The pressure for an organization to get it right is the key to competitive success. Companies now look to creative compensation strategies to create an environment that employees want to work for. Using point form, write a brief description of the organization, its employees, and its challenges. What is the organization's domain? Fit stop is a new business concept developed by Susan Superset, who after a serious sports related injury, became aware of a market opportunity in the personal retail sports supply industry.

Susan with her undergraduate degrees in sinology and commerce, recognized that existing sport retailers marketed a limited range of fitness equipment and employed allegations with very limited knowledge of the equipment being sold and gave little or poor advice on what to buy and how to use it. Suntan's, business plan is to operate and compete in the existing retail market domain of large retailers. The domain consists of sporting goods stores, mega store, discount and department stores all retailing some of the same equipment.

Its business objective is to sell all types of training, fitness, conditioning, and exercise equipment to the general public. Susan wants to start off with large stores creating a visible presence in the existing racetrack, competing along side other large retailers with similar products. Her goal is to breakout large stores in Ontario and branch into four provinces, her funding does not show a profit for a term of one or two years.

She wishes to compete by her organizations ability to meet and exceed the demands of consumers in the retail sports industry by providing personalized up to date training, conditioning advise, along with the latest and largest range of fitness and exercise equipment. The key strategy of the company is to be the most up to date and advanced supplier f new products and techniques. She believes this business strategy will set her business apart from the rest of the competitors in the retail sector and by providing information, education and personalized service to customers.

The employees will be knowledgeable and highly motivated. By employing a manager with a Bachelor of Commerce degree and employing a fulfillment sinology and physiotherapist, to consul clients and to train staff, she will need to hire full time sales staff with a minimum level of grade 12 education, to engage in the high level of training each staff member will require. Employees will need to process a strong concern for their customers, be innovative in developing solutions that fit their customer needs, and be continuous learners in the fitness industry.

Susan challenge includes a needs to develop a compensation system to realize her organizational goals of positioning herself in the existing similar market place. And by her ability to compete in up to date and advanced range of equ

Case Study Solutions - Human Resource Development Gr. Capt. H Kaushal, 2010-02 The book provides conceptual inputs and offers several case studies covering the entire gamut of the study of Human Resource Development HRD catering to the requirement of managers and students of business schools A serious attempt has been made to cover Case Studies in Organizational Behaviour and Human Resource Management Dan Gowler, Karen Legge, Chris Clegg, 1993-03-28 This book presents 24 research based cases that require users to apply relevant theoretical models to the analysis of real life organizations and to specify solutions to practical managerial problems Nine of the cases additionally provide role playing exercises The book is organized into five parts and the cases deal with issues at the interface of strategy organizational behaviour and HRM These include Japanese manufacturing methods TQM JIT high performance work teams greenfield sites culture and commitment delayering recruitment selection appraisal and development managing growth and retrenchment All the cases are united by the common theme of managing organizational change in settings as diverse as car components and assembly companies British Airways Fulham Football Club retail distribution and retailing a partnership of professional surveyors the NHS and British Rail Case Studies and Activities in Adult Education and Human Resource Development Steven W. Schmidt, Kathleen P. King, 2010-09-01 Case studies have become a widely used instructional tool in many educational environments The use of case studies began in the 1950s at Harvard Business School Today they may be used as part of a course of study or as the main focus of a course to which other material is added While the use of case studies is prevalent in schools of business and medicine they are not often used in adult education or human resource development This may be because there are no current major publications that deal with the use of case studies in these disciplines nor are there any major databases of adult education or human resource development case studies for instructors to use Good case studies can bring reality into the classroom They can provide frameworks for discussion based on issues that must be faced in real life Complex case issues can be broken down and examined for greater understanding then pulled together again for resolution Case studies can be used successfully in adult education I propose a book based on the use of case based learning in adult education and human resource development HRD The book could be positioned as a supplement to course textbooks for courses in adult education and HRD I would write the cases and develop the exercises but could also get others to contribute a case study or exercise to the book Cases would each be a half page to maybe 2 3 pages at the long end and would include questions for students readers Supplementary information possibly in the form of a DVD could be put together for instructors This information would include case study focal points and examples of possible responses for each study exercise Human Resource Management in a Business Context John Kew, John Stredwick, 2016-06-01 Highly accessible and student friendly Human Resource Management in a Business Context is the core text for the CIPD Level 7 Advanced module Human Resource Management in Context and is also essential reading for other undergraduate and postgraduate HR
