FINANCIAL PLANNING BASICS for DOCTORS

The personal finance course not taught

Financial Planning Basics for Doctors is a comprehensive financial plan for doctors and their families. It includes medical loans, home buying, disability, college planning, retirement planning, insurance, saving money, and more. Each chapter starts with a real-world scenario, followed by a step-by-step guide with a concise summary of the key takeaways. The book also includes a checklist of questions and a glossary to help you understand and improve your financial plan.

The authors provided a wealth of the feedback they received from meetings with doctors, professional associations, and the medical community. Teaching hospitals do not have a provision of doctors or their own physicians. It's a challenge in managing their finances. This book provides the knowledge you need.

Marshall Weintraub, Michael Merrill, and Colt Kimball are authors with Finny Group LLC, a financial planning firm working with doctors.
