

POSING: Roger Hill and friends yesterday.

Never mind the punks —here's the Everyman

by Philip Key

LIVERPOOL'S Mathew Street — centre of the city's pop music culture — has played host to some bizarre characters in its history. But yesterday's collection probably beat the lot.

There were girls with teabag earrings, another with pegs in her hair, several with brightly-coloured coiffures, and one with chopsticks stuck in her head.

The men sported homburg hats, "Crombie" coats, tights, and plastic helmets.

The reason for the assembly — which sent real-life punks diving for cover — was a gathering of the cast of a new Everyman Youth Theatre production.

Their show Fighting Chance opens at the Everyman next Wednesday, and the cast were in Mathew Street soaking up a bit of local colour.

The show's producer, Roger Hill explained that the show dealt with "Aliens" arriving in the city.

"The show has been put together by the cast themselves, and is a mix of fantasy and real-life issues," he explained.

Butler ,2024-06-24 Without Redemption Creation Deeds of Freeway Killer Bill Bonin His Five Accomplices How One Who Escaped Justice written using documents from a variety of sources including Bonin s handwritten jailhouse diaries and confession murder stories brings the reader into the back and forth with witnesses lawyers media jailhouse snitches friends friends family inmates at Los Angeles Men s Central Jail and Bonin s co murderers The book was written on a number of parallel tracks that constantly intersect First it is the most detailed historical biography ever written about Bill Bonin the notorious Freeway Killer responsible for murdering 22 teenage boys over ten months in 1979 80 Second it is a psychological roadmap which charts

the evolution of Bonin's personality from abused child to sexual predator to serial killer. This is accomplished using documents from his childhood, war service, multiple California government mental health and penal institutions, witness testimony, and the expertise of Clinical Psychologist Vonda Peltó, Ph.D., who had many sessions with Bonin and two of his accomplices while working in Los Angeles Men's Central Jail. Third, it is a narrative which, using long hidden documents, reveals the inner workings of Bonin's mind, showing how he thought, felt, planned, and viewed the world. The narrative displays Bonin, an abused high school dropout, cleverly manipulating lawyers, judges, doctors, social workers, friends, family, probation officers, government bureaucrats, detectives, journalists, and most tragically, the innocent victims of his rage. Fourth, Without Redemption reveals the complex story of what happened after Bonin's final arrest, when so much was in flux and so many moving parts were swirling about. Archived investigative documents collected from a variety of sources bring to light a number of surprising, shocking, sad, and even funny events from those ten tumultuous months from June 1980 to March 1981. Finally, it is a book which solves two 40-year-old murder mysteries and unlocks how one day of crossroads and coincidences in the midst of the murder spree profoundly impacted many lives and future events.
