Concepts in Film Theory J. Dudley Andrew, 1984-03-15 Concepts in Film Theory is a continuation of Dudley Andrew's classic The Major Film Theories In writing now about contemporary theory Andrew focuses on the key concepts in film study perception representation signification narrative structure adaptation evaluation identification figuration and interpretation Beginning with an introductory chapter on the current state of film theory Andrew goes on to build an overall view of film presenting his own ideas on each concept and giving a sense of the interdependence of these concepts Andrew provides lucid explanations of theories which involve perceptual psychology and structuralism semiotics and psychoanalysis hermeneutics and genre study His clear approach to these often obscure theories enables students to acquire the background they need to enrich their understanding of film and of art

Film Theory Thomas Elsaesser, Malte Hagener, 2015-03-12 What is the relationship between cinema and spectator This is the key question for film theory and one that Thomas Elsaesser and Malte Hagener put at the center of their insightful and engaging book now revised from its popular first edition Every kind of cinema and every film theory first imagines an ideal spectator and then maps certain dynamic interactions between the screen and the spectator's mind body and senses Using seven distinctive configurations of spectator and screen that move progressively from exterior to interior relationships the authors retrace the most important stages of film theory from its beginnings to the present from neo realist and modernist theories to psychoanalytic apparatus phenomenological and cognitivist theories and including recent cross overs with philosophy and neurology This new and updated edition of Film Theory An Introduction through the Senses has been extensively revised and rewritten throughout incorporating discussion of contemporary films like Her and Gravity and including a greatly expanded final chapter which brings film theory fully into the digital age

Second Takes Andrew Repasky McElhinney, 2013-11-05 Second Takes presents the history of English language cinema by focusing on cinematic remakes and on how cinema has been replaced by new forms of media Remakes with their innate plurality offer the most substance for concentrated cultural analysis of how movies reflect and shape American culture Analyzing the archetypes that recur in this culture reveals how movies are an increasingly dangerous surrogate for the actual Close readings are presented of such works as popular favorites as Cronenberg's Crash Disney's The Parent Trap Ferrara's Bad Lieutenant Hitchcock's Psycho Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange Lynch's Twin Peaks the film and Welles' The Magnificent Ambersons while unearthing pictures ripe for rediscovery such as One More Tomorrow Strange Illusion and Andy Warhol's Vinyl Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Film Theory Felicity Colman, 2014-06-14 Film Theory addresses the core concepts and arguments created or used by academics critical film theorists and filmmakers including the work of Dudley Andrew Raymond Bellour Mary Ann Doane Miriam Hansen bell hooks Siegfried Kracauer Raul Ruiz P Adams Sitney Bernard Stiegler and Pier Paolo Pasolini This volume takes the position that film theory is a form of writing that produces a unique cinematic grammar and like all grammars it forms part of the system of rules that govern a language and is thus applicable to wider range of media forms In their creation of authorial trends identification of the technology of cinema as a creative force and production of films as aesthetic markers film theories contribute an epistemological resource that connects the technologies of filmmaking and film composition This book explores these connections through film theorisations of processes of the diagrammatisation the systems methodologies concepts histories of cinematic matters of the filmic world Film Semiotics, Metz, and Leone's Trilogy Lane Roth, 2014-01-23 Semiotics offers a systematic approach to analysing the stylistic structure of film When this study was originally published in 1983 this was a recent addition to the methods of film study and it presents an explanation of film semiotics with direct application to comparative film research It takes as its representative subject one trilogy of films and applies semiology with careful textual analysis The book begins with a basic introduction to semiotics and the ideas of Christian Metz on cinesemiotics It then presents a syntagmatic analysis of each of the three Dollars films with an outline of autonomous segments for each and a discussion of the findings before undertaking a wider analysis of the trilogy as a whole with commentary on the stylistic unity of the director's work This book an enduring detailed study of these three films also outlines clearly this method of classifying the formal structuring codes of film communication Politics and the American Television Comedy Doyle Greene, 2015-01-28 This work examines the unique and ever changing relationship between politics and comedy through an analysis of several popular American television programs Focusing on close readings of the work of Ernie Kovacs Soupy Sales and Andy Kaufman as well as Green Acres and The Gong Show the author provides a unique glimpse at the often subversive nature of avant garde television comedy The crisis in American television during the political unrest of the late 1960s is also studied as represented by individual analyses of The Monkees The Smothers Brothers Comedy Hour Rowan and Martin's Laugh In and All in the Family The author also focuses on more contemporary American television drawing a comparative analysis between the referential postmodernism of The Simpsons and the confrontational absurdity of South Park Aesthetics and Film Katherine Thomson-Jones, 2008-10-23 Aesthetics and Film is a philosophical study of the art of film Its motivation is the recent surge of interest among analytic philosophers in the philosophical implications of central issues in film theory and the application of general issues in aesthetics to the specific case of film Of particular interest are questions concerning the distinctive representational capacities of film art particularly in relation to realism and narration the influence of the literary paradigm in understanding film authorship and interpretation and our imaginative and affective engagement with film For all of these questions Katherine Thomson Jones critically compares the most compelling answers driving home key points with a wide range of film examples including Wiene
