If you like this book, write a review. Leave Love with Me William Lawton, 2023-09-19 Desire for beauty is at the heart of human existence. Some find this meaning out of their religious or spiritual perspective. Some find it at the edge of their traditions. And others find it outside any recognizable tradition. This book speaks especially to the second and third groups of people. Desire releases us to explore difference and to honor alternatives. Desire shapes our lives in unique ways. It centers our energies for personal and relational change where difference can be debated and variety permitted. We might transcend circumstances that limit us. Desire is more than meaningfulness; it is captivation of mind and spirit to life's possibility. In my discovery, desire is an abandonment to beauty.

Love and Compassion John P. Miller, 2018-01-18 Academics often speak about love for their subject; mathematicians discuss their love for figures and numbers, and elementary school teachers speak about their love of children. As multidimensional as love is, it is often a taboo subject relative to teachers and students. In Love and Compassion, John P. Miller explores different forms of love, including self-love, the love of others, compassion, the love of learning, and cosmic love, and how these dimensions of love have the potential to improve education. Love and Compassion is both a practical and conceptual work and will interest those involved in the study and practice of holistic and contemplative education. In addition to the seven dimensions of love, Miller's evaluation includes nonviolent action, the love of beauty, and how they are crucial to the practice of teaching. A New Philosophical Classic: Theory of Love Sankar Sarkar, 2013-11-21 Undoubtedly, A New Philosophical Classic: Theory of Love is a new arrival on classic philosophy. It is written with a new concept and innovative outlook and contains twenty-two chapters which are singular and exceptional in tone. It includes 250 definitions of love. They bear pithy and panoramic vista. It explains also how love deserves the innermost support in life as an underlying force, and it also exists even in every atom and molecule of everything as a causal attractive force to keep the whole of creation in motion. Especially, it is significant for inventing Love Spectrum BERIGHT based on Solar Spectrum VYBGIOR. This new innovative
