From Class To Race Essays In White Marxism And:

From Class to Race Charles Wade Mills, 2003 In From Class to Race Charles Mills maps the theoretical route that brought him to the innovative conceptual framework outlined in his academic bestseller The Racial Contract 1997 Mills argues for a new critical theory that develops the insights of the black radical political tradition While challenging conventional interpretations of key Marxist concepts and claims the author contends that Marxism has been white insofar as it has failed to recognize the centrality of race and white supremacy to the making of the modern world By appealing to both mainstream liberal values and the structuralism traditionally associated with the left Mills asserts that critical race theory can radicalize the mainstream Enlightenment and develop a new kind of contractarianism that deals frontally with race and other forms of social oppression rather than evading them Class, Race and Education under Neoliberal Capitalism Dave Hill, 2024-06-07 With the onset of Austerity Capitalism and Immiseration Capitalism and with the increasing commodification marketisation and privatisation of society and of education Marxist Theory and Marxist Education Theory have taken on a new urgency In this collection of essays written from a classic Marxist perspective Dave Hill lays bare how the capitalist class in the knowledge industry academia use ideological and repressive state apparatuses such as education to divide disarm and demoralise critical Marxist analysis and activism This title is co published with Aakar Books Print edition not for sale in South Asia India Sri Lanka Nepal Bangladesh Pakistan and Bhutan Unfreedom for All Thomas J. Donahue-Ochoa, 2019-08-19 It is often said that we live under systems of injustice But if so who ought to combat them and why Many in the world's liberal elite hold that only the perpetrators or the victims have such duties because of their special connections to the injustice Others hold that all of the privileged have them because they have duties to relieve suffering or to redress their complicity in the injustice This book challenges those answers It argues that everyone living under such injustices ought to combat them victim perpetrator and bystander alike Moreover they all have the same reason for doing so such injustices suppress everyone's resistance to their workings But there is a name for such suppression authoritarianism Hence such injustices make everyone unfree because they subject everyone to authoritarian tactics The book thus reinterprets and defends a core doctrine of the global left No one is free while others are oppressed For it shows how oppression subjects everyone including you to arbitrary power The book argues that systematic injustice occurs when one group finds that its political voice is unjustly marginalized its members exploited and subject to systematic violence and that society's dominant norms unjustly favor a privileged group It diagnoses three global injustices of this kind gender race and poverty It then shows how such injustices always suppress everyone's resistance to them making everyone unfree But if so it argues then this shared unfreedom should be the ground on which victims bystanders and perpetrators unite in solidarity against injustice

Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Racisms John Solomos, 2020-02-25 The study of contemporary forms of racism has expanded greatly over the past four decades Although it has been a focus for scholarship and research for the past three centuries it is perhaps over this more recent period that we have seen important transformations in the analytical frames and methods to explore the changing patterns of contemporary racisms The Routledge International Handbook of Contemporary Racisms brings together thirty four original chapters from international experts that address key features of contemporary racisms The Handbook has a truly global orientation and covers contemporary racisms in both the western and non western geopolitical environments In terms of structure the volume is organized into ten interlinked parts that include Theories and Histories Contemporary Racisms in Global Perspective Racism and the State Racist Movements and Ideologies Anti Racisms Racism and Nationalism Intersections of Race and Gender Racism Culture and Religion Methods of Studying Contemporary Racisms and the End of Racism These parts contain chapters that draw on original theoretical and empirical research to address the evolution and changing forms of contemporary racism The Handbook is framed by a General Introduction and by short introductions to each part that provide an overview of key themes and concerns Written in a clear and direct style and from a conceptual multidisciplinary and international perspective the Handbook will provide students scholars and practitioners with an overview of the most pressing issues of Racisms in our time Du Bois's Dialectics

