Centeno, 2018-03-19 The death of my son was the worst thing to happen to me For the six months that followed I felt numb depressed and lonely I didn't want to continue living Even though I had my daughter and younger son it did not make me feel any better I did not know what to do to make them feel better How could I continue on without him What would I do to become whole again I had two choices I could either succumb to depression or live for him I decided to live for him I decided that I wanted to do what he could not and so my journey began I learned a lot from my son after his death Even in death he was teaching me what I did not know I wanted to live for my son as he would have I wanted my daughter and younger son to heal I embarked on this journey for myself my family and in memory of Richie From My Heart Lisa McCann, 2013-12-27

My only son was murdered in December 2012 and I was having a very hard time dealing with my grief I looked into counselling groups but the meetings were held on week nights and this was impossible for me as I work an afternoon shift I would come home from work and write how I felt in a notepad as I was doing this my expressions of grief were coming out in poems I began posting my expressions of my grief on my facebook page my family would comment on how beautiful they were and that maybe I should consider publishing them in a book I thought no who would really want to read about my grief and how I hurt inside Then I found a facebook page for grieving mothers and began posting my expressions there In no time so many grieving mothers from all over were wanting to share my poems They had all encouraged me to write my expressions in a book and that's what I've done For all the grieving mothers in the world this is from my heart Words from

Mother's Heart Joyce Beaulieu,2007-10 From a Mother's Heart is a compilation of stories and poems written by mothers who have lost children the worst pain there is The contributors to this book desire to reach out to help comfort and bring hope to other bereaved parents The book will also help families and friends to understand our grief and know how they can help us through this painful journey I wish I had a book like this when my daughter and I went through the loss of our children I gathered the testimonies of others in hopes that by sharing the stages of grief we have been through along with trying to live a normal life we could bless and soothe the hearts of others going through the pain of the loss of a child It is a good thing to know one is never alone Healing a Mother's Grieving Heart Rebecca DeMattia,2022-10-18 Losing a child to death doesn't have to mean losing your faith in God There are no words that begin to express the sorrow a mother's heart feels when she is in the sea of grief No matter your child's age whether in your womb or outside your house your heart grieves the same I want you to remember that no matter how many children you are grieving no matter the circumstances around their death and no matter the details YOU ARE ALLOWED TO GRIEVE But sometimes in our grief we feel lost hopeless without direction This devotional is meant to provide hope encouragement and support as you navigate these very rough uncharted and confusing seas Still Stephanie Paige Cole,2010-06 Still There is nothing in the world that affects us more than the death of a loved one especially a child Stephanie Cole found that out first hand when her unborn daughter died unexpectedly one week after her due date Stephanie stumbled through the death of her daughter using creative expression as a tool to navigate her way through the darkness This book is a collection of the writings and artwork that she created in response to her loss Still is the poignant exposition of the reality that besets more than 25 000 pregnant families each year in the US Stephanie Cole's portrayal of the year following Madeline's death is vivid and stark and speaks to the disbelief and emptiness of the 50% of parents who never discover why their unborn baby died Stephanie's year deprived of an infant is illustrative of the challenge families and those who care for them face when experiencing the loss of an unborn child Each child is a special chapter in every family's life even if that chapter is but a few heartbreaking pages of limited memories Still is important reading for those who experience pregnancy loss Perhaps it is more important reading for those who have not shared the experience but wish to understand Dr John J Botti Maternal Fetal Medicine Stephanie's honesty and candor are refreshing in a society that wants everything even mourning wrapped up in some sort of neat package She allows us to walk her path with her acknowledging that everyone's journey will be unique and that we will eventually accept what will become our new normal Beth Gauthier Mother to Mark stillborn Feb 2007 Stephanie writes from a place of honesty and raw emotion Throughout her writing she weaves the dreams she and her husband had for their precious daughter Madeline Her words help the reader understand the depth of pain felt by parents who experience the death of a much loved and hoped for baby A great read for any professional who wants to gain a better understanding of the emotions and feelings of a grieving parent Chaplain Carolanne Hauck Bereavement Coordinator When Mom Dies Dackeyia Q. In our Lord Jesus Christ, there is always hope for all who have faith and trust in his Holy name, trusting in him because he has changed the world. Our life is so brief yet he came to give us life and everlasting hope. Jesus son of God is our game changer; he came to our world over 2000 years ago to tell his parables, stories about how things will go, and the things our Messiah said still haunt the world today. He taught about love and faith, to believe in all he teaches, he taught us truth. We who believe hunger and thirst for this amazing man who came to save all, we think then say we should think more like him and try harder and do what he says. When we experience his love, it is then that we realize he is right; he is telling us the truth, it becomes so real in our hearts, he is transforming us to be more like him in our thoughts and behaviour. We see the light, he is willing to reach out to us and save us, giving us life everlasting. These words are the most important words to give to his children, done through repentance and with a sorrowful heart. Jesus Christ is our game changer. Jesus Christ is our saviour and our King. Let Jesus be a game changer in your life as he was for me. Feel his love, faith and mercy, believe and let him take you by the hand and lead you to life everlasting. AMEN. God bless you all. Lynda Hackford.
