Long-Distance Leader, Second Edition Kevin Eikenberry, Wayne Turmel, 2024-09-17 The new edition of this internationally acclaimed guide to remote and hybrid leadership comes with an updated and enriched framework for the modern workplace. It introduces new principles and retains proven strategies for effective leadership across distances. When The Long Distance Leader was first published it was pre pandemic and remote work was in its infancy with 30% of managers leading at a distance now that number is well over 50%. As more organizations adopt a remote workforce the challenges of leading at a distance become more urgent than ever. The cofounders of the Remote Leadership Institute Kevin Eikenberry and Wayne Turmel show leaders how to guide their teams by recalling the foundational principles of leadership whether their teams are remote hybrid co working or something entirely new. The authors Three O Model refocuses leaders to think about outcomes others and ourselves elements of leadership that remain unchanged whether employees are down the hall or halfway around the world. By pairing it with the Remote Leadership Model which emphasizes using technology as a tool and not a distraction leaders can navigate the terrain of managing teams wherever they are. This second edition features updated exercises that ensure projects stay on track keep productivity and morale high and build lasting relationships along with a new chapter on hybrid workplaces.

WPAs in Transition Courtney Adams Wooten, Jacob Babb, Brian Ray, 2018-04-23 WPAs in Transition shares a wide variety of professional and personal perspectives about the costs benefits struggles and triumphs experienced by writing program administrators making transitions into and out of leadership positions. Contributors to the volume come from various positions as writing center directors assistant writing program administrators and WPAs mixed settings including community colleges small liberal arts colleges and research institutions and a range of career stages from early to retiring. They recount insightful anecdotes and provide a scholarly context in which WPAs can share experiences related to this long ignored aspect of their work. During such transitions WPAs and other leaders who function as both administrators and faculty face the professional and personal challenges of redefining who they are the work they do and with whom they collaborate. WPAs in Transition creates a grounded and nuanced experiential understanding of what it means to navigate changing roles advancing the dialogue around WPAs and other administrators identities career paths work.
