Jason Potts,Daniel Stout,2014-05-14 Where can theory go now Where other voices concern themselves with theory s life or death the contributors to Theory Aside take up another possibility that our theoretical prospects are better served worrying less about what s next and more about what else Instead of looking for the next big thing the fourteen prominent thinkers in this volume take up lines of thought lost or overlooked during theory s canonization They demonstrate that intellectual progress need not depend on the discovery of a new theorist or theory Moving subtly through a diverse range of thinkers and topics aesthetics affect animation and film studies bibliography cognitive science globalization phenomenology poetics political and postcolonial theory race and identity queer theory and sociological reading practices the contributors show that a more sustained less apocalyptic attention to ideas might lead to a richer discussion of our intellectual landscapes and the place of the humanities and social sciences in it In their turn away from the radically new these essays reveal that what s fallen aside still surprises Contributors Ian Balfour Karen Beckman Pheng Cheah Frances Ferguson William Flesch Anne Lise Fran ois Mark B N Hansen Simon Jarvis Heather Love Natalie Melas Jason Potts Elizabeth A Povinelli Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Jordan Alexander Stein Daniel Stout Irene Tucker Film Theory Felicity Colman,2014-09-16 Film Theory addresses the core concepts and arguments created or used by academics critical film theorists and filmmakers including the work of Dudley Andrew Raymond Bellour Mary Ann Doane Miriam Hansen bell hooks Siegfried Kracauer Raul Ruiz P Adams Sitney Bernard Stiegler and Pier Paolo Pasolini This volume takes the position that film theory is a form of writing that produces a unique cinematic grammar and like all grammars it forms part of the system of rules that govern a language and is thus applicable to wider range of media forms In their creation of authorial trends identification of the technology of cinema as a creative force and production of films as aesthetic markers film theories contribute an epistemological resource that connects the technologies of filmmaking and film composition This book explores these connections through film theorisations of processes of the diagrammatisation the systems methodologies concepts histories of cinematic matters of the filmic world Film Theory: The Basics Kevin McDonald,2016-02-12 Film Theory The Basics provides an accessible introduction to the key theorists concepts and debates that have shaped the study of moving images It examines film theory from its emergence in the early twentieth century to its study in the present day and explores why film has drawn special attention as a medium as a form of representation and as a focal point in the rise of modern visual culture The book emphasizes how film theory has developed as a historically contingent discourse one that has evolved and changed in conjunction with different social political and intellectual factors To explore this fully the book is broken down into the following distinct sections Theory Before Theory 1915 1960 French Theory 1949 1968 Screen Theory 1969 1996 Post Theory 1996 2015 Complete with questions for discussion and a glossary of both key terms and key theorists Film Theory The Basics is an invaluable resource for those new to film studies and for anyone else interested in the history and significance of critical thinking in relation to the moving image      Understanding Film Theory Ruth Doughty,Christine

Etherington-Wright,2017-08-30 This essential core textbook provides an approachable and extensive introduction to film theory written by two highly experienced senior lecturers Bringing a fresh contemporary and accessible approach to what is often perceived to be a challenging and old fashioned area of film studies that requires time and effort to grasp the text illustrates why theory is important and demonstrates how it can be applied in a meaningful way The book s sixteen chapters are clear and comprehensive and provide an insight into the main areas of debate using clear definitions and explaining complex ideas succinctly The ideal entry point for any student studying film the book is designed for use on courses on film theory on undergraduate and postgraduate degree programmes within film cinema media and cultural studies New to this Edition An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Contemporary case studies exploring popular and topical films such as The Hunger Games 2012 Blue is the Warmest Colour 2013 and The Lego Movie 2014 An expanded introduction plus a new chapter looking at Adaptation Additional genre based case study on the British Gangster film Additional actor basedcase study on Ryan Gosling A greater focus throughout on the relevance of film theory to students undertaking practical film degrees and units      The Forms of the Affects Eugenie Brinkema,2014-05-12 What is the relationship between a cinematic grid of color and that most visceral of negative affects disgust How might anxiety be a matter of an interrupted horizontal line or grief a figure of blazing light Offering a bold corrective to the emphasis on embodiment and experience in recent affect theory