French Hegel From Surrealism To Postmodernism:

French Hegel Bruce Baugh, 2014-01-21 This highly original history of ideas considers the impact of Hegel on French philosophy from the 1920s to the present As Baugh's lucid narrative makes clear Hegel's influence on French philosophy has been profound and can be traced through all the major intellectual movements and thinkers in France throughout the 20th Century from Jean Wahl Sartre and Bataille to Foucault Deleuze and Derrida Baugh focuses on Hegel's idea of the unhappy consciousness and provides a bold new account of Hegel's early reception in French intellectual history Badiou and

Hegel Jim Vernon, Antonio Calcagno, 2015-07-22 Badiou and Hegel Infinity Dialectics Subjectivity offers critical appraisals of two of the dominant figures of the Continental tradition of philosophy Alain Badiou and G W F Hegel Jim Vernon and Antonio Calcagno bring together established and emerging authors in Continental philosophy to discuss the relationship between the thinkers creating a multifarious collection of essays by Hegelians Badiouans and those sympathetic to both The text privileges neither thinker nor any particular topic shared between them rather this book lays a broad and sound foundation for future scholarship on arguably two of the greatest thinkers of infinity universality subjectivity and the enduring value of philosophy in the modern Western canon Assuredly overdue this volume will attract Hegel and Badiou scholars as well as those interested in post structuralism political philosophy cultural studies ontology philosophy of mathematics and psychoanalysis Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis, 2005-10-17 Throughout the course of the twentieth century communism has enjoyed direct competition with all other governmental and economic systems Often communist countries produced their own special brand of party intellectual These figures rightly occupied their place within their own national context and within the context of the International Some communist intellectuals through the high level of erudition exhibited in their writing have received a wider reception despite their direct linkage to party politics e g Antonio Gramsci Georg Lukacs and Victor Serge are good examples After 1956 when Khrushchev exposed Stalin's atrocities to the Twentieth Congress of the Communist Party of the Soviet Union and as a result to the entire world Marxist philosophy was widely discredited It had been assumed that Stalin's excesses were somehow encouraged or supported through Marx's thought When in the mid 1960s Louis Althusser first offered his re-readings of Marx's philosophy it and communist political practice were in ruin However Althusser was in a unique cultural and historical position Thinking and writing concomitant with the structuralists and poststructuralists in France and also having access to certain theoretical tools while simultaneously committing himself entirely to Marxist thought Althusser was conceivably the last of his tradition He was a Marxist philosopher who unlike Sartre at the end of his life did not abandon communism to for instance existentialism In Louis Althusser and the Traditions of French Marxism William Lewis gives readers a striking example of intellectual biography and critical theory His approach considering the work and life of Althusser within French Marxism and French intellectual culture fills a void in contemporary scholarship But much more importantly Lewis is able to show how Althusser's thought is the result of and a response to specific French intellectual and political traditions of reading Marx It is through this combination of concerns

Hegel and Schelling in Early Nineteenth-Century France Kirill Chepurin, Adi Efal-Lautenschläger, Daniel Whistler, Ayşe Yuva, 2023-11-29 Hegel and Schelling in Early Nineteenth Century France is a two volume work that documents the French reception of G W F Hegel and F W J Schelling from 1801 to 1848 It shows that the story of the French Hegel didn't begin with Wahl and Kojve by giving readers a solid understanding of the various ways in which German Idealism impacted nineteenth century French philosophy as well as providing the first ever English language translations of excerpts from the most important philosophical texts of the era Inside volume one readers will find a number of interpretative frameworks to help them get to grips with this neglected field in the history of ideas In addition to excerpted translations and a narrative of Hegel's and Schelling's fate in France during the early nineteenth century this volume includes an introduction on transnational reception history as well as an analytical catalogue of the translations of their work produced in French at this time of the publications which appropriated or interrogated their philosophical legacy and of the journals institutional structures and other mechanisms of dissemination that brought Hegel's and Schelling's philosophy into France The book thus details the ways in which French philosophers of the period took up the debates and concepts of German Idealism transformed them or rejected them In this way it aims to contribute to a reversal of the serious neglect of early nineteenth century French thought in English language scholarship and in so doing goes beyond a nation based narrative of the history of philosophy Figures covered in the volumes include major philosophers such as Cousin Leroux Proudhon Quinet Ravaisson Renouvier and Vira as well as more neglected figures like Barchou de Penho n Bnard Lbre Lermnier Pictet and Willm

