Finally Comes The Poet:

Finally Comes the Poet Walter Brueggemann, 1989-01-01 The Christian gospel says Brueggemann is too easily preached and heard Too often technical reason and excessive religious certitude reduce the gospel to coercive debilitating pietisms that mask the text s meaning and freeze the hearers heart With skill and imagination Brueggemann demonstrates how the preacher can engage in daring speech differently voiced and therefore differently heard This speech as suggested by the Bible itself is poetic speech enabling the preacher to forge communion in the midst of alienation bring healing out of guilt and empower the hearer for missional imagination As an alternative to theological homiletical discourse that is moralistic pietistic or scholastic Brueggemann proposes preaching that is artistic poetic and dramatic The basis for the 1989 Lyman Beecher Lectures at Yale Divinity School Finally Comes the Poet is a unique and transforming guide for powerful preaching

Singing and Suffering with the Servant David M. Stark, 2022-10-10 The Old Testament is transformed from problem to ally when preachers attend to power at work in ancient and modern contexts by mirroring Second Isaiah s proclamation listening to contemporary servant Israel and learning from African American preaching in context of domination This book analyses the impact of domination on Old Testament proclamation and thus leads to several unique contributions Firstly it reads Second Isaiah as a homiletic model for proclaiming older pre exilic texts in response to exilic domination Secondly it treats the Old Testament as a rich resource for confronting racism and anti-Semitism though teaching and it introduces contemporary Christian Jewish dialogue in Germany as a model for the Church Lastly it highlights preaching traditions within the African American Church as instructive for formulating an effective Old Testament preaching strategy To Tell the Story C. Thomas Elkins, 2011-02-10 Those of us hearing a Well Told Story may become more aware of the Implications of that story than by a mere recital of facts The use of the Story Form of relating an event may be the best method of capturing the significance of the actual event In the understanding and presentation of the Christian faith Story is considered as a fundamental category of reality It is the perfect vehicle for presenting the Good News of the Gospel John Paul Roth The presentation of real events in story form preserves the remembrance of reality without limiting its implications to the mere recording of historical facts The Gospel story carries us beyond the realm of human understanding into the higher realm of faith The power of story assists us in bridging the gap between the inexplicable in the Gospel Story and the human experience This holds true with the stories which accompany and support the underlying Story of God in Jesus Christ True stories as is the Gospel Story will take precedence over stories told only for entertainment or to serve a specific agenda Yet even the stories of integrity and truth need to be told well and with skill This is discussed in detail herein As Theologians we must tell the Story with truth and understanding as Evangelists with persuasiveness and tolerance and as Preachers or Witnesses we must share the Story often convincingly and with Love Loving God loving each other and the Story never ends

Religious Nuts, Political Fanatics: U2 in Theological Perspective Robert G. Vagacs, 2005-11-01 Weaving the threads of U2's lyrics scripture and theology into one cord this book tracks the Irish rock band's theological insights and perspectives through their poetry Along this lyrical path we encounter the characters of the Drowning Man the Wanderer and the Sojourner Though seemingly different they are one and the same and they represent each of us If you're a U2 fan a theologian or both Religious Nuts Political Fanatics U2 in Theological Perspective will offer a different angle of popular culture and theology

Words to God, Word from God Howard Neil Wallace, 2017-07-05 The psalms challenge and sustain us in a number of ways and in times of new challenges to the very fabric of the church to its faith and its values we need to re-examine these ancient prayers and songs This book explores the place and function of the psalms in Christian prayer preaching and worship Examining the dual nature of the psalms as both words to God and word from God the author brings together the historical experience of the church biblical studies and theological reflection to focus on the application of the psalms in contemporary Christian life A number of individual psalms are explored in terms of what they have to say about prayer or what theological issues they raise for contemporary life This book encourages a reclamation of the psalms in the private and public prayers of the church and in the preaching of the word

Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit Rodney Wallace Kennedy, 2024-07-30 Dancing with Metaphors in the Pulpit is a prequel to the writing and delivery of the sermon The work of invention which includes the gathering of material is the primary focus of the book The hard work of preaching takes place in the thinking reading and writing The cross disciplinary study provided here covers lessons learned by preachers and by novelists poets philosophers and rhetoricians

Hannevi'ah and Hannah Nancy C Lee, 2016-07-28 Is it possible to hear women prophets utterances embedded within lyrics of prophetic books If so women prophets should be represented as implied composers along with men A few scholars have raised this question yet a clear method for discerning women's voices apart from feminine grammatical forms genres used and women's perspectives has not been offered This study offers a reliable method based on the sound patterns of lyrical Hebrew It discerns a consistent clear signature of women's composing more broadly and a different signature of men's composing across all lyrical genres and historical periods This methodological key when turned unlocks and throws open a window on a significant women's Hebraic composing tradition resounding in texts where women's voices are attributed and where they are unattributed There are also surprising ramifications here for the biblical narratives composed by women and rooted in oral tradition Integrating indigenous cultural postcolonial feminist and oral poetic approaches this inquiry moves past closed doors of previous suppositions including that ancient Israel was simply patriarchal It also brings a new appreciation of the practice of female and male prophets lyricising in partnership in an indigenous culture in which women individually or as a group were not always given credit for their contributions

