Pathways to Greatness for ELL Newcomers Michelle Yzquierdo, 2017-06-01 Newcomer ELLs English language learners face a complex and daunting set of challenges How can educators appropriately provide support to this population Based on research of the social emotional and academic needs of secondary immigrant students this book is comprised of strategies and techniques for content area teachers of newcomer ELLs Additionally campus and district leaders will gain practical advice about a systemic approach to meeting the needs of this ever increasing population Pathways to Greatness for ELL Newcomers A Comprehensive Guide for Schools and Teachers will highlight several components relevant to newcomer instruction including cultural proficiency second language acquisition strategies scheduling credits and effective content area instruction It includes over 30 activities for content area and ESL teachers of newcomers Understanding Epilepsy Vibhangini S. Wasade, Marianna V. Spanaki, 2019-11-21 A comprehensive accessible synthesis of current information on epilepsy for medical trainees and physicians preparing for board certification Motivation to Learn Multiple Languages in Japan Chika Takahashi, 2022-11-22 This book provides rare insights into motivation among extremely successful learners of English and languages other than English LOTE through the analysis of a longitudinal study and the examination of the factors involved in becoming multilingual in a non multilingual environment Based on sixteen interview sessions conducted over the course of nine years while the learners progressed from high school to the world of work this book offers the story of how two learners persist in English LOTE learning The study illuminates the long term processes through which the interviewees develop ideal English LOTE selves in an environment where multilingualism is not emphasized and where both English and LOTE can still be described as foreign languages Educators and researchers will learn from this study which stretches our understanding of motivation beyond the recent theorizing of L2 motivation and contributes to the limited research in long term motivational trajectories and LOTE learning motivation which is particularly scarce in non European contexts The book will be of interest not only to readers in Japan but also to those in other contexts as it offers an example of successful learners who go beyond the pragmatic and instrumentalist view of language learning to hold a more holistic view thus revealing the factors which can sustain multiple language learning even in foreign language contexts Teaching Young Second Language Learners Rhonda Oliver, Bich Nguyen, 2018-06-12 Adopting a learner centred approach that places an emphasis on hands on child SL methodology this book illustrates the practices used to teach young second language learners in different classroom contexts 1 English as an Additional Language or Dialect EAL D both intensive EAL D and EAL D in the mainstream 2 Language Other Than English LOTE 3 Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL 4 Indigenous 5 Foreign Language FL It will be particularly useful to undergraduate teachers to build upon the literacy unit they undertake in the first years of their course to explore factors that constitute an effective child SL classroom and in practical terms how to develop such a classroom The pedagogical strategies for teaching young language learners in the six chapters are firmly guided by research based findings enabling not only pre service teachers but also experienced teachers to make informed choices of how to effectively facilitate the development of the target language empowering them to assume an active and effective role of classroom practitioners Teaching Primary Years Katherine Main,2020-07-16 The primary years are recognised as a distinct period in a child s development with significant consequences for ongoing educational success During this critical time formal schooling and the associated activities introduce children to new and extended social roles where they learn to cooperate and collaborate with their peers and adults Children also begin to develop a sense of themselves and their competence in a range of domains including social academic sport and music This edited collection provides specialist guidance in developing curriculum pedagogy and assessment to meet the needs of primary years children The text begins by exploring the unique characteristics of this age group including cognitive social emotional and physical development It considers the expectations of teachers including ethical and legal issues and guidance on how to develop positive learning spaces and collaborative approaches There is an exploration of the needs of the child including facilitating transition from the early years and into secondary school The text then considers the curriculum in depth including language and literacy mathematics and numeracy science and technology health and physical education and the humanities A focus on some of the key challenges in primary education bring the book to its conclusion including effectively harnessing digital technology developing age appropriate pedagogies practising differentiated learning and effective assessment Rich with insights from experts in the field and featuring case studies and practical examples throughout this is a key resource for both pre service and in service primary teachers Other professionals working with primary years students and parents will also benefit from engaging with this book