From Maintenance To Mission Evangelization And The Revitalization Of The Parish:

From Maintenance to Mission Robert S. Rivers, 2005 Evangelization contrary to what many people believe is not just a Protestant concern in fact writes Robert Rivers it is Catholic to the core In this practical approachable work he suggests that the Catholic parish is a wonderful setting to carry out the evangelizing work of the church He makes the case that evangelization holds the key to the future of the church because it was in fact the centerpiece of post Vatican Council reform Drawing from the USCCB document Go and Make Disciples which offers a comprehensive plan and strategy for evangelization he explores ways to challenge us to become Catholic evangelizers And he proposes ways to move from maintenance to mission oriented parishes My purpose affirms the author is to try to place before the reader a compelling vision of Catholic evangelization and share some strategic thinking that might enable us to implement the great vision to which we have been called He attains that goal convincingly practically and hopefully

Transforming Parish

Communications Scot Landry, 2014-08-15 Are we still a Church capable of warming hearts A Church capable of leading people back to Jerusalem Of bringing them home Pope Francis Meeting with the Bishops of Brazil 28 July 2013 Pope Francis like his predecessors Benedict XVI and John Paul II is calling for Catholics to embrace the new evangelization But there has been ongoing confusion about who is responsible what it really means and what it looks like in practical application How can we respond to the Holy Father's call creating evangelization opportunities that help bring people back to the Church By transforming Catholics into digital missionaries ready and able to take the joy and warmth of the Gospel online via social media to infrequent inactive or ex Catholics around the corner or across the globe Consider this 1 Nearly every lost Catholic in the U S is most likely connected with at least one engaged Catholic or is one retweet or like away from them 2 On the whole Catholics have not been taught to see social media as a way to live out their faith 3 Motivating parishes to put a priority on evangelization has been a challenge 4 Catholics are more likely to be comfortable as digital missionaries than to participate in other forms of evangelization 5 Parishes can offer digital missionary training to parishioners who would welcome it In Transforming Parish Communications Growing the Church Through New Media you will discover How to embrace the Church's vision of evangelization in new media How entire parishes can become hubs of digital evangelization and how to overcome obstacles Specific strategies for implementation How to create a consistent digital identity online Best practices for parish websites The nuts and bolts of Facebook Twitter email blogging and more Consider this book your entry into an important and urgent call to each of us as Catholics To bring the warmth of the Gospel to the lost and bring them back to the Church Visit the companion site for more ParishGuideToNewMedia.com

The New Evangelization Steven C. Boguslawski, Ralph Martin, 2008 One of Pope John Paul II's most important legacies is his repeated call to a new evangelization the need to reevangelize traditional Christian societies that are hurtling toward secularization This book brings together the best scholarship on this topic

BOOK JACKET 22 Steps to a Great Catholic Parish James N.

Reinhardt,2010-08 In these pages parish leaders and parishioners will find practical tangible and specific plans for transforming their parish into a place where all this can happen and more The author also shares personal experiences around these issues as examples of how the parish can be the place where Catholics enthusiastically share and live their faith Topics include Sunday liturgy prayer stewardship evangelization communication catechesis staff development thinking green and many other practical parish issues Joining in with the Spirit Kirsteen Kim,2013-01-08 Presents an introduction to mission studies the history theology and issues of mission This book also offers a theological framework for mission which applies both globally and locally to help the reader discern the movement of the Spirit of Christ among the many other spirits of this world Rebuilt Michael White,Tom Corcoran,2012-02-28 Drawing on the wisdom gleaned from thriving mega churches and innovative business leaders while anchoring their vision in the Eucharistic center of Catholic faith Fr Michael White and lay associate Tom Corcoran present the compelling and inspiring story to how they brought their parish back to life Rebuilt Awakening the Faithful Reaching the Lost and Making Church Matter is a story of stopping everything and changing focus When their parish reached a breaking point White and Corcoran asked themselves how they could make the Church matter to Catholics and they realized the answer was at the heart of the Gospel Their faithful response not only tripled their weekend mass attendance but also yielded increased giving flourishing ministries and a vibrant solidly Catholic spiritual revival White and Corcoran invite all Catholic leaders to share the vision borrow their strategies and rebuild their own parishes They offer a wealth of guidance for anyone with the courage to hear them The Urgency of the New

Evangelization Ralph Martin, with a Biblical Perspective by Mary Healy,2013-10-02 No believer in Christ no institution of the Church can avoid this supreme duty to proclaim Christ to all peoples Blessed John Paul II With the encouragement of Blessed John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI discover a renewed urgency and growing enthusiasm for sharing the Gospel with those in your life both non believers and those who are no longer practicing their faith In The Urgency of the New Evangelization Answering the Call Ralph Martin explains It s not just a churchy buzzword It s not just for priests and missionaries to carry out YOU and every individual Catholic play a role It is literally a matter of life or death for everyone in your life And it s not as hard as you think Sister Churches Janel Kragt Bakker,2014 In Sister Churches Janel Bakker draws on extensive fieldwork and interviews with participants in congregation to congregation partnerships between Western churches and churches in the global South to explore the sister church movement and in particular its effects on American churches