Whatever Happened to Delight? J. Barrie Shepherd, 2006-01-01 Preaching is an art J Barrie Shepherd argues and the sermon is an art form an exercise in creativity and imagination But all too often preaching suffers from a lack of imagination and a loss of the joy and wonder that attracted the crowds to Jesus words two thousand years ago In this book based on his 2003 Beecher Lectures at Yale Divinity School Shepherd hopes to encourage the preacher toward a more creative vision for the sermon His approach is spontaneous eclectic intuitive and daring Shepherd s purpose is to encourage the preacher to think of life as filled with God s presence to search for the presence and to use images and words to unveil that presence The end result is a sermon that is full of astonishment and delight One Thousand Gifts Ann Voskamp,2011-01-04 More than 1 5 million copies sold What if you discovered that the life you already have is the life you ve always wanted What if joy and gratefulness is possible right where you are New York Times bestselling author Ann Voskamp invites you to embrace everyday blessings and embark on the transformative journey of thankfulness and chronicling God s gifts How can you find joy in the midst of deadlines debt drama and even the death of loved ones What does the Christ life really look like when your days are gritty long and sometimes even dark How is God even here It is in the dark that God is passing by our lives shake not because God has abandoned but the exact opposite God is passing by God is in the tremors Dark is the holiest ground the glory passing by In the blackest God is closest at work forging His perfect and right will Though it is black and we can t see and our world seems to be free falling and we feel utterly alone Christ is most present to us In One Thousand Gifts Ann Voskamp invites you to discover a way of seeing that opens your eyes to ordinary amazing grace a way of living that is fully alive and a way of becoming present to God that brings deep and lasting joy It s only in the expression of gratitude for the life we already have we discover the life we ve always wanted a life we can take give thanks for and break for others Come to feel and know the impossible right down in your bones you are wildly loved by God As Ann invites you into her own beautiful heart aching moments of amazing grace she gently teaches you how to Biblically lament loss and turn pain into poetry Intentionally embrace a lifestyle of radical gratitude Slow down and catch God in the moment Not a book merely to read One Thousand Gifts is an invitation to engage with truths that will serve up the depths of God s joy and transform your life forever Leave pride fear and control behind and abandon yourself to the God who overflows your cup Biblical Poems Embedded in Biblical Narratives Sharon R. Chace,2020-10-13 Biblical Poems Embedded in Biblical Narratives is an easy to use course book that synthesizes Sharon Chace s interests in poetry art and biblical studies Pastors and teachers will be able to craft their unique presentations for the first session introducing both the subject and each other based upon Sharon s introduction The following sessions include reflections and practices to evoke responses from participants This course is ideal for teachers who want their students to both think critically and explore their own spirituality Chace s bridge building theology rooted in the humanities is timely Academic discourse warm personal reflections and a keen understanding of human nature combine in this instructional tool to create a broadly appropriate and engaging course Virtue as Consent to Being Phil Zylla,2010-12-01 Virtue theory has become an important development in Christian ethics Efforts are made in this volume to bring pastoral theology into conversation with these developments This book probes the philosophical theology of Jonathan Edwards who proposed that virtue is a form of beauty defined as consent to being This leads to the notion of compassion as ontological consent Since language is the vehicle by which our experiences are conveyed the book probes the issue of how moral vision is expressed in experience near language through parable poem and lament Moral vision is articulated most adequately through such language and finding it is a kind of quest The last chapter is a proposal for a mature pastoral theology of virtue as an expansion of Edwards s concept of consent to being from the vantage point of pastoral theology A dynamic vision of virtue requires some connection between the experience of suffering and the inward striving toward the greatest good The essence of virtue can be best understood from a pastoral theological perspective as the relational dynamic of suffering with another human being The Life of Francois Rabelais Jean Plattard,1968-04 First Published in 1968 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

Preaching and the Personal J Dwayne Howell,2014-07-31 Preaching is a very personal process a minister or speaker prepares his or her own sermon and presents it to the congregation Sermons draw upon the Bible as a central source and the source provides a basis of faith for the believing community The preaching event is also personal for the individual members of the congregation who receive the preacher s words based on a biblical text in their own unique way In the synthesis of Biblical text sermon and listener response many testimonies are present Preaching and the Personal is a collection of papers that have been presented at the Society of Biblical Literature These papers encourage and nurture dialogue among scholars who share an interest in the unique theological problems inherent to the relationship between biblical interpretation and proclamation Preaching and the Personal opens a stimulating dialogue in the field Feasting on the Word David Lyon Bartlett,Barbara Brown Taylor,2009-10-01 With this new lectionary commentary series Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today When complete the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day Epiphany Holy Week and All Saints Day For each lectionary text preachers will find four brief essays one each on the theological pastoral exegetical and homiletical challenges of the text This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion The editors and contributors to this series are world class scholars pastors and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents Feasting on the Word: Year C, Volume 2 David L. Twentieth-Century Metapoetry and the Lyric Tradition Daniella Jancsó, 2019-02-19 Twentieth Century Metapoetry and the Lyric Tradition reveals the unique value of metapoems for exploring twentieth century poetry By placing these texts into a hitherto barely investigated literary historical perspective it demonstrates that modern metapoetry is steeped in the lyric tradition to a much greater extent than previously acknowledged Since these literary continuities that cut across epochal boundaries can be traced across all major poetic movements they challenge established accounts of the history of twentieth century poetry that postulate a radical break with the immediate past Moreover the finding that metapoems perpetuate traditional forms and topoi distinguishes metapoetry historically and systematically from metafiction and metadrama After highlighting the most important differences as regards to the function of metareference in poetry on the one side and in fiction and drama on the other the book concludes with a discussion of how to account for these generic differences theoretically With its extraordinarily subtle and perceptive Ronald Bush St John s College Oxford interpretive readings of over one hundred metapoems by canonical anglophone authors it offers the first representative selection of twentieth century poems about poetry in English

