Science John Michels (Journalist), 1902 The Price of Partnership in the Letter of Paul to the Philippians Mark A. Jennings, 2018-01-25 Mark A Jennings challenges the consensus that there is no clear single purpose that shapes the entire epistle to the Philippians instead arguing that there is significant evidence for Paul to have written the letter with the sole intent of persuading the church to maintain its exclusive partnership with him and his gospel mission Jennings examines each section of Philippians with standard historical critical methods rhetorical criticism and social scientific methods Establishing that Paul s argument is rooted in three fundamental tenets emphasis is first placed on koinonia and the agreement that Paul and the Philippians had entered into regarding his apostolic mission Second Jennings looks at the repeated proofs that Paul offers that simultaneously affirm the ordained superiority of his apostolic mission and repudiate the claims of his rivals Third Jennings analyses the issue of finances in the epistle discussing how Paul rhetorically transforms the Philippians financial support into a salient indicator that they esteem his gospel mission authentic Finally whereas other scholars have argued that Paul entreats the Philippians to be steadfast in their commitment to the gospel of Christ Jennings proposes that Paul urges the church to be steadfast in their commitment to his gospel of Christ Jennings then considers how this seemingly small distinction has profound ramifications for understanding the letter and shows the gap between these interpretations

Paul's Letter to the Philippians in the Light of Disunity in the Church Davorin Peterlin, 2014-04-09 This volume discusses the development of disunity in the Philippian church as the occasion for Paul's response in his letter The first part of the book examines references and allusions to strife among the Philippians and tension between them and Paul It demonstrates the pervasiveness of the theme of disunity in most sections of the letter The second part correlates these findings with sections of the letter dealing with the Philippians financial support for Paul It treats such topics as Paul's attitude to money and the sociological composition of the church The book's aim is to draw attention to social and non-theological aspects of the Philippian situation and make a contribution to a more theological study of Philippians

The Letter to the Philippians G. Walter Hansen, 2009-10-05 In this clear concise exegetical commentary G. Walter Hansen offers rich exposition of the text of Philippians as well as wisdom and maturity in its application In so doing he emphasizes partnership the social and corporate dimensions of community in the progress of the gospel After a moderately sized bibliography the introduction takes up the historical setting of the city of Philippi the nature of the letter the occasion of the letter and a preview of two key themes the gospel of Christ and the community in Christ The commentary itself considers Philippians in light of these themes considering the greetings reports of Gospel ministry recommendations of two Christ-like servants and other emphases on the gospel and on partners or servants

The Greatest Letter Ever Written French L. Arrington, From studying Paul's letter to the Romans we can learn the content of the Christian faith like nowhere else in the New Testament Paul's words are loaded with divine truth and require careful study and thought Indeed the letter to the Romans is a theological jewel but Paul's discussions in the letter are sensible and practical As the name of the letter indicates Paul wrote it to a church in a city known as Rome At the same time without knowing it he wrote it to the whole world and for all the ages supporting the efforts of cross-cultural ministry and providing a key to understanding the Bible So even though this great letter was addressed to the saints in Rome during the first century its message is eternal and its mandates are universal French L. Arrington
