From Cape Town To Kabul From Cape Town To Kabul:

From Cape Town to Kabul Penelope Andrews, 2016-04-15 Using her experience of living under apartheid and witnessing its downfall and the subsequent creation of new governments in South Africa the author examines and compares gender inequality in societies undergoing political and economic transformation By applying this process of legal transformation as a paradigm the author applies this model to Afghanistan These two societies serve as counterpoints through which the book engages in a nuanced and novel way with the many broader issues that flow from the attempts in newly democratic societies to give effect to the promise of gender equality Developing the idea of conditional interdependence the book suggests a new approach based on the communitarian values which underpin newly democratic societies and would allow women s rights to gain momentum and reap greater benefits Broad in its thematic approach the book generates challenging and complex questions about the achievement of gender equality It will be of interest to academics interested in gender and human rights international and comparative law

Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa Fred M. Hayward, 2020-03-01 Drawing on over fifty years of on the ground experience Fred M Hayward s Transforming Higher Education in Asia and Africa analyzes change processes in higher education in eight Asian and African countries The twelve cases range from the push to upgrade and transform higher education in Afghanistan in the midst of a war to the successful struggle against apartheid in South African institutions as well as thwarted efforts in Sierra Leone and Madagascar Providing both practical lessons learned and hope for communities globally Hayward demonstrates that higher education change and even transformation which is more fundamental and structural can occur even in the most difficult environments Successful transformation requires well crafted strategic and budget plans with careful implementation monitoring and effective leadership at multiple levels Yet also critical are a commitment to human development a desire for freedom and belief in democracy and recognition that high quality higher education is essential to national development

Retreat and Retribution in Afghanistan 1842 Margaret Kekewich, 2011-06-13 The blow to British pride and confidence caused by the crushing defeat of their army in Afghanistan during the winter of 1841 2 compares in its impact to the disaster in New York on 11 September 2001 The British had replaced a popular and effective monarch with a weak one in the mistaken belief that he would keep the Russians at bay Two years later nearly all the British and Indian soldiers in the region were killed in a popular uprising Margaret Kekewichs perceptive new study of the conflict describes the British defeat their reoccupation of Afghanistan in the spring of 1842 then their final withdrawal at the end of the year Her account which is based on the graphic diaries written by two British eyewitnesses gives a fascinating insight into the conflict in Afghanistan 150 years ago The story is told by first Lady Sale who together with over 100 women children and soldiers was captured and imprisoned by the Afghans The second account comes from the Reverend Allen a young chaplain to the army that invaded Afghanistan in April 1842 to avenge

British humiliation and rescue the prisoners Both these eyewitnesses deplored the follies that had led to war and defeat and also the suffering that was inflicted on many innocent Afghans At a time when British forces are deeply engaged in another war in Afghanistan Margaret Kekewich offers a balanced and thought provoking new perspective on a previous conflict in the region

The Aeroplane ,1929 Worldwide what & where Ralph De Sola,1977 Militia Order in Afghanistan Matthew P.

Dearing,2021-07-18 This book offers a new insight into when and why paramilitary groups in Afghanistan engage in protective or predatory behavior against the civilians they purportedly defend In Afghanistan s counterinsurgency environment America leaned on militias to provide order and stabilize communities cut off from weak central government institutions However the lucrative market of protection challenged militia loyalty as many engaged in banditry vendettas and predation This book examines the varying militia experiments in Afghanistan from 2001 to 2020 and their outcomes through three sub national case studies It argues that successful militia experiments in Afghanistan involved inclusion of local orders where communities had well established social structures and accountability mechanisms in place and state patrons relied upon those structures as a restraint against militia behavior Complementary management ensured patrons leaned on communities for strong accountability systems But such environments were far from the norm When patrons ignored community controls militias preyed on civilians as they monopolized the market of protection This book adds to the rich literature on the U S experience in Afghanistan but differs by focusing on the interplay between states communities and militias This book will be of much interest to students of military and strategic studies Asian politics security studies and International Relations Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding,2023-11-28 Despite its pervasive reputation as a place of religious extremes and war Afghanistan has a complex and varied religious landscape where elements from a broad spectrum of religious belief vie for a place in society It is also one of the birthplaces of a widely practiced variant of Islam Sufism Contemporary analysts suggest that Sufism is on the decline due to war and the ideological hardening that results from societies in conflict However in Sufi Civilities Annika Schmeding argues that this is far from a truthful depiction Members of Sufi communities have worked as resistance fighters aid workers business people actors professors and daily workers in creative and ingenious ways to keep and renew their networks of community support Based on long term ethnographic field research among multiple Sufi communities in different urban areas of Afghanistan the book examines navigational strategies employed by Sufi leaders over the past four decades to weather periods of instability and persecution showing how they adapted to changing conditions in novel ways that crafted Sufism as a force in the civil sphere This book offers a rare on the ground view into how Sufi leaders react to moments of transition within a highly insecure environment and how humanity shines through the darkness during times of turmoil Afghanistan in the Post-Cold War Era Barnett R.
