Terrorist Minds: From Social-psychological Profiling To Assessing The Risk Sagit Yehoshua, 2020-10-19 This book's excellent discussion of the theories and concepts involved in profiling terrorists including those who are incarcerated is a major contribution to the academic discipline on these issues

Perspectives on Terrorism

Terrorist Minds From Social Psychological Profiling to Assessing the Risk explores the process of terrorist behavioural analysis from the social psychological profiling of terrorists to the development of risk assessment tools Most of the research for this book was conducted in cooperation with the Intelligence Department of the Israeli Prison Service via qualitative in depth interviews with leaders of terrorist organisations in Israeli prisons Once social psychological profiles were established terrorist risk assessment tools were developed to allow for better observation and practical management of associated problems This book fills the gaps in existing literature on the psychology of imprisoned terrorist group leaders through the analysis of individuals social professional and personal lives as well as their attitudes and perceptions The book also covers the practical aspects of risk assessment based on social psychological profiling and discusses relevant tools that have been developed in recent years It aims to better inform counter terrorism initiatives and policymaking as well as improve methods of communication counter terrorism and conflict resolution