Reiland Rabaka,2009-07-15 Du Bois s Dialectics is doubly distinguished from other books on Du Bois because it is the first extended exploration of Du Bois s contributions to new critical theory and the first book length treatment of his contributions to contemporary black radical politics and the developing discipline of Africana Studies With chapters that undertake ideological critiques of education religion the politics of reparations and the problematics of black radical politics in contemporary culture and society Du Bois s Dialectics employs Du Bois as its critical theoretical point of departure and demonstrates his and Africana Studies contributions to as well as contemporary critical theory s connections to critical pedagogy sociology of religion and reparations theory Rabaka offers the first critical theoretical treatment of the W E B Du Bois_Booker T Washington debate which lucidly highlights Du Bois s transition from a bourgeois black liberal to a black radical and revolutionary democratic socialist This book is primarily directed at scholars advanced undergraduate and graduate students working in and associated with Africana Studies American Studies Ethnic Studies and Cultural Studies

Beyond Bergson Andrea J. Pitts,Mark William Westmoreland,2019-05-01 Examines Bergson s work from the perspectives of critical philosophy of race and decolonial theory placing it in conversation with theorists from Africa the African Diaspora and Latin America Building upon recent interest in Henri Bergson s social and political philosophy this volume offers a series of fresh and novel perspectives on Bergson s writings through the lenses of critical philosophy of race and decolonial theory Contributors place Bergson s work in conversation with theorists from Africa the African Diaspora and Latin America to examine Bergson s influence on literature science studies aesthetics metaphysics and social and political philosophy within these geopolitical contexts The volume pays particular attention to both theoretical and practical forms of critical resistance work including historical analyses of anti racist anti imperialist and anti capitalist movements that have engaged with

Bergson's writings for example the N gritude movement the Indigenismo movement and the Peruvian Socialist Party These historical and theoretical intersections provide a timely and innovative contribution to the existing scholarship on Bergson and demonstrate the importance of his thought for contemporary social and political issues This is an exceptionally strong volume that excites and inspires the philosophical imagination it shows the centrality of questions of race and gender to philosophical inquiry and appropriation Keith Ansell Pearson author of Bergson Thinking Beyond the Human Condition

The Philosophy of Charles W. Mills Mark William Westmoreland, 2024-11-29 Charles W Mills 1951 2021 was considered by many to be the most well known philosopher specializing in political philosophy and critical philosophy of race This is the first collection of essays to critically examine the key themes of Mills's philosophy across his major works The chapters in this volume engage with major themes such as the racial contract non ideal theory metaphysics of race epistemology of ignorance and corrective justice They also explore Mills's engagement with philosophical figures including Frederick Douglass W E B Du Bois Maria Lugones Immanuel Kant Karl Marx and John Rawls Furthermore the contributors seek to uncover unexplored terrain which may be illuminated by applying many of Mills's key insights The Philosophy of Charles W Mills will be of interest to scholars and advanced students working in political philosophy philosophy of race Africana philosophy and Black political thought

Where Do We Go from Here? Mark Major, 2010-01-01 Progressive politics has long been in crisis in the United States As the radical Left realizes the dire consequences of defining themselves solely by what they are against this collection challenges leading engaged academics and activists to show how radical politics can lead to a more fruitful democracy Dealing with pressing issues of the day such as health care race immigration religion foreign policy unions feminism liberalism education and the media this edited volume looks at the prospects for a progressive turn in U S politics In doing so it hopes to inspire the radical imagination by showing where we can go from here As technology continues to enable greater access to ideas around the world the power of intellectuals is greater than ever And given that the world is full of crushing poverty sexism uneven development environmental degeneration religious fanaticism racism and imperialism the need for intellectuals to inspire the radical imagination by championing principles of economic and social justice democracy and universality is also greater than ever However political visions are required to guide that struggle This is the aim of this book

The Color of Our Shame Christopher J. Lebron, 2013-10-03 The Color of Our Shame argues that political thought must supply the arguments necessary to address the moral problems that attend racial inequality and make those problems salient to a democratic polity

W.E.B. Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty-first Century Reiland Rabaka, 2007-01-01 W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century utilizes Du Bois's thought and texts to develop an informed critical theory of contemporary society This book broadens the base of critical theory making it more multicultural transethnic transgender and non Western European philosophy focused by placing it in dialogue with theory and phenomena that had been heretofore woefully neglected Taking the preeminent black intellectual of the twentieth century as his primary point of departure Reiland Rabaka identifies and analyzes several key contributions that Du Bois and the black racial tradition offer to those interested in redeveloping and racially revising contemporary critical social theory With chapters on critical race theory postcolonial theory feminism and Marxism this volume builds bridges from Africana Studies to disparate discursive communities accessibly demonstrating Du Bois's and the black radical tradition's contributions to and the potential impact on a wide range of new social scientific research and radical political struggles

