When Bad Things Happen to Good

Prophecies A. Bernhard Kuiper, 2005-08 Is Christ excited to return to earth for a 1000 years? Does God still love Jacob, Jews and still hate Esau, Arabs? This book deals with this subject and much more.

The End of the World Tom McIver, 1999 This bibliography contains careful and bias-free annotations of close to 3500 works written over many centuries about the end of the world predominantly but not entirely from a Christian perspective. The books, pamphlets, websites and selected other media cover a wide variety of eschatological beliefs from the numerous fundamentalist scenarios to the mystical and the violent and include such topics as the Tribulation, the Rapture, the Millennium, Armageddon, the Second Coming, the Antichrist and the Apocalypse. Works on other major religions such as Judaism, Islam, the mythos of popular cultures, Mayan prophecies, Norse Ragnarok, UFO, occult and psychic theories, Heaven's Gate, Nostradamus and secular theories, Y2k computer chaos can be found. The work is in four parts plus indexes. Entries in the pre-1800 part are arranged chronologically beginning with the Books of Enoch in the second century BC. Other entries are arranged alphabetically within the three chronological subdivisions of 1800-1910, 1910-1970 and post-1970. All include full bibliographic information and annotations regarding format, type of work, theme, the author's background, the category of theories espoused, distinctive or notable characteristics, the intended readership and the significance of the work. There are cross-references to works by the same author. An introduction describes major types of beliefs, outlines basic Fundamentalist end-of-the-world scenarios, summarizes Biblical sources and explains important terms, concepts and relationships among sources. The work is extensively indexed by author, title and subject.

Christianity and Rabbinic Judaism Jonas Alexis, 2013-01-10 Our way must be never knowingly support lies. Having understood where the lies begin, step back from that gangrenous edge. Let us not glue back the flaking scale of the Ideology, not gather back its crumbling bones nor patch together its decomposing garb and we will be amazed how swiftly and helplessly the lies will fall away and that which is destined to be naked will be exposed as such to the world. Alexander Solzhenitsyn, Enlightenment writer Voltaire was amazed that twelve fishermen, some of them unlettered from an obscure place in the world called Galilee, challenged an empire through self-denial and patience and eventually established Christianity. He seriously thought that twelve philosophers or intellectuals himself included would do the opposite and crush Christianity. Voltaire's self-appointed cheerleaders such as Diderot, Helvétius, d'Holbach, D'Alembert, La Mettrie and Baron de Cloots among others tried to do just that and wrote volumes of work trying to tear down the basis of Christianity and erect an edifice of their own Diderot in particular declared I would sacrifice myself perhaps if I could annihilate forever the notion of God Cloots wrote We shall see the heavenly royalty condemned by the revolutionary tribunal of victorious Reason Lamettrie produced Man A Machine and an entire French encyclopedia was written between 1751 and 1772 by those philosophers because Christianity to a large degree had to go Voltaire would send letters to his disciples and friends saying crasez linfme Rousseau of course was a disciple of Voltaire and declared that Voltaires work inspired me The French Revolution failed Yet like all significant revolutions before and after that period the French Revolution indirectly had a theological root which was then a categorical and metaphysical rejection of Logos That theological substratum has jumped from one era to the next and had and still has historical political economic and spiritual ramifications This book is about the historical and theological struggle of that conflict which had its inception at the foot of the cross Final Approach Roberts Liardon,1993