Hegel and Psychoanalysis Molly Macdonald, 2014-06-03 Both Hegel's philosophy and psychoanalytic theory have profoundly influenced contemporary thought but they are traditionally seen to work in separate rather than intersecting universes This book offers a new interpretation of Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit and brings it into conversation the work of two of the best known contemporary psychoanalysts Christopher Bollas and Andr  Green Hegel and Psychoanalysis centers a consideration of the Phenomenology on the figure of the Unhappy Consciousness and the concept of Force two areas that are often overlooked by studies which focus on the master slave dialectic This book offers reasons for why now more than ever we need to recognize how concepts of intersubjectivity Force the Third and binding are essential to an understanding of our modern world Such concepts can allow for an interrogation of what can be seen as the profoundly false and constructed senses of community and friendship created by social networking sites and further an idea of a global community which thrives at the expense of authentic intersubjective relations

Deleuze and the Passions Ceciel Meiborg (Ed.), Sjoerd van Tuinen, 2016 In recent years the humanities social sciences and neuroscience have witnessed an affective turn especially in discourses around post Fordist labor economic and ecological crises populism and identity politics mental health and political struggle This new awareness would be unthinkable without the pioneering work of Gilles Deleuze who replaced judgment with affect as the very material movement of thought every concept is an affective experience a becoming Besides entirely active affects the highest practice of thought there is no thought without passive affects or passions Instead of a calm and rational philosophy of passions Deleuzian thought is therefore inseparable from isolated and passionate cries that deny what everybody knows and what nobody can deny every true thought is an aggression This inseparability of reason and passion is by no means an anti intellectualist or irrationalist stance Rather it is critical since it protects reason from its self imposed stupidity by relating it to the unthought forces that condition it And it is clinical because thought becomes possessed by a power of selection The purely active i e free floating unrecorded desire is never enough to produce a consistent relation to the future which is why we need the passions to give us an initial orientation to force and enable us to think Passions are the beliefs perceptions representations and opinions that attach us to the world they make up the very material of which our lives and thoughts are composed Instead of truth as the ultimate criterion of judgment the only principle according to which affective becomings can be selected and evaluated is the extent to which they proliferate joy Spinoza and Marx show how the recruitment of desire traditionally takes place through the tyrants and priests who inspire sad passions in us Similarly the work of Deleuze and Guattari on capitalism and schizophrenia can be read as an encyclopedia of the passions that constitute the affective infrastructure of the socius of contemporary capitalism If it takes a lot of inventiveness or imagination to be able to diagnose our present becomings this is because becomings are always composites of joyful and sad passions Capitalism could not exist if it did not also inspire happiness love courage and perhaps even beatitude That is why today we witness the spectacle of the happily dominated Frédéric Lordon of the self entrepreneur the managerial class the flex worker the citizen consumer the bean roasting hipster and the self managed team It is within this field of contradictory and heterogeneous passions that the authors of this volume pursue the diagnosis of our past and present becomings Their contributions add up to a systematic taxonomy of the passions and indicate their importance for a thinking that reaches beyond itself

Gerhard Poppenberg and Michelle Richman Poststructuralist Agency Rae Gavin Rae, 2020-02-14 Gavin Rae shows that the problematic status of agency caused by the poststructuralist decentring of the subject is a central concern for poststructuralist thinkers First Rae shows how this plays out in the thinking of Deleuze Derrida and Foucault He then demonstrates that it is with those poststructuralists associated with and influenced by Lacanian psychoanalysis that this issue most clearly comes to the fore He goes on to reveal that the conceptual schema of Cornelius Castoriadis best explains how the founded subject is capable of agency