Critical Theory and Qualitative Data Analysis in Education Rachele Winkle-Wagner, Jamila Lee-Johnson, Ashley N. Gaskew, 2018-07-04 Critical Theory and Qualitative Data Analysis in Education offers a path breaking explanation of how critical theories can be used within the analysis of qualitative data to inform research processes such as data collection analysis and interpretation This contributed volume offers examples of qualitative data analysis techniques and exemplars of empirical studies that employ critical theory concepts in data analysis By creating a clear and accessible bridge between data analysis and critical social theories this book helps scholars and researchers effectively translate their research designs and findings to multiple audiences for more equitable outcomes and disruption of historical and contemporary inequality

Exploitation Monique Deveaux, Vida Panitch, 2017-01-31 Contemporary theoretical discussions of exploitation are dominated by thinkers in the liberal and Marxian traditions Exploitation From Practice to Theory pushes past these traditional and binary explanations to focus on unjust practices that both depend on and perpetuate inequalities central to exploitation Using real world examples the chapters in this collection address key questions including in what ways are exploitation practices globalised racialized and gendered How do cases of organ selling price gouging and commercial gestational surrogacy change our understandings of exploitation What possible social and economic remedies do these new conceptions prescribe Case studies in this volume span the globe dealing with developed and developing countries alike and in a variety of national and transnational contexts

Rabaka,2010-03-08 When Frantz Fanon s critiques of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism are brought into the ever widening orbit of Africana critical theory something unprecedented in the annals of Africana intellectual history happens five distinct forms of Fanonism emerge Forms of Fanonism Frantz Fanon s Critical Theory and the Dialectics of Decolonization is discursively distinguished from other engagements of Fanon s thought and texts insofar as it is the first study to consciously examine his contributions to Africana Studies and critical theory or rather the Africana tradition of critical theory Forms of Fanonism identifies and intensely analyzes Fanon s contributions to the deconstruction and reconstruction of Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory In highlighting his unique solutions to the problems of racism sexism colonialism capitalism and humanism five distinct forms of Fanonism materialize These five forms of Fanonism allow contemporary critical theorists to innovatively explore the ways in which his thought and texts can be dialectically put to use in relieving the wretched experience of this generation s wretched of the earth Critics can also apply these forms to deconstruct and reconstruct Africana Studies radical politics and critical social theory using their anti imperialist interests Throughout Forms of Fanonism Reiland Rabaka critically dialogues with Fanon incessantly asking his corpus critical questions and seeking from it crucial answers This book in short solemnly keeps with Fanon s own predilection for connecting critical theory to revolutionary praxis by utilizing his thought and texts as paradigms and points of departure to deepen and develop the Africana tradition of critical theory Women Writing Race in the

Seventeenth-Century English Atlantic Kristina Lucenko,2025-05-21 Women Writing Race in the Seventeenth Century English Atlantic Civil Agents highlights early modern women writers invocations of civility to reach for the privileges of whiteness The women studied in this book were writing in various textual modes and span boundaries of ideology class religion and race Royalist writer Margaret Cavendish notorious German princess Mary Carleton early Quaker missionaries to Barbados Lydia Fell Alice Curwen and Elizabeth Hooton and Patience Boston a Native woman from Monomoy on Cape Cod

As this book explores women writing in the early English Atlantic engaged civility as a concept and an idiom whose racist implications were becoming codified Some of the women analyzed embraced and leveraged the practice of civility as a form of agency while others resisted and were marginalized by it Africana Critical Theory Reiland Rabaka,2009-01-16

