Confession And Forgiveness Professing Faith As Ambassadors Of Reconciliation:

Confession & Forgiveness Ted Kober, 2002 In a sinful world people sin against each other Christians do too Even in church we often give and take offense How do we handle this Often with bitterness and grudges But Christ did not die for us in order that we might live in hostility toward each other He gives us a better way Confession and Forgiveness which Luther frequently used and sometimes even called a third sacrament has often been neglected in the everyday ministry of our churches Even so many are now rediscovering this essential element which God has given us for our spiritual benefit In these pages learn from Scripture from the Lutheran Confessions and from powerful contemporary stories how to recover and employ this blessing in your own life and become an ambassador of reconciliation Book jacket Forgiveness Gary Inrig, 2013-11-01 Gary Inrig brings wonderful breadth depth and balance to a very difficult subject forgiveness As one 83 year old theologian Rev Herb VanderLugt says This is the best book on the subject I have ever read Whether it s living forgiven learning to forgive what to do when an offender refuses to request forgiveness whether we re asking giving or waiting for forgiveness this book covers the subject with Inrig s on the mark illustrations and solid biblical teaching It is impossible to exaggerate the importance of the subject of forgiveness to the Christian faith If the Bible makes it clear that Christians are forgiven people it also makes it clear that we are to be forgiving people How and when do we do that What does it look like

A Cry For Help Mipo E. Dadang, 2022-05-30 The gospel of Christ is a gospel of peace yet Christianity has not escaped the specter of religious violence The legacy of the church has not only been one of patient suffering and forgiving love but also of brutal bloodshed With tensions between Christians and non Christians on the rise in many areas of the world the question of how the church is to respond to religious violence is a pressing one encompassing issues of ecclesiology theology and missiology Dr Mipo E Dadang explores the contextual realities that have led some believers in Northern Nigeria to embrace violence as a justifiable response to persecution Drawing on extensive interviews he provides an overview of the history of the church in the region the impact of local theologies and traditions on mindsets and behaviors and the insight of local believers into the catalysts and solutions to violent conflict Alongside this phenomenological study he provides a powerful biblical and theological foundation for understanding bloodshed as a violation of God s created order He weaves together biblical teachings the example of the early church and the theology of Martin Luther to demonstrate that the people of God are called to reject prevent and eliminate violence replacing it with creative alternatives This deeply powerful book has implications for every Christian seeking to live out the gospel of Christ in peaceful co existence with their neighbors

Peacemaking Women Tara Klena Barthel, Judy Dabler, 2005-07-01 Women have a strong desire for relational connections Relationships between women can be especially enriching but when conflict arises they also can be especially damaging Too many women approach conflict as if they were unbelievers with gossip spiteful actions bitterness and even hatred In Peacemaking Women Tara Klena Barthel and Judy Dabler offer a meaningful lasting message to lead women out of conflict to a state of peace where they can live as representatives of Christ to one another and well as unbelievers With advice that is firmly rooted in Scripture the authors bring sound practical help for women who want to know what the Bible says about conflict resolution and how to achieve peace in their relationships with God self and others Making Christian

Counseling More Christ Centered Rick W. Marrs Ph.D.,2019-09-13 Many Christian counselors and pastors want to bring Christ s Gospel and forgiveness into their soul care but don t know how Luther s very Christ centered theology based in his desire for care of souls can provide us with that foundation Various techniques flowing from that foundation are shared Martin Luther formulated his proclamation of the message of Scripture for his contemporaries between the poles of God s voice in the pages of the Bible and the needs and afflictions of his hearers and readers Marrs brings twenty first century readers into that exchange and demonstrates how Luther s insights into the gospel of Jesus Christ help bring healing and comfort to those struggling with guilt shame fear loneliness and other spiritual afflictions in our day This volume provides those who are engaged in conversation with the troubled and distressed rich resources for fostering peace and joy in the midst of such trouble and distress Robert Kolb PhD professor of systematic theology emeritus Concordia Seminary Saint Louis USA If all good theology is pastoral in its orientation then this groundbreaking practical biblical study is well worth careful consideration by any pastor or Christian counsellor In it Marrs engages in a conversation with the teaching of Luther as a Christ centered pastoral theologian and the practical insights of psychologists on the personal care of their clients with a special emphasis on Luther s insistence on the need to distinguish between law and gospel in the proper application of God s gracious word with the delivery of soul care to God s people John W Kleinig PhD Professor Emeritus Australian Lutheran College University of Divinity Adelaide South Australia Nigeria - Politics, Religion, Pentecostal-Charismatic Power