Eugenie Brinkema develops a novel mode of criticism that locates the forms of particular affects within the specific details of cinematic and textual construction Through close readings of works by Roland Barthes Hollis Frampton Sigmund Freud Peter Greenaway Michael Haneke Alfred Hitchcock S ren Kierkegaard and David Lynch Brinkema shows that deep attention to form structure and aesthetics enables a fundamental rethinking of the study of sensation In the process she delves into concepts as diverse as putrescence in French gastronomy the role of the tear in philosophies of emotion Nietzschean joy as a wild aesthetic of repetition and the psychoanalytic theory of embarrassment Above all this provocative work is a call to harness the vitality of the affective turn for a renewed exploration of the possibilities of cinematic form      Movies and Methods Bill Nichols,1985-09-06 The original Movies and Methods volume 1976 captured the dynamic evolution of film theory and criticism into an important new discipline incorporating methods from structuralism semiotics and feminist thought Now there is again ferment in the field Movies and Methods Volume II captures the developments that have given history and genre studies imaginative new models and indicates how feminist structuralist and psychoanalytic approaches to film have achieved fresh valuable insights In his thoughtful introduction Nichols provides a context for the paradoxes that confront film studies today He shows how shared methods and approaches continue to stimulate much of the best writing about film points to common problems most critics and theorists have tried to resolve and describes the internal contradictions that have restricted the usefulness of post structuralism Mini introductions place each essay in a larger context and suggest its linkages with other essays in the volume A great variety of approaches and methods characterize film writing today and the final part conveys their diversity from statistical style analysis to phenomenology and from gay criticisms to neoformalism This concluding part also shows how the rigorous use of a broad range of approaches has helped remove post structuralist criticism from its position of dominance through most of the seventies and early eighties The writings collected in this volume exhibit not only a strong sense of personal engagement but also a persistent awareness of the social importance of the cinema in our culture Movies and Methods Volume II will prove as invaluable to the serious student of cinema as its predecessor it will be an essential reference work for years to come

The Oxford Handbook of Film Theory Kyle Stevens, 2022 Poses timely questions about the state of cinema today Looks beyond canonical film theory and practitioners Revitalizes an essential part of the discipline's identity Offers provocative new arguments from leading film scholars Book jacket Screen, 2001 Temporality and Film Analysis Matilda Mroz, 2013-08-12 This book traces the operation of duration in cinema and argues that temporality should be a central concern of film scholarship It explores the concepts of duration and rhythm resonance and uncertainty affect sense and texture to bring a fresh perspective Filmosophy Daniel Frampton, 2006 Filmosophy is a manifesto for a radically philosophical way of understanding cinema The book coalesces 20th century ideas of film as thought into a practical theory of film thinking arguing that film style conveys poetic ideas through a constant dramatic intent about the characters spaces and events of film Film Theory Philip Simpson, Andrew Utterson, Karen J. Shepherdson, 2004 This major new collection identifies the critical and theoretical concepts which have been most significant in the study of film and presents a historical and intellectual context for the material examined Animating Film Theory Karen Redrobe, 2014-03-21 Animating Film Theory provides an enriched understanding of the relationship between two of the most unwieldy and unstable organizing concepts in cinema and media studies animation and film theory For the most part animation has been excluded from the purview of film theory The contributors to this collection consider the reasons for this marginalization while also bringing attention to key historical contributions across a wide range of animation practices geographic and linguistic terrains and historical periods They delve deep into questions of how animation might best be understood as well as how it relates to concepts such as the still the moving image the frame animism and utopia The contributors take on the kinds of theoretical questions that have remained underexplored because as Karen Beckman argues scholars of cinema and media studies have allowed themselves to be constrained by too narrow a sense of what cinema is This collection reanimates and expands film studies by taking the concept of animation seriously Contributors Karen Beckman Suzanne Buchan Scott Bukatman Alan Cholodenko Yuriko Furuhashi Alexander R Galloway Oliver Gaycken Bishnupriya Ghosh Tom Gunning Andrew R Johnston Herv Joubert Laurencin Gertrud Koch Thomas LaMarre Christopher P Lehman Esther Leslie John MacKay Mihaela Mihailova Marc Steinberg Tess Takahashi     The Anthem Handbook of Screen Theory Hunter Vaughan, Tom Conley, 2018-07-30
