From Different Shores Perspectives On Race And Ethnicity In America:

From Different Shores Ronald T. Takaki, 1994 Now featuring a new section on public policy and a wide range of new essays by many of the liveliest and most exciting figures in ethnic studies this updated edition of a remarkably successful text introduces students to the diverse points of view on race and ethnicity in the U S Arranged in debate format the essays address vital questions How have the experiences of racial minorities in the United States been similar to and different from each other Is race the same as ethnicity How has culture shaped race and ethnic relations What has been the relationship between race and class How can race and gender be compared Moreover how can racial inequality be explained and what public policies or strategies are needed to address it One third of the selections are new examining affirmative action welfare dependency and the Los Angeles riots and including a debate between Arthur Schlesinger Jr and the editor on multicultural curricula and the campus culture wars Providing a fresh new look at America s complex and unique ethnic heritage this text makes an invaluable contribution to any course on race ethnicity or social stratification Debating Diversity Ronald T. Takaki, 2002 In the nineteenth century Herman Melville wrote America was settled by peoples of all nations You cannot spill a drop of American blood without spilling the blood of the whole world We are not a narrow tribe At the beginning of the twenty first century America is more ethnically diverse than ever before Will we fear this expanding diversity as the disuniting of America or will we embrace a more inclusive re definition of our national identity As the nation s preeminent scholar of multicultural studies Ronald Takaki invites us to address this question by debating diversity The overarching theme of his new anthology is the clash of perspectives over the master narrative of American history the powerful but mistaken story that this country was settled by European immigrants and that Americans are white The collection opens with the lively intellectual exchange between Nathan Glazer and Ronald Takaki on ethnicity versus race it then turns to the contrasting interpretations of the frontier by Frederick Jackson Turner and Takaki Other debates include Samuel P Huntington and Elizabeth Martinez on the diversity of civilizations Irving Kristol and William Julius Wilson on inner city blacks Robert J Samuelson and Gregory Defreitas on Mexican immigration Governor Pete Wilson and Chancellor Chang lin Tien on affirmative action and James Q Wilson and Elliott Currie on crime and punishment The anthology closes with a debate between Arthur Schlesinger Jr and Takaki on whether we as Americans should pursue a vision of our society as a melting pot or as a multicultural democracy Embedded in all of the essays is the question Originating from different shores can we become one people of the United States of America An ideal text for diversity courses in Ethnic Studies Political Science American Studies History Sociology Anthropology and Education Debating Diversity will stir students to think critically about who we have been and who we are as Americans Race in North America Audrey Smedley, 2018-04-20 This sweeping work traces the idea of race for more than three centuries to show that race is not a product of science but a cultural invention that has been used variously and opportunistically since the eighteenth century Updated throughout the fourth edition of this renowned text includes a compelling new chapter on the health impacts of the racial worldview as well as a thoroughly rewritten chapter that explores the election of Barack Obama and its implications for the meaning of race in America and the future of our racial ideology      Navigating Model Minority Stereotypes Rupam Saran,2015-08-11

Though Asian Indians are typically thought of as a model minority not much is known about the school experiences of their children Positive stereotyping of these immigrants and their children often masks educational needs and issues creates class divides within the Indian American community and triggers stress for many Asian Indian students This volume examines second generation America born and 1 5 generation foreign born Asian Indians as they try to balance peer culture home life and academics It explores how through the acculturation process these children either take advantage of this positive stereotype or refute their stereotyped ethnic image and move to downward mobility Focusing on migrant experiences of the Indian diasporas in the United States this volume brings attention to highly motivated Asian Indian students who are overlooked because of their cultural dispositions and outlooks on schooling and those students who are more likely to underachieve It highlights the assimilation of Asian Indian students in mainstream society and their understandings of Americanization social inequality diversity and multiculturalism      Encyclopedia of Diversity and Social Justice
