Concise Introduction to EU Private International Law Michael Bogdan, 2012 This concise book is mainly intended to be used as an introduction to the rules of private international law belonging to the legal system of the European Union It provides legal practitioners with an overview of this highly complex field of law and can serve as an introductory textbook in elective undergraduate courses and master programs offered today by many law schools both to their own students and to exchange students from other countries The book will hopefully also be useful as a spring board towards more profound studies of statutory texts case law and legal literature Michael Bogdan is Professor of Comparative and Private International Law at the University of Lund Sweden

Concise Introduction to EU Private International Law Michael Bogdan, EU Private International Law Michael Bogdan, Ulf Maunsbach, 2006 This book provides an easy access to and overview of the case law of the Court of Justice of the European Communities ECJ pertaining to private international law The book contains edited extracts from all ECJ decisions of immediate private international law relevance made before October 1 2006 Most of the cases deal with the original or amended versions of the Brussels Convention on Jurisdiction and the Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters from 1968 These judgments retain their authority also with regard to the interpretation of Regulation No 44 2001 of December 22 2000 on Jurisdiction and the Recognition and Enforcement of Judgments in Civil and Commercial Matters the so called Brussels I Regulation The existing ECJ case law regarding other EC regulations and directives dealing with private international law are also included as well as a number of relevant judgments concerning the interpretation of the EC Treaty itself Research

Handbook on EU Private International Law Peter Stone, Youseph Farah, 2015-05-29 The harmonisation of private international law in Europe has advanced rapidly since the entry into force of the Treaty of Amsterdam Most aspects of private international law are now governed or at least affected by EU legislation and there is a subst The European Private International Law of Employment Uglješa Grušić, 2015-05-28 The European Private International Law of Employment provides a descriptive and normative account of the European rules of jurisdiction and choice of law which frame international employment litigation in the courts of EU Member States The author outlines the relevant rules of the Brussels I Regulation Recast the Rome Regulations the Posted Workers Directive and the draft of the Posting of Workers Enforcement Directive and assesses those rules in light of the objective of protection of employees By using the UK as a case study he also highlights the impact of the Europeanisation of private international law on traditional perceptions and rules in this field of law in individual Member States For example the author demonstrates that the private international law of the EU is fundamentally reshaping English conflict of laws by almost completely merging the traditionally perceived contractual statutory and tortious claims into one claim for choice of law purposes Cases and Materials on EU Private International Law Stefania Bariatti,2011-04-13 Since the Amsterdam Treaty of 1997 empowered the EC to adopt rules in the field of conflicts of laws legal instruments have been adopted that provide common rules on issues that touch upon the day to day life of European citizens There are now instruments covering jurisdiction and the recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters family matters and maintenance obligations and the law applicable to contractual and non contractual obligations legal separations and divorces There is also legislation establishing swift procedures for recovering claims abroad ie the European Enforcement Order the European Order for Payment Procedure and the European Small Claims Procedure and legislation regulating cross border insolvency proceedings and judicial assistance in the field of service of documents taking of evidence and access to justice This long list of EU legislation is not exhaustive of EU conflicts of laws rules numerous further provisions are scattered among other EU legislation eg directives on consumer labour and insurance contracts company law IP rights securities privacy and so on Besides this the European Court of Justice has issued many judgments addressing relevant aspects of the conflict of laws found in the acquis communautaire in this field This book which assembles all the relevant EU legislation and ECJ decisions in one place provides a guide to the maze of legal instruments now in place supplemented by brief commentaries identifying the leading principles and anticipating future developments This title is included in Bloomsbury Professional's International Arbitration online service EU Law and Private International Law Jan-Jaap Kuipers,2011-11-25 European Union Law and Private International Law both attempt to resolve a conflict of laws There is however a certain tension between the two disciplines The present book proposes suggestions to enhance their mutual understanding Private International Law Symeon C. Symeonides,2021-11-08 This book compares the two golden ages of private international law PIL the first is the era of Story and Savigny in the nineteenth century while the second comprises the last fifty years The period between 1970 and 2020 has been one of rapid changes and dense legislative responses exemplified by the adoption of over one hundred national PIL codifications and almost as many international or regional conventions and regulations These instruments provide a rich source for this book's incisive and instructive comparisons and a fertile ground for a reliable assessment of the progress of PIL as a discipline This book skillfully uncovers and meticulously documents the gradual and largely unnoticed transition of PIL from the idealism of the nineteenth century to the pragmatic eclecticism and pluralism of the twenty first century Private International Law in Sweden Michael Bogdan,Ulf Maunsbach,2024-04-17 Derived from the renowned multi volume International Encyclopaedia of Laws this book provides ready access to the law applied to cases involving cross border issues in Sweden It offers every lawyer dealing with questions of conflict of laws much needed access to these conflict rules presented clearly and concisely by a local expert Beginning with a general introduction the monograph goes on to discuss the choice of law technique sources of private international law and the relevant connection with other laws Then follows clear description and analysis of the rules of choice of law on natural and legal persons contractual and non contractual obligations movable and immovable property intangible property rights company law family law marriage cohabitation registered partnerships matrimonial property maintenance child law and succession law including testamentary dispositions The presentation concludes with an overview of relevant civil procedure examining lex fori and issues of national and international jurisdiction acceptability and enforcement of foreign judgements and international arbitration Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable resource for lawyers handling cases in Sweden Academics and researchers as well as judges notaries public marriage registrars youth welfare officers teachers students and local and public authorities will welcome this very useful guide and will appreciate its value in the study of private international law from a comparative perspective Private International Law as Component of the Law of the Forum Michael

