Conceptions Of Marginality In The Postcolonial Novel Revisiting Bessie Head:

Conceptions of Marginality in the Postcolonial Novel Adamu Pangmeshi, 2014-10-25 Postcolonial discourse in all its breadth and depth often narrows down to issues of marginality a situation in which the imperial hegemony subjugates the less privileged peoples to the margins be they nations or linguistic religious and ethnic groups or race In Conceptions of Marginality in the Postcolonial Novel Revisiting Bessie Head Adamu Pangmeshi critically explores the issues of marginality in Head's fiction problematizing such critical issues as identity gender exile religion social and economic problems and the ensuing circumstances in the peculiar postcolonial matrix of Apartheid South Africa The book is a refreshing and an interesting re-reading of Bessie Head's fiction as well as an insightful revaluation of postcolonial discourse This text will be of special interest to students and critics

Moral Spaces David Campbell, Michael J. Shapiro, 1999 American Doctoral Dissertations, 1994 Bessie Head Huma Ibrahim, 1996 One of the foremost African writers of our time who dispelled the silence between colonial and feminist discourses by talking back Bessie Head at last gets her due in this first book length comprehensive study of her work This book locates Head's unquestionable importance in the canon of African literature Author Huma Ibrahim argues that unless we are able to look at the merging of women's sexual and linguistic identity with their political and gendered identity the careful configurations created in Head's work will elude us Ibrahim offers a series of thoughtful readings informed by feminist diasporan postcolonial and poststructuralist insights and concerns She identifies a theme she calls exilic consciousness the desire to belong and traces its manifestations through each phase of Head's work showing how women's talk a marginalized commodity in the construction of southern Africa is differently embodied and evaluated Bessie Head's works are frequently featured in courses in African literature third world literature and fiction writing but there is little critical material on them Ibrahim offers readings of Head's novels When Rain Clouds Gather Maru and A Question of Power as well as the collections Tales of Tenderness and Power A Collector of Treasures A Woman Alone Autobiographical Writings and The Cardinals the histories Serowe Village of the Rain Wind and A Bewitched Crossroad and her letters to Robert Vigne collected in A Gesture of Belonging In Head's exploration of oppressed people especially women and those in exile Ibrahim finds startling insights into institutional power relations Head not only subverts Western hegemonic notions of the third world woman but offers a critique of postcoloniality Bessie Head and the Trauma of Exile Joshua Agbo, 2023-09-25 This book investigates themes of exile and oppression in Southern Africa across Bessie Head's fiction including When Rain Clouds Gather 1969 Maru 1971 and A Question of Power 1973 this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature and post colonial history The Creative Vision of Bessie Head Coreen Brown, 2003 This book is an exploration of the way in which Head's writing is her idiosyncratic response to her personal life Her desire to portray and yet subvert oppression political racist and sexist that she encountered in South Africa and Botswana led to a Romanticism born of her need to create an antithesis to what she perceived to be the reality around her Her eagerness to discover a haven in her adopted rural Botswana led to a Utopia of her own making a literary resolution imagined not actual A mental breakdown led to the creation of her greatest novel A Question of Power one which examines the depths of evil but allows also for the dawning of the heights of goodness The appendix contains many heretofore unpublished letters that help to explain the personal compulsion that provided for Head s creativity

Concepts of Home and Belonging in Postcolonial Literature compared in the novels "Small Island" by Andrea Levy and "White Teeth" by Zadie Smith Christina Heckmann, 2009-11-20 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.00 University of Göttingen Seminar für Englische Philologie course Multiethnic Britain language English abstract 1

Introduction 1.1 Brief introduction to home and belonging as a general idea Home has a significant function in our lives Thinking of home we associate notions like shelter and comfort and when we come home we want to feel safe and welcome John McLeod argues in this sense that to be at home is to occupy a location where we are welcome where we can be with people very much like ourselves 1 We are looking for who we are where we come from and try to find our place in life When one is born in a country but moves to another where is one s home country then This question is hard to answer because migration is always a process which implies a struggle of identities When the 2nd generation is born in the host country where do they belong if the host country does not accept them as full members The term home is highly complicated in a complex and multicultural world like ours 1.2 Procedure and approach of my analyses I have centered my term paper on an attempt to identify and characterize the concepts of home and belonging in postcolonial literature Comparing how the idea of home and belonging is presented in the novels White Teeth by Zadie Smith and Small Island by Andrea Levy I have tried a text extrinsic approach Furthermore I have analysed the authors intentions with regard to the time of publication and the time of the narrative However the main aspect of my analyses is which concepts of home and belonging exist and which of them can be found in the novels of my comparison I have chosen White Teeth because it is a novel that deals with the colonial past and the postcolonial present and I have selected Small Island because it is a novel that deals with migration in the past Small Island is set at the beginning of migration when many colonized people came to England Andrea Levy presents different views the White and Black British point of view at the beginning of migration My motivation to compare both novels is to go back to the beginning of colonial migration and to show the difference between the concepts from the past to the present 1 John McLeod Beginning Postcolonialism Manchester New York Manchester University Press 2000 p. 210 2 Zadie Smith White Teeth London Penguin Books 2001

Living on a Horizon Desiree Lewis, 2007 Bessie Head s writing illustrates a fusion of styles subjects and philosophical and literary influences This book explores this range by drawing both on postcolonial and feminist theories Focusing on Head s acute sensitivity to social and historical experiences the book deals with Head s use of myths and trans cultural fictions that convey knowledge about her immediate world and the historical domains beyond it In addition Bessie Head s autobiographical vision generates an exploration of personal injustices as well as the processes they signal Hinduism and eastern philosophy were central to Head's philosophical vision and the book shows how this vision allowed her to explore existential questions and spiritual concerns in innovative and unexpected ways. By using language auto referentially and symbolically by drawing on myths and by developing abundantly textured metaphors, Head produces fictions that manifest the notions of freedom and serenity she urgently endorses and that are as concerned with challenging the realities she confronts as they are with utopian imagining. On the Periphery Katrina Manuel, 1997
