Actology Malcolm Torry,2020-07-08 Two streams run through the Western philosophical stream one characterized by Being beings the unchanging the static and the unitary and the other by Action actions the changing the dynamic and the diverse The former might be represented by Parmenides Plato and much of what followed the latter by Heraclitus and by rather less of what followed The book explores the Action stream as it wound its way through history through Heraclitus Plato Aristotle Hegel Maurice Blondel Henri Bergson Pierre Teilhard de Chardin process philosophy and theology Geoffrey Studdert Kennedy Ludwig Wittgenstein and John Boys Smith The journey enables us to create the beginnings of an actology a way of seeing ourselves the universe and God in terms of actions in patterns rather than as beings that change Such an actology offers a complete alternative narrative far more in tune with the diverse and rapidly changing world in which we live than the ontology that has shaped philosophy theology and much else for the past two thousand years

Mind in Nature Maria-Teresa Teixeira,Aljoscha Berve,Moirika Reker,2021-01-27 This collection of essays written by leading Whitehead scholars bridges two important philosophical movements in Western philosophy separated by many centuries Neo Platonism and Process Philosophy It focuses on a variety of topics which can be found in both theories including creativity temporality holism potentiality causality evolution organism and multiplicities They all concur with an integral natural worldview showing that wholeness complexity and indivisibility are prevalent in Nature All in all it brings together Neo Platonism and Process Philosophy through the impact the former had on the latter This volume shows that process philosophy can contribute to an integral worldview as it draws on ancient philosophy setting new paradigms for novel approaches to nature science and metaphysics      Nature and Time Dong In Baek, 2024-12-30 Unveil the intricate tapestry of faith and reason in Nature and Time Integrative Dialogues in History and Theology This insightful work bridges the gap between traditional Christian thought and contemporary scientific understanding Delving deep into the evolving role of natural theology it explores how human reason and empirical observation intertwine with divine revelation From the hierarchical dance between natural and revealed theology to the pressing political and ecological challenges of our time this book offers a fresh lens through which to view the divine in the modern world Journey through philosophical perspectives on time understand divine action in new dimensions and grapple with the global struggle against oppression all while discovering the enduring relevance of natural theology By weaving together insights from ecology cosmology and neuroscience it fosters a dynamic dialogue that enriches both science and spirituality Whether a theologian seeking depth a scientist exploring beyond the empirical or a curious mind yearning for meaning this book invites the reader to a transformative exploration Engage with a framework that not only addresses the complexities of the world but also fosters a deeper understanding of the divine in every aspect of life      The Blind Spot Adam Frank, Marcelo Gleiser, Evan Thompson, 2024-03-05 A compelling argument for including the human perspective within science and for how human experience makes science possible This is by far the best book I've read this year Michael Pollan Professor of the Practice of Non fiction Harvard University 1 New York Times bestselling author A stimulating manifesto for changing the way we look at things Wall Street Journal It's tempting to think that science gives us a God's eye view of reality But we neglect the place of human experience at our peril In The Blind Spot astrophysicist Adam Frank theoretical physicist Marcelo Gleiser and philosopher Evan Thompson call for a revolutionary scientific worldview where science includes rather than ignores or tries not to see humanity's lived experience as an inescapable part of our search for objective truth The authors present science not as discovering an absolute reality but rather as a highly refined constantly evolving form of human experience They urge practitioners to reframe how science works for the sake of our future in the face of the planetary climate crisis and increasing science denialism Since the dawn of the Enlightenment humanity has looked to science to tell us who we are where we come from and where we're going but we've gotten stuck thinking we can know the universe from outside our position in it When we try to understand reality only through external physical things imagined from this outside position we lose sight of the necessity of experience This is the Blind Spot which the authors show lies behind our scientific conundrums about time and the origin of the universe quantum physics life AI and the mind consciousness and Earth as a planetary system The authors propose an alternative vision scientific knowledge is a self-correcting narrative made from the world and our experience of it evolving together To finally see the Blind Spot is to awaken from a delusion of absolute knowledge and to see how reality and experience intertwine The Blind Spot goes where no science book goes urging us to create a new scientific culture that views ourselves both as an expression of nature and as a source of nature's self-understanding so that
