

An abstract painting by Frits van den Berghe. The composition is dominated by dark, moody tones of brown, black, and deep red. In the center, there are two faces rendered in a distorted, cubist style. The faces have pale, almost white skin, with dark, hollow eyes and thin, dark lips. They appear to be looking towards each other. The background is a complex, layered structure of dark, angular shapes and textures, suggesting a dense, perhaps architectural or natural, environment. The overall effect is one of mystery and emotional intensity.