Developing Critical Language Pedagogies in Higher Education Adriana Raquel Díaz,2013-09-17 Despite widespread agreement about the need to develop interculturally competent graduates there is a lack of agreement about how this goal may be achieved in practice This is significant as universities around the world particularly in English speaking countries have espoused an interculturally aware vision for their future graduates and turned to language education as an inherently intercultural activity to expose students to a world which is linguistically and culturally different from their own This book focuses on narrowing the gap between the often conflicting theoretical and practical imperatives faced by language teachers in an internationalised higher education context It does so by providing comprehensive conceptual discussions of emerging critical intercultural language pedagogies as well as empirical accounts and case studies from the frontline Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts Douglas Fisher,Diane Lapp,2017-11-06 Now in its fourth edition the Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts sponsored by the International Literacy Association and the National Council of Teachers of English remains at the forefront in bringing together prominent scholars researchers and professional leaders to offer an integrated perspective on teaching the English language arts and a comprehensive overview of research in the field Reflecting important developments since the publication of the third edition in 2010 this new edition is streamlined and completely restructured around big ideas in the field related to theoretical and research foundations learners in context and new literacies A Companion Website extends and enhances the Handbook with a wealth of additional resources The Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts Fourth Edition Addresses all of the language arts within a holistic perspective speaking listening language writing reading Is well grounded and balanced in theory and research while promoting validated practice Features authors who are known for their expertise and who represent diversity in culture years in the profession and geographic location Gives attention to special populations and instructional contexts Includes new media literacies Has the authority of a research handbook while remaining practical for students in masters and doctoral classes

Asia Literacy in a Global World Hannah Soong, Nayia Cominos, 2018-08-20 This book is particularly timely in light of continuing international efforts to integrate Asia literacy into a national educational system where understanding of Asia its languages cultures histories and beliefs is still at an emergent stage for a nation that is evolving into what George Megalogenis refers as an Eurasian society 2015 The contributors to this collection range from the pioneers who created and developed the Asia literacy research space to those who bring additional new theoretical insights through disciplines such as linguistics and ethnography Their analysis has resulted in recommendations to develop a deeper understanding of working and living in diverse communities The book also brings together theoretical perspectives on the current Australian socio cultural and political context and how that can impact on pedagogical advancement in Asia literacy The book argues for a broadening focus on what the outcomes Asia literacy in a global world can be for all Australians and offers counter narratives to the myth of a homogenous White Australian culture to provide new ways of engaging with curriculum and pedagogy that transcend superficial awareness of multiculturalism to embrace realistic and reflective principles of global education

The Asia Literacy Dilemma Rebecca Cairns, Michiko Weinmann, 2022-10-21 The Asia literacy dilemma brings forward a novel approach to the long standing global debates of Asia related teaching and learning By bringing into focus Asia as a curriculum area the book provides original commentary on the rationale and feasibility of Asia literacy and its role and significance within and for twenty first century education The book s unique contribution lies in a comprehensive problematisation of Asia as planned enacted and experienced curriculum bringing together policy teacher practice and student experiences to present an extensive discussion By contextualising the problematics of Asia related curriculum within contemporary national and transnational curriculum challenges Cairns and Weinmann take account of conflicting discourses of nation building ethnocentrism transnationalism geo economics and the purposes of twenty first century education Its use of interview data with teachers and students recentres key actors that are often sidelined in official curriculum policy discourse The book also introduces the concept of curricularisation to describe the process through which objects and discourses of curriculum are produced and reproduced In doing so the book presents a comprehensive discussion of the impossibilities and possibilities of Asia curriculum in the Australian context providing an innovative longitudinal and integrated understanding of the status quo of Asia curriculum Highlighting the urgent need to reinvigorate the re emerging centrality of curriculum in recent education debates around policy teacher standards assessment and learning outcomes this book is an important reference for education policy experts and academics in the fields of curriculum studies teacher education and studies of Asia