Bogdan, 2012-01-01 Also available as an e book In spite of the undoubtedly great and rising importance of the international legislative co operation regarding private international law it must be remembered that no successful unification or harmonization of conflict rules has ever taken place on the universal level and that the conflict rules stemming from international legislative co operation between a limited number of countries give rise to the same problems as non harmonized rules whenever they have to be used in relation to countries not participating in the legislative co operation in question This book will therefore focus on the last mentioned problems and refrain from dealing with the particular issues arising from international legislative co operation in the field of private international law One of the principal aims of Michael Bogdan is to demonstrate the relationship between the national rules of private international law and the rest of the legal system of the forum country in the first place its substantive private law and its law of civil procedure as well as to illustrate the impact of the forum country's general ethical and other values on its private international law Intellectual Property and Private International Law Toshiyuki Kono, 2012-06-29 Intellectual property and private international law was one of the subjects discussed at the 18th International Congress of Comparative Law held in Washington July 2010 This volume contains the General Report and 20 National Reports covering Canada US Japan Korea India and a number of European countries Austria France Germany UK Spain etc The General Report was prepared on the basis of National Reports The national reporters not only describe the existing legal framework but also provide answers for up to 12 hypothetical cases concerning international jurisdiction choice of law and recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments in multi state IP disputes Based on their answers the main differences between legal systems as well as the shortcomings of the cross border enforcement of IP rights are outlined in the General Report The Reports in this volume analyse relevant court decisions as well as recent legislative proposals such as the ALI CLIP Transparency Waseda and Korean Principles This book is therefore a significant contribution to the existing debate in the field and will be a valuable source of reference in shaping future developments in the cross border enforcement of IP rights in a global context Codifying Choice of Law Around the World Dean Symeon C. Symeonides, 2014-04-30 Codifying Choice of Law Around the World chronicles documents and celebrates the extraordinary massive codification of Private International Law PrIL or Conflict of Laws that has taken place in the last 50 years from 1962 2012 During this period the world has witnessed the adoption of nearly 200 PrIL codifications EU Regulations and international conventions more than in all preceding years since the inception of PrIL This book provides a horizontal comparison and discussion of these codifications and conventions first by comparing the way they resolve tort and contract conflicts and then by comparing the answers of these codifications to the fundamental philosophical and methodological dilemmas of PrIL In the process this book re examines and dispels certain widely held assumptions about choice of law and the art and science of codification in general Written by Symeon C Symeonides a renowned PrIL and comparative law expert with extensive first hand experience in drafting codifications and advising other drafters Codifying Choice of Law Around the World will serve as an indispensable point of reference for any serious study or discussion of PrIL and comparative law Codifying Choice of Law Around the World Symeon Symeonides, 2014 The book is a comparative study of the choice of law codifications and conventions adopted in each of the inhabited continents in the last so years Its main purpose is to document and inform rather than to critique Although I do not always hide my opinion I continue to act on the conviction that what we can learn from legislators is far more important than what they can learn from us PREFACE

