From To Screen From To Screen:

From silent screen to multi-screen Stuart Hanson, 2019-01-04 Detailed and comprehensive this book is the first survey of cinema exhibition in Britain from its inception until the present Charting the development of cinema exhibition and cinema going in Britain from the first public film screening by the Lumi re Brothers at London s Regent Street Polytechnic in February 1896 through to the development of the multiplex and giant megaplex cinemas the history of cinema exhibition is placed in its wider social cultural and economic contexts Adopting a chronological structure this book takes into account how changes in the structure of the film industry especially regarding the exhibition sector impacted upon the cinema going experience From silent screen to multi screen will be valuable for social historians as well as scholars and students in film studies media studies and cultural history

From Book to Screen Keiko I. McDonald, 2000 This study explores the connections between Japan s modern literary tradition and its national cinema The first part offers a historical and cultural overview of the working relationship that developed between pure literature and film The second analyzes 12 literary works and their adaptations

Cinema Off Screen Chenshu Zhou, 2021-07-06 At a time when what it means to watch movies keeps changing this book offers a case study that rethinks the institutional ideological and cultural role of film exhibition demonstrating that film exhibition can produce meaning in itself apart from the films being shown Cinema Off Screen advances the idea that cinema takes place off screen as much as on screen by exploring film exhibition in China from the founding of the People s Republic in 1949 to the end of the Cold War in the early 1990s Drawing on original archival research interviews and audience recollections Cinema Off Screen decenters the filmic text and offers a study of institutional operations and lived experiences Chenshu Zhou details how the screening space media technology and the human body mediate encounters with cinema in ways that have not been fully recognized opening new conceptual avenues for rethinking the ever changing institution of cinema