The Preacher's Edge Jerry L. Schmalenberger, 1996 The Preacher s Edge puts to work the basic principles of oratory and persuasive speaking with creative pulpit techniques It is written to be used by preachers for a revival and renewal of their preaching From this book one can learn how to reach and hold the attention of this channel surfing generation of congregational members This book is a celebration and affirmation of the role of preaching as the church moves into the 21st century Reading it will modify the way in which the preacher delivers his message And it will improve the attention span of those who hear the Good News in new and exciting ways In tune with the communication patterns of the baby boomer and buster generations Dr Schmalenberger advocates preaching in an imagistic earthy and rhetorically musical style and urges us to meet head on the demand that the church respond to the difficult questions of our society Both chapters and sample sermons present examples of the techniques he describes and the book concludes with a clear step by step program for improving one s preaching that could profitably be followed by preachers at any stage in their ministry The Rev Linda L Clader Ph D Associate Professor of Homiletics The Church Divinity School of the Pacific Berkeley California Years in demanding pulpits and classrooms have given Jerry Schmalenberger an edge that he shares with candor and power If you are looking for suggestions and possibilities even a ten week strategy for improving your preaching this book is for you Richard L Thulin Th D Dean and Professor of the Art of Preaching Lutheran Theological Seminary Gettysburg Pennsylvania This volume is a plea and a plan for preaching close to the ground using the very best speech techniques that have been discovered over the years Schmalenberger strongly believes that paying attention to listeners reactions is a keystone to effective preaching Building on the extended narrative metaphor he shows how local history can be a source of gospel parable and how it will more effectively lead to reaching the Baby Boomer and Baby Buster generations Jerry Schmalenberger is president and professor of parish ministry at Pacific Lutheran Theological Seminary in Berkeley California He teaches introductory and advanced preaching courses in addition to practical theology Professor Schmalenberger has been senior pastor in some of the largest Lutheran congregations in the United States and has appeared regularly on television and radio programs He is a graduate of Wittenberg University and Hamma School of Theology in Springfield Ohio He has received Doctor of Ministry and Doctor of Divinity degrees from Wittenberg and Hamma Schmalenberger has taught speech and communication at Wittenberg University and Urbana College in Ohio and was a parish pastor for 29 years

Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart, 2003 Many individuals take risks in life such as mountain climbers magicians farmers and gamblers But do we ever include preachers in that category Preachers have opportunities to be some of the greatest risk takers In Preacher as Risk Taker Richard Hart O F M Cap challenges preachers to be on the cutting edge by taking risks resulting in better preaching How many preachers are willing to submit their homilies to an editor or have their homilies taped Are poetic preachers ready to preach in a changing Church How often do preachers discuss social sin in the environment ageing the reign of God or Paul s epistles Do today s preachers realize how important it is to preach through healing or Jesus as a wisdom figure Finally do preachers know the true difference between a eulogy and a homily Hart offers insight to each of these questions for preachers interested in improving their homilies Preachers might not be asked to scale a mountain or act as a magician But preachers are asked to take similar risks when preaching on challenging topics In Preacher as Risk Taker Father Hart provides answers for those interested in becoming spirited preachers

From Survival to Vocation Wayne L. Menking, 2023-02-02 The powers of death are closer than we thought Their perils appear in the forms of increased gun violence racism economic disparity and global warming to name but a few Faced with these threats Christians in this self absorbed culture tend to use their faith as a kind of palliative comfort that protects them from the truths of what these powers are doing to us as a human community and the sufferings they are inflicting on others particularly the poor and the disenfranchised Moreover it is used to shield them from responding to the gospel s call to leave survival for vocation Using Luther s theology of the cross and the instruction he imparts in his Large Catechism this book asserts that in the face of the sufferings in which we are situated the gospel news of Jesus s resurrection is a call to stand in its hope and power to resist these devastations and the dehumanization exploitation and domination they inflict The hope of God's life-giving creativity in the face of the powers of death is given witness when Christians leave survival modes of existence to be in their baptismal vocation of loving neighbors as themselves
