Cases on the Law of Personal Property (Classic Reprint) John V. Brennan, 2017-09-13 Excerpt from Cases on the Law of Personal Property The purpose of this book is to set out and illustrate by concrete cases these fundamental principles In selecting these cases the author has kept in mind two things viz first to include no case based on obsolete law second to include only so much of the case as is in point The cases have also been arranged in such a way as to develop in a logical order the legal principles under discussion As a further help to the student a topical heading has been used for each case or group of cases the purpose being to give the student something definite to look for The heading however in no instance reveals the holding of the case for the author has been as careful to prevent legal conclusions being drawn from the headings as he has been particular in selecting suitable headings The cases selected are of such a type and variety as to illustrate in a comprehensive manner the underlying principles of the law of Personal Property About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
