

A vintage color photograph of a smiling man in a white short-sleeved shirt and white trousers, leaning over a red and white gas pump. He is holding a silver gas nozzle. The pump has a large red circular logo with a white star and wings, and the words "FLYING SERVICE" in white. A classic car is partially visible on the right. The background is a clear blue sky.

Proclaiming the Great Ends of the Church Joseph D. Small, 2010-04-19 Prominent Presbyterian pastors and leaders address each of the Great Ends of the Church in sermons that both challenge and uplift readers For decades the Great Ends of the Church a historic listing of ways Presbyterians have understood the role of the church has helped to establish church directions in mission and ministry The Great Ends of the Church are 1 the proclamation of the gospel for the salvation of humankind 2 the shelter nurture and spiritual fellowship of the children of God 3 the maintenance of divine worship 4 the preservation of the truth 5 the promotion of social righteousness and 6 the exhibition of the Kingdom of Heaven to the world These sermons focus the church s understandings of its purpose and inspire us to dedicate ourselves to the church s work in the world This is a book that every Presbyterian should know and is ideal for study by church groups and sessions

Preserving the Great Plains & Rocky Mountains Elaine Freed, 1992 As we approach the end of the century we are all too familiar with the look of modern America the suburbs the strip malls the glass office towers and especially in the West the prevalence of urban sprawl The area covered by this book includes New Mexico Colorado Texas Oklahoma North and South Dakota Illinois Nebraska and Wyoming a vast and varied section of the country with remarkably diverse geography Elaine Freed has covered huge amounts of territory to present this lively and well illustrated study of the architecture and the preservation history of the Great Plains and Rocky Mountain West The book is divided into five sections The first part focuses on the vernacular architecture of the region the traditions of Native American and Spanish dwellings that Anglo settlers found and the first makeshift sometimes mobile structures they built including trading posts mills and mining camps forts and ranches The author discusses the railroads and how they made possible the urbanization of the West and how the automobile has altered the landscape The second part focuses on historic preservation as an organized movement in the West using different kinds of preservation to illustrate successes There are chapters on farms and ranches ghost towns main streets neighborhoods and downtowns For anyone concerned with preserving our environment and its architectural and archaeological history this book is an indispensable guide The Haberdasher, 1928
