1. In the 1980s, Suhana could have benefited from a couple of government programs made to help farmers:

This program helped farmers grow more crops by giving them better seeds, fertilizers, and new ways to water their fields. This made farming easier and helped them get more food from their land.

NABARD was started to give loans to farmers. Suhana could have used a loan from NABARD to buy new tools or improve her farm. This way, she could earn more money and grow more crops.

2. After independence, India needed to fix farming because there wasn't enough food, and most farmers were poor. Rich people owned most of the land, and farmers had to rent it from them, which wasn't fair. The government changed things by giving land to farmers and helping them work together to buy seeds and tools. This made farming better, helped farmers earn more, and made sure India could grow enough food.

3. The Bhoodan-Gramdan movement was started by Vinoba Bhave in India to help poor, landless farmers. "Bhoodan" means "gift of land," so he asked rich landowners to donate some of their land to those who had none. Later, "Gramdan" meant donating the whole village's land to the villagers so everyone could share it.
