From Knowledge To Narrative Educators And The Changing Museum:

From Knowledge to Narrative Lisa C. Roberts, 1997-06-17 From Knowledge to Narrative shows that museum educators professionals responsible for making collections intelligible to viewers have become central figures in shaping exhibits Challenging the traditional scholarly presentation of objects educators argue that rather than transmitting knowledge museums displays should construct narratives that are determined as much by what is meaningful to visitors as by what curators intend Lisa C Roberts discusses museum education in relation to entertainment as a tool of empowerment as a shaper of experience and as an ethical responsibility The book argues for an expanded role for museum education based less on explaining objects than on interpreting narratives From Knowledge to Narrative Lisa Carrole Roberts, 1992

Teaching in the Art Museum Rika Burnham, Elliott Kai-Kee, 2011 Teaching in the Art Museum investigates the mission history theory practice and future prospects of museum education In this book Rika Burnham and Elliott Kai Kee define and articulate a new approach to gallery teaching one that offers groups of visitors deep and meaningful experiences of interpreting art works through a process of intense sustained looking and thoughtfully facilitated dialogue book cover

Museum Revolutions Simon Knell, Suzanne MacLeod, Sheila Watson, 2007-09-12 This single volume museum studies reference title explores the ways in which museums are shaped and configured and how they themselves attempt to shape and change the world around them Written by a leading group of museum professionals and academics from around the world and including new research the chapters reveal the diverse and subtle means by which museums engage and in so doing change and are changed The authors span over 200 years discussing national museums ecomuseums society museums provincial galleries colonial museums the showman s museum and science centres Topics covered include disciplinary practices ethnic representation postcolonial politics economic aspiration social reform indigenous models conceptions of history urban regeneration sustainability sacred objects a sense of place globalization identities social responsibility controversy repatriation human remains drama learning and education Capturing the richness of the museum studies discipline Museum Revolutions is the ideal text for museum studies courses providing a wide range of interlinked themes and the latest thought and research from experts in the field It is invaluable for those students and museum professionals who want to understand the past present and future of the museum The International Handbooks of Museum Studies, 4

Volume Set Sharon Macdonald, Helen Rees Leahy, 2015-07-20 The International Handbooks of Museum Studies is a multi volume reference work that represents a state of the art survey of the burgeoning field of museum studies Featuring original essays by leading international museum experts and emerging scholars readings cover all aspects of museum theory practice debates and the impact of technologies The four volumes in the series divided thematically offer in depth treatment of all major issues relating to museum theory historical and contemporary museum practice mediations in art design and architecture and the transformations and challenges confronting the museum In addition to invaluable surveys of current scholarship the entries include a rich and diverse panoply of examples and original case studies to illuminate the various perspectives Unprecedented for its in depth topic coverage and breadth of scholarship the multi volume International Handbooks of Museum Studies is an indispensable resource for the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society

Archives, Museums and Collecting Practices in the Modern Arab World Sonja Mejcher-Atassi, John Pedro Schwartz, 2016-05-23 Collecting has a long tradition in the Middle East but the museum as a public institution is relatively new Today there are national museums for antiquities in most Arab countries While in some cases the political and social climate has hindered the foundation of museums with existing collections even destroyed at times the recent museum boom in the Gulf States is again changing the outlook This unique book is the first to explore collecting practices in archives and museums in the modern Arab world featuring case studies of collecting practices in countries ranging from Egypt and Lebanon to Palestine Jordan Iraq and the Gulf and providing a theoretical and methodological basis for future research The authors are also concerned with investigating the relationship between past and present since collecting practices tell us a great deal not only about the past but also about the ways we approach the past and present conceptions of our identities Collections can be textual as well as in the stories memories or events selected recalled and retold in the pages of a text As interest in memory studies as well as popular and visual culture grows in the Arab World so collecting practices are at the heart of any critical approach to the past and the present in that region The book will be of great interest not only to scholars and students of the modern Arab world but also to professionals in museums and collections in the region as well as around the world

Progressive Museum Practice George E Hein, 2012-07-15 Preeminent museum education theorist George E Hein explores the work philosophy and impact of educational reformer John Dewey and his importance for museums Hein traces current practice in museum education to Dewey s early 20th century ideas about education democracy and progress toward improving society and in so doing provides a rare history of museum education as a profession Giving special attention to the progressive individuals and institutions who followed Dewey in developing the foundations for the experiential learning that is considered best practice today Hein demonstrates a parallel between contemporary theories about education and socio political progress and specifically the significance of museums for sustaining and advancing a democratic society

