 1 The ability to frame a problem correctly 2 The ability to develop and evaluate alternative solutions to a defined problem 3 The ability to use data and other facts to counter the influence of politics and emotion in decision making 4 The ability to grow professionally by engaging in reflective practice

You Can't Make This Up! Linda Rae Markert, 2020-10-26 In You Can't Make This Up the author invites both emerging educational leaders and practicing school administrators to read a series of short stories recounted by principals and vice principals employed in schools across the United States in Germany and Cyprus This collection of present day stories highlights the types of challenges school leaders encounter on a daily basis all of which demand informed decisions but none of which are easily resolved Each story is presented in a case study format and aligned with selected elements within one of the ten Professional Standards for Educational Leadership PSEL At a critical juncture in each case a series of questions to ponder is presented followed by a segment describing what actually occurred Case Studies on Safety, Bullying, and Social Media in Schools Laura Trujillo-Jenks, Kenneth Jenks, 2015-09-16 Case Studies on Safety Bullying and Social Media in Schools addresses the most topical issues facing school leaders today including bullying harassment inappropriate use of social media drug use and school safety Bridging theory and practice each chapter includes a detailed case artifacts for analysis explanation of relevant case and federal law and guiding questions for discussion Adapted from real world examples the case studies in this timely resource serve as essential exercises for aspiring and practicing leaders to ensure student safety and success This case book helps aspiring educational leaders prepare and respond to even the most difficult situations that occur on school campuses and in the school community Case Studies in 21st Century School

Administration David L. Gray, Agnes E. Smith, 2007-01-18 Case Studies in 21st Century School Administration Addressing Challenges for Educational Leadership presents real problems that confront today s school leaders who must deal with issues of diversity school improvement and limited resources Authors David L Gray and Agnes E Smith give prospective school leaders opportunities to resolve complex issues in K 12 school settings through reflective questions activities and authentic assessment tools for skill development Leading for Transformational Change Wafa Hozien, 2022-11-28 Leading for

Transformational Change provides case studies reflective summaries and pertinent questions in each chapter to encourage the reader to engage in reflection by connecting content standards with real world experiences This book provides a deep across the board analysis of all facets of the school district superintendent position by linking practical knowledge pertaining to contemporary practice Handbook of Data-Based Decision Making in Education Theodore Kowalski,Thomas J. Lasley,2010-04-15 Pt 1 Theoretical and practical perspectives pt 2 Building support for data based decisions pt 3 Data based applications Effective Communication for District and School Administrators Theodore J. Kowalski,2015-08-20 The book is a unique and necessary contribution to the literature on school administration Research theory and practice were melded to produce a book that can be used as a primary or supplemental text or as professional growth resource for practitioners Communication scholars especially since 1990 have concluded that competence must be defined and studied in the context of professions As such a growing number of medical schools law schools and business schools have integrated communication into their curricula This book provides a resource for such integration into the study and practice of district and school administration The Power of Teacher Leaders Nathan Bond,2014-07-25 Co published with Kappa Delta Pi The Power of Teacher Leaders provides a comprehensive resource for understanding the ways that teacher leaders foster positive change in their schools Distinct from school administrators teacher leaders are professionals who remain in the classroom and use their specialized knowledge and skills to improve student achievement influence others and build organizational capacity Written by leading educational researchers each chapter of The Power of Teacher Leaders describes a different way that teachers are leading Moving beyond the question of why teacher leaders are important and how such work is implemented the contributing scholars to this collection offer a critical examination of the field by presenting original research case studies and programs in practice Topics covered include how teachers become leaders their wide ranging leadership roles and the effects of teacher leadership on student academic success and school communities A cohesive edited collection this book demonstrates how teacher leaders play an increasingly active role in the improvement of student learning teacher professional development and school climate Standards-based Leadership Sandra Harris,2004 Today s assistant principal is charged with the responsibility of supporting the principal in creating a learning organization which emphasizes success for all students Frequently due to the nature of the position assistant principals often find themselves as the man or woman in the middle with job duties that are quite different from that of the principal An important component leading to the successful implementation of school leadership is decision making based on standards that are grounded in research and best practice Standards Based Leadership A Case Study Book for the Assistant Principalship provides a structure for learning and growth that connects theory with practice whether the assistant principal is already on the job or enrolled in a preparation program Each chapter is organized around identification of a major ELCC standard and then related to the Texas standards The scenarios are all based on actual problems that have faced practicing assistant principals

Applying the descriptors of the standard and using the brief literature reviews as resources to guide decision making assistant principals are provided with a framework for implementation of specific strategies that will best help students As aspiring school leaders reflect on the realistic situations provided in each chapter and identify possible applications and implications they will be strengthened in their quest to meet the challenges of standards based leadership for the assistant principalship
