Castles And Ancient Monuments Of Scotland:

Castles and Ancient Monuments of Scotland Damien Noonan,2000-10 In this exciting and lavishly illustrated new guide Damien Noonan explores a variety of historic sites The Daily Telegraph Castles & Ancient Monuments of Scotland Damien Noonan,2000 CASTLES & ANCIENT MONUMENTS OF SCOTLAND , Scotland's Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis,2014-07-07 Scotland's Castles is a beautifully illustrated celebration and account of the renaissance of Scottish castles that has taken place since 1950 Over 100 ruined and derelict buildings from tiny towers to rambling baronial mansions have been restored as homes hotels and holiday lets These restorations have mainly been carried out by new owners without any connections to the land or the family history of the buildings which they bought as ruins Their struggles and triumphs including interviews and first person accounts form the core of the book set in the context of the enormous social political and economic changes of the late twentieth century The Castles and Ancient Monuments of Scotland Damien Noonan,2000 This is a comprehensive guide to visiting the castles and historic sites of Scotland It includes maps directions and other useful information for visitors A History and Guide to Scottish Castles Jenna Maxwell,2023-01-24 At one time Scotland was home to more than 4 000 castles It's an extraordinary number for such a small country and today around 3 000 still stand Some are world famous others have inspired great works of literature while others have lit up the silver screen There are grand ticketed visitor attractions but there are others which are unassuming structures so tucked away that only the locals seem to know about them From the triangular shaped Caerlaverock Castle in Dumfries and Galloway to the imposing New Slains Castle in Aberdeenshire and from the magnificent fortress that dominates the Edinburgh skyline to the haunting battlements that stand on the banks of Loch Ness each tower tells a story every turret holds a secret and together they span centuries of fascinating Scottish history A History and Guide to Scottish Castles explores the history architecture and legends of some of these fascinating fortresses and looks at why they are so appealing to visitors today Sharing amazing facts and her own unique experiences author Jenna Maxwell takes readers on an unforgettable tour of some of Scotland's most amazing castles which if you haven't visited them already you'll soon want to Jenna has documented her journey on her Instagram page queenofthecastles The Castle MacQueed Kayce Bennett,2014-03 Scottish Castles Adrian Pettifer,2024-10 Gazetteer of over 500 hundred surviving Scottish Castles Discover the castles of Scotland from early motte and bailey earthworks and impressive walled enclosures to the many tower houses that dot the landscape Castles were built in increasing numbers from the 14th to the 17th century as residences for the Scottish nobility Some are still proudly occupied others are well maintained ruins many others slowly decay in fields and farmyards Here Adrian Pettifer provides a brief account of every Scottish castle to survive in a reasonable state of preservation including such iconic sites as Edinburgh Glamis and Cawdor Each of the more than five hundred main entries provides a brief history and description of a castle followed by advice on accessibility sources for further reading and cross

references to related sites An introduction supplies the historical background while a glossary covers all aspects of Scottish castles in some detail Ordnance Survey references are given in the index

A Passion for Castles Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2022-10-06 In the 1880s two Edinburgh architects began to survey measure and sketch the castles of Scotland travelling the length and breadth of the country on trains bicycles and on foot Together they produced the five magnificent volumes of The Castellated and Domestic Architecture of Scotland an unrivalled work of research that surveys more than 700 of Scotland's castellated buildings ranging from great medieval fortresses to small lairds houses with pepper pot turrets and is illustrated with thousands of sketches and plans The first part of A Passion for Castles tells the life stories of David MacGibbon and Thomas Ross and their work as Edinburgh architects before they embarked on their magisterial survey revealing interesting and previously unknown details about the two men The second part of the book sets their enormously ambitious castles project in its historical context and describes how MacGibbon and Ross managed to achieve their pioneering systematic and comprehensive survey The final part of the book provides a regional overview of the current status of all the castles surveyed by MacGibbon and Ross followed by a thematic exploration of those that have been lost those that have been transformed and those at risk of collapse before posing questions about what the future holds for the castles of Scotland

Conserving and Managing Ancient Monuments Keith Emerick, 2014 A survey of the theory and methods of conservation from the nineteenth century to the present day highlighting future pathways The origins and use of conservation principles and practice from the nineteenth century to the present day are charted in this volume Written from the perspective of a practitioner it examines the manner in which a single dominant mode of conservation which held sway for many decades is now coming under pressure from a different and more democratic heritage management practice favouring diversity inclusion and difference The author blends case studies from Ireland Cyprus and England with examples from current practice community heritage initiatives and political policy highlighting the development and use of international charters and conventions Central to the main argument of the book is that the sacred cows of conservation antiquity fabric and authenticity have outlived their usefulness and need to be rethought Dr Keith Emerick is an English Heritage Inspector of Ancient Monuments in York and North Yorkshire he is also a Research Associate at the University of York