The European Union's Emerging International Identity Henri de Waele, Jan-Jaap Kuipers, 2013-06-06 The European Union officially acquired international legal personality with the entry into force of the Lisbon Treaty Since then the constitutional foundations of EU external relations have received an ever greater amount of scholarly attention So far however the body of knowledge has remained limited with regard to how the Union is actually being perceived on the global scene Moreover its dealings with other international organizations constitute a similar still underexplored topic The European Union's Emerging International Identity breaks new ground by addressing both these themes in combination The resulting volume offers an innovative inquiry into the EU's image and status based on a select number of studies of its position and functioning within the framework of eight international organizations The Law of the European Union and the European Communities Pieter Jan Kuijper, Fabian Amtenbrink, Deirdre Curtin, Bruno De Witte, Alison McDonnell, 2018-09-28 The Law of the European Union is a complete reference work on all aspects of the law of the European Union including the institutional framework the Internal Market Economic and Monetary Union and external policy and action Completely revised and updated with many newly written chapters this fifth edition of the most thorough resource in its field provides the most comprehensive and systematic account available of the law of the European Union EU Written by a new team of experts in their respective areas of European law its coverage incorporates and embraces many current controversial and emerging issues and provides detailed attention to historical development and legislative history of EU law Topics that are constantly debated in European legal analysis and practice are touched on in ways that are both fundamental and enlightening including the following powers and functions of the EU law institutions and relationship among them the principles of equality loyalty subsidiarity and proportionality free movement of persons goods services and capital mechanisms of constitutional change treaty revisions accession treaties withdrawal agreements budgetary principles and procedures State aid rules effect of Union law in national legal systems coexistence of EU European Convention of Human Rights ECHR and national fundamental rights law migration and asylum law liability of Member States for damage suffered by individuals competition law cartels abuse of dominant position merger control social policy equal pay and equal treatment environmental policy consumer protection public health cultural policy education and tourism nature of EU citizenship its acquisition and loss and law and policy of the EU s external relations The fifth edition embraces many new ongoing and emerging European legal issues As in the previous editions the presentation is notable for its attention to how the law relates to economic and political realities and how the various policy areas interact with each other and with the institutional framework The many practitioners and scholars who have relied on the predecessors of this definitive work for years will welcome this extensively revised and updated edition Those coming to the field for the first time will instantly recognize that they are in the presence of a masterwork that can always be turned to with profit and that helps in understanding the rationale underlying any EU law provision or principle

European Union Law Robert Schütze,2025 The Europeanisation of International Family Law N. A.

Baarsma,2011-09-06 Choice of law determines which national legal system applies to an international case Currently many choice of law rules in the field of family law are regulated by national law However these national rules of the EU Member States are more and more displaced by common European rules This book describes the changes brought by the Europeanisation of the choice of law on divorce From the conclusions drawn in the field of divorce the concluding chapter discusses the changes of Europeanisation of international family law in a broader perspective European Constitutional Law Robert Schütze,2021 Written in a uniquely engaging style and full of illuminating analyses this book provides a thorough and modern guide to the study of the constitutional law of the Union Numerous diagrams and tables clarify key concepts and processes and a practical appendix helps students to find and read primary and secondary legal sources Diversity and Integration in Private International Law Veronica Ruiz Abou-Nigm,2019-08-21 No detailed description available for Diversity and Integration in Private International Law