The Church Has Left the Building Michael Plekon,Maria Gwyn McDowell,Elizabeth Schroeder,2016-09-30 The origin of the phrase the church has left the building lies with Elvis In order to clear halls of his riotous fans after concerts it was announced that Elvis has left the building Here the expression highlights intense change within the church Not only does the church change for its own existence it also does so for the life of the world The church cannot avoid the many past and future changes of our constantly transforming society demographic changes long in process What you have before you is a gathering of first hand reflections stories really from a diverse group of Christians lay as well as ordained While each has a distinctive experience of the church in our time all of them have something to say about the many changes in our society and how these are affecting our faith the parish and pastoral work Contributors Mary Breton Nicholas Denysenko Adam A J DeVille John C Frazier David Frost Carol Fryer Kenneth J Guest Brett Hoover Abbie Huff Wongee Joh Justin Mathews Maria Gwyn McDowell William C Mills Robert Corin Morris Sarah Hinlicky Wilson Michael Plekon CLIMB Higher Kristine Miller, Scott McKenzie, 2011-05-01 CLIMB challenges the negative connotations associated with stewardship and invites congregations to completely change the conversation around this critically important topic Instead of talking about the needs of the church budget CLIMB suggests a discovery of your congregation s compelling vision for ministry Instead of selecting your stewardship leaders by default CLIMB encourages the development of strong leadership through setting clear and challenging expectations CLIMB involves changing the entire culture of your congregation to one of gratitude where conversations revolve around sharing God s abundance rather than holding on fearfully CLIMB encourages the sharing of ministry stories rather than pledging to a budget And finally CLIMB asserts that if you truly believe expressing generosity results in a deeper connection to God you have no choice but to boldly ask others to become more generous givers

Forming Deacons William T. Ditewig, Michael J. Tkacik, 2010 Forming Deacons Ministers of Soul and Leaven consists of essays by recognized leaders in diaconate formation many of whom contributed to the preparation of the National Directory for the Formation Ministry and Life of Permanent Deacons in the United States promulgated by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops in 2004 While not a commentary on it these essays take the National Directory as their reference point and foundation Written from the multifaceted perspectives of pastors deacons academics and church officials all of whom are directly involved in the formation of deacons Forming Deacons offers valuable insights on the process of implementing in practical terms the theories presented in the National Directory This book will be a valuable resource for bishops their staffs all those involved in the formation of deacons and diaconate aspirants and candidates Communicating Catholicism Craig T. Maier, 2016-09-12 Fr Thomas Reese has observed that American Catholic dioceses are simultaneously mysterious and essential to the institutional health and vitality of American Catholicism In recent years as American Catholicism increasingly finds itself embroiled in scandal and conflict this mysteriousness has given way to feelings of suspicion frustration and even contempt How can American dioceses navigate this complex and often hostile social cultural and political environment Several decades ago J Michael Sproule invited rhetorical and communication scholars to focus on institutions to increase our understanding of the profound role complex organizations play in contemporary life assess the purpose and significance of communication in pursuit of their missions and give a human face to the otherwise institutional voice of corporate suasion Following Sproule this book defines a new field called diocesan institutional rhetoric that strives to transform dioceses from structures characterized by closure and adversity into sites of hope full response able Spirit led opportunity Today rhetorical and communication issues emerge everywhere in American Catholicism Drawing together relevant literature in Catholic theology philosophy of communication and corporate communication scholarship as well as over twelve years experience working as a communication professional in a diocesan chancery this book helps diocesan leaders scholars and observers to think differently and more fruitfully about the future of American Catholic ecclesial leadership

Evangelization and Religious Freedom Stephen B. Bevens, Jeffrey Gros, 2009 An informational and entertaining text this work offers readers a deeper sense of why the saints and the honoring of them has been influential in the lives of Catholics and others who strive to follow Jesus Christ and experience his love Catholic American Book Publishing Record, 2003 Encyclopedia of Catholicism Frank K. Flinn, 2007 Covers the key people movements institutions practices and doctrines of Roman Catholicism from its earliest origins R sum de l diteur Origins, 2007 Book Review Index, 2006 Every 3rd issue is a quarterly cumulation The Book Review Digest, 2006 Sharing Faith Online Fr. Sean Salai, 2022-02-17 What does it mean for Christians to enter into the unfolding story of digital evangelization as participants rather than passive consumers This handbook narrates the ongoing media efforts of Christians from the 1960s to the twenty first century to communicate the gospel in the modern age and draws powerfully from the story of how one group of seventy four people sought spiritual growth via an interactive digital Ignatian retreat on Facebook Written by a Jesuit priest with years of experience in journalism as well as spiritual formation the book draws lessons from these stories to present a how to guide for individuals and groups seeking more effective ways to share faith on social media Made for Mission Tim Glemkowski, 2019-09-26 God has created me to do him some definite service he has committed some work to me which he has not committed to another I have my mission Blessed John Henry Newman The statistics are heartbreaking In 2007 24 percent of Americans identified as Catholic By 2014 that had dropped to 21 percent The number of people who claim no religious affiliation has surpassed Catholics and evangelicals making nones the largest religious group in the United States Catholics are simply walking away from the Church Yet there are many committed faithful Catholics who desperately want to stem this tide We are here in this moment and are called to be part of the mission for the sake of our members and for those who are still outside the Church Yet while we long for this renewal we are often at a loss as to how to accomplish it in a practical way What steps do we take How do we start and how do we continue How will we measure success and how long will it take In Made for Mission Renewing Your Parish Culture author and speaker Tim Glemkowski offers four keys that can radically change parish culture Cast the vision Prioritize a clear path to discipleship Mobilize leaders Align everything Implementing these four keys over time parishes can become not simply gathering places for worship but seedbeds of discipleship and missionary outposts of the New Evangelization This book is a must read for Catholic clergy lay parish staff anyone working in ministry and any dedicated parishioner who is passionate about renewing the Church Click here to register for the related webcast ABOUT THE AUTHOR Tim Glemkowski is an international speaker and the founder and president of L Alto Catholic Institute He is also cofounder and president of Revive Parishes an online formation platform for parish leaders Tim has served in various roles in evangelization including teaching high school theology with youths and young adult ministry at a parish and as a director of evangelization and catechesis He double majored in theology and philosophy at Franciscan University of Steubenville and has a master s in theology from the Augustine Institute in Denver Colorado
