

State Senator L. Doggett

Doggett Swears In Student Officers

By Lois Smith

On Friday, October 11, at 7:30 p.m., State Senator Lloyd Doggett of Austin swore in the Student Government Officers for the 77-78 school year.

After receiving in hall government, student government and SAI officers, Senator Doggett gave a brief speech concerning participation and involvement on the part of the students. Doggett stated that St. Edward's is the product of a shared responsibility between students, faculty and the administration. He also commented on the fact that participatory interest in student government now leads to participatory interest in national government in one's adult life.

Another Stephen Walsh, President of St. Edward's, delivered the closing remarks. He stated that the role of authority is to serve people, a task not always easily done. Another Walsh went on to say that the response to an issue is often more important than the issue itself.

After the installation, a short reception was held following students a chance to talk with Senator Doggett and the newly inaugurated officials.

'Is SAC Working?' Council Chairman Raises Doubts

"I'm not trying to be a civil rights advocate for any particular group of students, but I felt everybody was getting worried," exclaimed Joe Arraga, Chairman of the Student Activities Council.

Joe was elaborating on the topic of discussion during the SAC meeting held October 8.

JOHN NARBRELL, Chairman of the Council and Transportation Committee, added, "The meeting stressed the fact that we as Committee Chairmen are to comply with the various interests and needs of the students. I felt that such areas as

Firebugs Closes to Apathy 'Students Don't Know Good Thing When They See One'

"The Firebugs" closed at St. Edward's on Oct. 18 with one of the lowest attendance records of a year show in recent years. This article explores possible reasons for the apathy that greeted the show on campus.

By Teresa Schumann

"There has been an average of twenty people per night to see the play," said Bill McMillin, Box office manager and in charge of publicity, "and I can't understand it. I never saw one student there that didn't have to see the play for a theater class."

The subject is the first theater production of the year, The Firebugs. There has been a glaring lack of publicity for this production, and no one seems to know exactly why.

"There was the normal amount of advertising out on this play," said McMillin, "we even had a publicity stunt to draw attention to it at a student town." Several students connected with the play decried in the "Ten miles" of the Austin school and down the River. South Congress and went into one of the malls. Also, plays on the hill are usually reviewed by at least three of the major newspapers in Austin which brings a little more publicity. This time, however, only one newspaper reviewed it and gave it a "mixed reaction" for didn't plan it," according to McMillin.

One reason given by a student for not patronizing the show was the cost. (The price was $2.50 and $3.00 for SEU students.) About the price, Will Casey, a member of the cast, said, "People would rather spend that money on a movie." Another student suggested that SEU students should not have to pay anything to see the show, but McMillin said that the theater had to charge students because it had to show something in return. "Back show must make a certain amount in the box. We averaged $8,000 a show this semester and this one hasn't even reached $1,000 yet."

The play is being taken to San Antonio to compete in the National Collegiate Competition Festival where it will be competing against eight other schools. One student feels that it is good experience for the students in the play to get used to playing to an empty house, but that this will hurt them in competition.

The theater is being run much more professionally than ever before, according to McMillin. The change in show times puts the theater on a professional schedule. "The times are perfect," said one student connected with the show, "You can go to the early show and then out to dinner."

Other students connected with the show feel that anyone who missed this play missed much more than just a play. McMillin thinks that the play is good for Political Science and English classes and feels that students and teachers of those subjects should have looked into The Firebugs.

Will Casey feels that JOSEPH CHARNICKY is the best actor ever in the theater. Casey said that actors that have worked here prior to Charnicky were good, but they were more movie actors while Charnicky knows more about the theater. "It is really a great guy to work with."

David Jackson, who had the play and saw it three times, "The first time I had to just listen and watch very carefully to get the meaning of the play, the second time was better because I knew what was going on, and the third time was great. I really laughed." But even everyone should see it at least once to really appreciate it. When asked why she thought the boxes were so small, she said it was the name of the play. "The first everyone should see it at least once to really appreciate it. When asked why she thought the boxes were so small, she said it was the name of the play. "The first everyone should see it at least once to really appreciate it. When asked why she thought the boxes were so small, she said it was the name of the play."

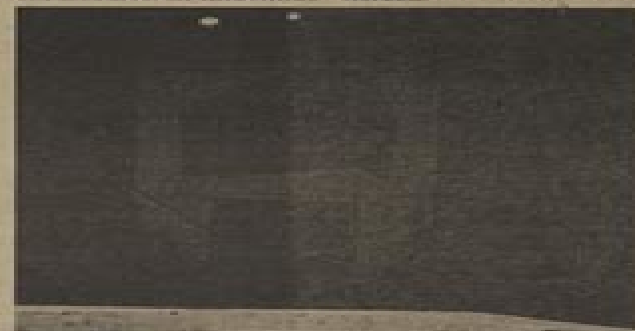

The general consensus from the disco and film committees about the fact that there are other ethnic groups on campus which deserve to be recognized.

"The purpose," according to Arraga, "of comments I had to make during the meeting centered around 'Is SAC working?' Arraga added that "Such problems as student neglect, disorientation of the present disco programming by a large portion of vocal students, and questionable raised about the quality of SAC took up a large portion of the meeting."

"It seems that SAC's emphasis is solely on disco, indifference people who actually saw the show was good, but there is a general confusion about the show returns.

"Students just don't know a good thing when they see one," said McMillin.

Campus Ministry Sponsors 'Search'

By Jack Morrell

On Friday, October 20-21, campus ministry is sponsoring a search weekend. A search is a weekend not apart from the daily distractions, which keep us constantly moving... to allow us to take a look at ourselves... and to place our lives in some sort of perspective with the Lord. In other words, a search is a change of scenery and a time to relax with friends who are there for the same purpose of finding where we have come from and where we are going. Although search is a time to reflect and pray, a good portion is spent in recreation and generally having a good time.

The search is located at Rockledge, a peaceful setting overlooking Lake Travis. There is ample opportunity for swimming, taking in the magnificent views, and plenty of room to roam. We will have campers on Friday afternoon at 3:00 and remain on Sunday morning when we will conclude the weekend with the 11:00 worship service on campus.

In response to a letter addressed to Mr. Jim Fletcher, Physical Plant Director, various comment have been received from the Intramural Football Field. The Students' Association would like the thank the Physical Plant Department.

There is a minimal fee of $2.00 to help with some of the cost. Search is opened to all students here at St. Edward's. Those interested in attending any student their name to either Fr. Clem (MB 200) or Ray Applebee, C.S.C. (MB 200) or either the Student or Sen. days. Please invite your friends, bring some old clothing, swim suits, and a shopping bag if you have one, and join us on this semester's first SEARCH.

The Residence Hall Staff of St. Edward's University will sponsor two special programs on third subjects.