Building on and going far beyond W E B Du Bois and the Problems of the Twenty First Century and Du Bois s Dialectics Reiland Rabaka s Africana Critical Theory innovatively identifies and analyzes continental and diasporan African contributions to classical and contemporary critical theory This book represents a climatic critical theoretical clincher that cogently demonstrates how Du Bois s rarely discussed dialectical thought interdisciplinarity intellectual history making radical political activism and world historical multiple liberation movement leadership helped to inaugurate a distinct Africana tradition of critical theory With chapters on W E B Du Bois C L R James Negritude Aime Cesaire and Leopold Senghor Frantz Fanon and Amilcar Cabral Africana Critical Theory endeavors to accessibly offer contemporary critical theorists an intellectual archaeology of the Africana tradition of critical theory and a much needed dialectical deconstruction and reconstruction of black radical politics These six seminal figures collective thought and texts clearly cuts across several disciplines and therefore closes the chasm between Africana Studies and critical theory constantly demanding that intellectuals not simply think deep thoughts develop new theories and theoretically support radical politics but be and constantly become political activists social organizers and cultural workers that is folk the Italian critical theorist Antonio Gramsci referred to as organic intellectuals In this sense then the series of studies gathered in Africana Critical Theory contribute not only to African Studies African American Studies Caribbean Studies Cultural Studies Gender Studies and Postcolonial Studies but also to contemporary critical theoretical discourse across an amazingly wide range of traditional disciplines and radical political activism outside of and in many instances absolutely against Europe s ivory towers and the absurdities of the American academe Intersectionality and Race in Education Kalwant Bhopal,John Preston,2012-01-25 Education is a controversial subject in which difficult and contested discourses are the norm Individuals in education experience multiple inequalities and have diverse identifications that cannot necessarily be captured by one theoretical perspective alone This edited collection draws on empirical and theoretical research to examine the intersections of race gender and class alongside other aspects of personhood within education Contributors from the fields of education and sociology seek to locate the dimensions of difference and identity within recent theoretical discourses such as Critical Race Theory Judith Butler and queer theory post structural approaches and multicultural models as they analyze whiteness and the education experience of minority ethnic groups By combining a mix of intellectually rigorous accessible and controversial chapters this book presents a distinctive and engaging voice one that seeks to broaden the understanding of education research beyond the confines of the education sphere into an arena of sociological and cultural discourse

Colorblindness, Post-racality, and Whiteness in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder,2015-12-27 This book

problematizes the ways in which the discourses of colorblindness and post raciality are articulated in the age of Obama Pinder debunks the myth that race does not matter and reconsiders the presumptive hegemony of whiteness through the dialectics of visibility and invisibility of race

Marx on Emancipation and Socialist Goals Robert X. Ware, 2018-10-14 This book responds to the need for a retrieval and renewal of the work of Karl Marx through close philosophical analysis of his publications manuscripts and letters especially those relevant to politics morality and the future This philosophical study stands out because of its two principal features First it reviews and develops ideas about the future though often only briefly discussed by Marx and his commentators drawn from Marx s work Second it focuses on collective matters that are critical for Marx s ideas but rarely investigated and still problematic Part One introduces Marx with a discussion of emancipation and freedom in community It then discusses the importance of retrieval and the methodology for promoting it Part Two is about misunderstandings of Marx s ideas about productive development division of labour and organisations Part Three discusses nations morality and democracy all of which Marx supported Part Four takes up Marx s significant but misunderstood ideas about the future and his relation to the anarchists

Equality Renewed Christine Sypnowich, 2016-12-19 How should we approach the daunting task of renewing the ideal of equality In this book Christine Sypnowich proposes a theory of equality centred on human flourishing or wellbeing She argues that egalitarianism should be understood as seeking to make people more equal in the constituents of a good life Inequality is a social ill because of the damage it does to human flourishing unequal distribution of wealth can have the effect that some people are poorly housed badly nourished ill educated unhappy or uncultured among other things When we seek to make people more equal our concern is not just resources or property but how people fare under one distribution or another Ultimately the best answer to the question equality of what is some conception of flourishing since whatever policies or principles we adopt it is flourishing that we hope will be more equal as a result of our endeavours Sypnowich calls for both retrieval and innovation What is to be retrieved is the ideal of equality itself which is often assumed as a background condition of theories of justice yet at the same time dismissed as too homogenising abstract and rigid a criterion for political argument We must retrieve the ideal of equality as a central political principle In doing so she casts doubt on the value of focussing on cultural difference and rejects the idea of neutrality that dominates contemporary political philosophy in favour of a view of the state as enabling the betterment of its citizens
