Ethical Argument Critical Thinking In Ethics:

Ethical Argument Hugh Mercer Curtler, 1993 This book teaches students about argument in ethics by involving them in an ethical argument about relativism The book argues against relativism and encourages students to question assumptions and present counter arguments The book also stresses basic ethical principles and includes a chapter with numerous cases for discussion An excellent teaching tool

Advanced Ethics for Addiction Professionals Michael J. Taleff, 2009-11-13 The aspects of the book related to the philosophy of science and cognitive science inductive and deductive reasoning biases and heuristics are distilled in reasonable and useful ways I recommend this book to those addiction professionals who want to create their own framework for ethical decision making

PsycCRITIQUES Ethical decision making is required in many of the difficult situations faced by addiction professionals In this guide Michael Taleff describes how to integrate critical thinking with ethical decision making This is a guide not on what to do when confronted with difficult ethical dilemmas but on how to think about what to do The author presents common ethical dilemmas that addiction professionals face in their daily work such as boundary issues confidentiality dual relationships and more and asks readers to consider their own responses to these dilemmas The book then shows readers how to apply new models of ethical thinking to practice Key features Presents an ethical self exam to encourage critical thinking about one's own decision making method Introduces a variety of models such as the social contract theory existentialist theory and ethical egoism Discusses how biases emotional reactions and fallacies can weaken ethical decision making Presents an introductory Ethics Judgment Kit a simple practical decision making procedure for students This book demonstrates how critical thinking skills can impact and improve the process of ethical decision making

Critical Reasoning in Ethics Anne Thomson, 1999 Critical Reasoning in Ethics is a clearly structured accessible and crystal clear introduction that is designed to enable students to develop their own skills in reasoning about ethical issues

Achieving Ethical Competence for Public Service Leadership Terry L. Cooper, 2014-12-18 This book shows students entering the public service as well as professionals in the field how to become ethically competent to provide the leadership needed to advance the public interest The book doesn't just talk about ethics The contributors describe how ethical competence should guide organizational conduct All chapters are original and written by experts in the PA field for this book

Museum Ethics Gary Edson, 2005-09-27 A number of developments in the museum movement during the last few years have forced museums to give greater attention to ethical issues Members of a profession are increasingly regarded as constituting an ethical community Every person with such a community must have a sense of personal obligation as well as a responsibility for others to assure ethical achievement This volume firmly places notions of ethics in the field of action Museum Ethics considers the theoretical and practical elements of the philosophy of conduct in relation to critical contemporary issues and museums This discussion encompasses the procurement of artifacts the rights of indigenous peoples repatriation the politics of display the conservation of objects and the role of education as well as the day to day management of a museum All persons active in museum matters whether custodian curator or trustee have an ethical obligation to the museum profession and the public This volume will allow the professional and student to work towards a more responsible and responsive museum community Critical Thinking for Sports Students Emily Ryall,2010-04-26 A really useful textbook to help undergraduate students construct arguments in their writing and raise their writing abilities to a higher level The book also provides useful examples that relates to sports students Hassan Khalil Hertfordshire University A fantastic text and one we use regularly with undergraduate and postgraduates Abbe Brady Gloucestershire University The capacity to think critically is essential for success in sport courses in higher education This book provides all those involved in the study of sport with the tools to assess construct and present arguments and to analyse and evaluate material The emphasis is on the application of critical thinking in the form of written arguments discussion and negotiation Throughout the text and examples are presented within the context of sport helping students to more easily apply their learning to their subject area Critical Thinking in Health and Social Care Stella Jones-Devitt,Liz Smith,2007-10-25 This book will serve well a diverse audience in policy formulation and practice determination at all levels who are committed to the nation s health and well being Dianne Willcocks Vice Chancellor York St John University Critical Thinking in Health Social Care is designed to equip practitioners with the knowledge and tools they need to critically examine practice in their own workplace The book presents a range of different approaches which have particular relevance in the context of health and social care Each approach is explained and grounded in practice using case studies problem solving scenarios and workplace examples The practical tools which form the core of the book are contextualised by an exploration of what constitutes knowledge and evidence and the types of assumptions which are commonly held and which have a bearing on practice This is an essential text for advanced post graduate health and social care students and for those who are moving into more senior and strategic roles Critical Thinking in Health Social Care provides an array of tools which can be used to challenge and change existing practice and to solve problems Stella Jones Devitt is Head of Subject for Health Studies and Community Engagement at York St John University Liz Smith is Programme Leader for Health Professional Studies Faculty of Health and Social Care University of Hull Pursuing Excellence for the Glory of God Keith A. Currivean,2022-01-13 What is education How and why do educators do what we do And in what way can and ought education be distinctively Christian These are a few of the probing questions for which this book seeks answers Among other contributions Currivean s book explores a biblical philosophy of Christian education with unprecedented breadth and depth To accomplish this objective it considers what education is chapter 1 what philosophy of education is chapter 2 and what the ultimate goal of education is chapter 3 Additionally this book provides a never before Christian overview of twelve philosophies of education chapters 4 15 Each of those chapters provides an introduction of a particular philosophy of education and some of that philosophy s exemplars Each of those chapters also contributes a constructive Christian critique