Barholm Castle Janet Brennan-Inglis, 2025-07-17 In 1999 Barholm Castle in Galloway had lain ruinous and derelict for over two hundred years when Janet Brennan Inglis and her husband John bought it as a restoration project Together with a team of architects surveyors and builders overseen by Historic Scotland they turned this sixteenth century tower house into a domestic residence once again this time with central heating bathrooms and a twenty first century kitchen Since the restoration they have researched the history of Barholm Castle and the McCulloch family who owned it the stories they uncovered and the account of the painstaking restoration of Barholm Castle are told in this book Having restored the tower Janet and John turned their attention to the ground around it and set about developing a very special garden landscape The third part of the book describes the process of transforming the wild area surrounding the castle into a series of mature gardens providing a colourful and dramatic setting for the castle

The Gunns; History, Myths and Genealogy Alastair Gunn,2020-02-15 Here is a radical academically based text which demolishes the myths currently masquerading as Gunn history Gunns are best thought of as the original non related inhabitants of northern mainland Scotland They do not have an Orkney Islands origin Gunns should not be viewed as a clan as they had no founding ancestor There was never an historic Clan Gunn Chief The first Gunn known to history was Coroner Gunn of Caithness who died around 1450 His eldest son started the MacHamish Gunns of Killernan line many descendants from that line exist all around the world Major detail on this MacHamish line is included This book is an important addition to Scottish Highland history

Castles in the Mist Robin Noble,2016-04-21 A very worthwhile book Sir John Lister Kaye The magnificent Highlands of Scotland represent in so many ways ancient Britain But much of this apparently wild environment is in fact far more recent in origin it has been shaped by the Victorians Castles in the Mist reveals how for better or for worse the vast sporting estates of the Victorian era created the salmon rivers deer forests and grouse moors transforming the Highlands into the landscape that we recognise today with its attendant environmental problems In a seductive blend of memoir history and natural history Robin Noble explores the colossal impact of the Victorian legacy in his beloved Highlands and issues a clarion call for change to start tipping the balance back in nature s favour

Scotland's Castles C. J. Tabraham,1997 Scotland s castles are the most frequented of all its ancient monuments Chris Tabraham describes the history and the architecture of these ancient buildings and the contribution archaeology has made to our current understanding of them

MacDougall,2009 The MacDowalls traces the glories tragedies and amazing accomplishments of MacDowall kindred from their beginnings in Scotland and Ireland hundreds of years ago to their illustrious present in such countries as the United States Canada Australia the Netherlands and Russia The cast of characters ranges from kings and barons to artists and generals farmers homemakers and teachers Their stories unfold as a history in progress as each has made a unique and significant impact on the world

Training and Practice for Modern Day Archaeologists John H. Jameson,James Eogan,2012-12-09 In recent years an important and encouraging development in the practice of archaeology and historical preservation has been the markedly increased number of collaborations among archaeologists educators preservation planners and government managers to explore new approaches to archaeological and heritage education and training to accommodate globalization and the realities of the 21st century worldwide But what is the collective experience of archaeologists and cultural heritage specialists in these arenas Should we be encouraged or discouraged by national and international trends In an attempt to answer these questions this volume examines and gives representational examples of the respective approaches and roles of government universities and the private sector in meeting the educational training needs and challenges of practicing archaeologists today

Late Medieval Castles Robert Liddiard, 2016 A collection of the most significant articles in castle studies with contributions from scholars in history archaeology historic buildings and landscape archaeology The castles of the late medieval period represent some of the finest medieval monuments in Britain with an almost infinite capacity to fascinate and draw controversy They are also a source of considerable academic debate The contents of this volume represent key works in castle scholarship Topics discussed include castle warfare fortress customs architectural design and symbolism spatial planning and the depiction of castles in medieval romance The contributions also serve to highlight the diversity of approaches to the medieval castle ranging from the study of documentary and literary sources analysis of fragmentary architectural remains and the recording of field archaeology The result is a survey that offers an in depth analysis of castle building from the thirteenth to the fifteenth centuries and places castles within their broader social architectural and political contexts Robert Liddiard is Professor of History University of East Anglia Contributors Nicola Coldstream Charles Coulson Philip Dixon Graham Fairclough P A Faulkner John Goodall Beryl Lott Charles McKean T E McNeill Richard K Morris Michael Prestwich Christopher Taylor Muriel A Whitaker