Adult Museum Programs Bonnie Sachatello-Sawyer, 2002 Bonnie Sachatello Sawyer and her co authors have taken an important study and turned it into an intriguing readable and practical book Adult learners provide a unique opportunity for museum educators but what are adult learners looking for What motivates them to take a class or attend a museum sponsored activity What do planners and instructors need to know to maximise the experience for participants The authors analysed a wide variety of programs from the perspective of planners instructors and participants They discovered what works and what doesn t and they ve distilled this knowledge into twelve basic steps to design truly meaningful experiences for your museum s adult programs

Museum Rhetoric M. Elizabeth Weiser, 2017-09-25 In today's diverse societies museums are the primary institutions within the public sphere in which individuals can both engage critical thought and celebrate community This volume uses the lens of rhetoric to explore the role these societal repositories play in establishing and altering cultural heritage and national identity Based on fieldwork conducted in over sixty museums in twenty two countries across six continents Museum Rhetoric explores how heritage museum exhibits persuade visitors to unite their own sense of identity with that of the broader civic society and how the latter changes in response Elizabeth Weiser examines what compels communities organizations and nations to create museum spaces and how museums operate as sites of both civic engagement and rhetorical persuasion Moving beyond rhetorical explorations of museums as memory sites she shows how they intentionally straddle the divides between style and content intellect and affect and unity and diversity and why their portrayal of the past matters to civic life and particularly studies of nationalism in the present and future Deeply researched and artfully argued Museum Rhetoric sheds light on the public impact of cultural and aesthetic heritage and opens avenues of inquiry for scholars of museum studies and public history

A Companion to Museum Studies Sharon Macdonald, 2011-08-24 A Companion to Museum Studies captures the multidisciplinary approach to the study of the development roles and significance of museums in contemporary society Collects first rate original essays by leading figures from a range of disciplines and theoretical stances including anthropology art history history literature sociology cultural studies and museum studies Examines the complexity of the museum from cultural political curatorial historical and representational perspectives Covers traditional subjects such as space display buildings objects and collecting and more contemporary challenges such as visiting commerce community and experimental exhibition forms Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions Jona Piehl, 2020-12-30 Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions offers an in depth analysis of the multiple roles that exhibition graphics perform in contemporary museums and exhibitions Drawing on a study of exhibitions that took place at the Victoria and Albert Museum London the Museum of London and the Haus der Geschichte Bonn Piehl brings together approaches from museum studies design practice and narrative theory to examine museum exhibitions as multimodal narratives in which graphics account for one set of narrative resources The analysis underlines the importance of aspects such as accessibility and at the same time problematises conceptualisations that focus only on the effectiveness of graphics as display device by drawing attention to the contributions that graphics make towards the content on display and to the ways in which it is experienced in the museum space Graphic Design in Museum Exhibitions argues for a critical reading of and engagement with exhibition graphic design as part of wider debates around meaning making in museum studies and exhibition making practice As such the book should be essential reading for academics researchers and students from the fields of museum and design studies Practitioners such as exhibition designers graphic designers curators and other exhibition makers should also find much to interest them in the book

Reculturing Museums Doris B. Ash, 2022-02-27 Reculturing Museums takes a unified sociocultural theoretical approach to analyze the many conflicts museums experience in the 21st century Embracing conflict Ash asks What can practitioners and researchers do to create the change they want to see when old systems remain stubbornly in place Using a unified sociocultural cultural historical activity theoretical approach to analyzing historically bound conflicts that plague museums each chapter is organized around a central contradiction including finances Who will pay for museums demographic shifts Who will come to museums the roles of narratives Whose story is it ownership of objects Who owns the artifact and learning and teaching What is learning and how can we teach equitably The reculturing stance taken by Ash promotes social justice and equity making change first within museums called inreach rather than outside the museum called outreach challenges existing norms is sensitive to neoliberal and deficit ideologies and pays attention to the structure agency dialectic Reculturing Museums will be essential reading for academics students museum practitioners educational researchers and others who care about museums and want to ensure that all people have equal access to the activities objects and ideas residing in them
