Bowing Toward Babylon Craig Watts, 2017-03-08 What is being done in worship when national holidays are celebrated the American flag is displayed and honored and songs are sung that extol the nation Are these benign gestures Or could they actually be idolatrous In this insightful and persuasively argued study Craig M Watts contends the inclusion of elements of American nationalism in worship is detrimental to the integrity of Christian worship He maintains that in faithful worship the story of Jesus must be re presented and performed in such a way that the only affections and loyalty that are fostered are those Christians everywhere rightfully share To do otherwise opens the door to idolatry and leaves the church doing what Watts calls bowing toward Babylon He reviews the development of the symbols songs and gestures that celebrate America and how they were introduced into worship Watts concludes that the spirituality of American Christian nationalism does not complement the faith of the church but distorts it hindering global Christian unity and the peaceable witness of the church in a divided world

Rural Children, Rural Church Rona Orme, 2007 Children make up nearly 20 per cent of the rural population This short accessible book offers practical resources and ideas to help churches build an effective children's ministry in a rural setting The ideas are drawn from churches and communities in rural areas where children's work is starting to grow Rona Orme offers realistic and creative ways of engaging with children in the community by encouraging churches to make the most of opportunities to share the Church's year with the community and the community's year with the Church reach children and their families at significant rites of passage enable the Church to be a gathering point and contributing partner in the community Each chapter contains inspiring case studies and thought provoking questions for discussion