Chapter 16 highlights a biblical philosophy of Christian education featuring some people some principles and some priorities for a biblical philosophy of Christian education viz pursuing excellence for the glory of God Critical Thinking Dirk Jahn, Michael Cursio, 2023-12-09 Judgment and critical faculties are central concerns of many Western educational programs However the promotion of critical thinking requires specifically developed and didactically coherent concepts This book therefore attempts to provide a philosophically and empirically sound as well as application oriented introduction to the concept and didactics of critical thinking Especially the higher education space is defined by critically questioning knowledge and practice and thereby producing new insights Against the background of this task horizon the theoretical foundations of critical thinking as well as didactic practice strategies for its promotion are conveyed in a low threshold manner within the framework of the introductory volume which can be adapted across subjects A Rulebook for Arguments Anthony Weston, 2018-02-01 From academic writing to personal and public discourse the need for good arguments and better ways of arguing is greater than ever before This timely fifth edition of A Rulebook for Arguments sharpens an already classic text adding updated examples and a new chapter on public debates that provides rules for the etiquette and ethics of sound public dialogue as well as clear and sound thinking in general Rediscovering Values Hugh Mercer Curtler, 1997 Now that we have rejected the set of values inherited from our imperialist past Curtler says we must distil from the common social world a new set that can command our approval regardless of cultural and personal tastes He mounts an attack on proponents of relativity as any cost and argues for the objectivity of values in ethics literature and art His treatment is accessible to lay readers Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Contexts of Nursing John Daly, Sandra Speedy, Debra Jackson, 2013-09-01 The new edition of this popular nursing text introduces students to the theory language and scholarship of contemporary nursing Contexts of Nursing 4th edition continues to challenge and extend nursing students by exploring the key concepts underpinning contemporary nursing practice This exceptional nursing textbook incorporates diverse views and voices and sometimes controversial topics encouraging student nurses to reflect discuss and debate various issues and ultimately helping them to develop their own positions Contexts of Nursing 4th edition features abundant new and updated content developed in consultation with practicing nurses and nursing students yet remains based on the same aims and objectives of the popular first edition Written by expert contributors all of whom are helping shape contemporary nursing in Australia and New Zealand this latest edition of Contexts of Nursing reflects the dynamic nature of nursing scholarship Chapters have been thoroughly revised and updated and now include fresh learning objectives key words reflective questions recommended readings and references Content has been fully updated to reflect national registration A restructured table of contents links key chapters Each chapter addresses an area of study within the undergraduate nursing program Topics include history culture ethics law technology and professional issues Learning to Theorize Dennis E. Mithaug, 2000-07-14 This book describes a constructive theorizing strategy that graduate students and applied researchers can use to improve their beliefs about contemporary social problems Throughout the use of compelling questions and examples Mithaug shows readers how to implement this four step strategy to construct explanations for uncertainties about how things work how they ought to work and what should be done about them He begins the book with an explanation of the practical features of constructive theorizing and shows how it mirrors general problem solving practical reasoning and self regulated learning He then demonstrates how to separate the facts values and actions of a situation in order to clarify and understand their relationship as well as how a thinking strategy assists in learning to theorize better This book will enable readers to separate questions of fact value and action explain their differences and similarities and summarize their explanations in a theory that reconstructs those facts values and actions in a more credible and valuable way The Structure of Concern: A Challenge for Thinkers Neil LaChapelle,2008-12-08 This book has two goals It introduces a pattern of 4 interlocking constraints which I call the structure of concern and it issues a challenge to all of the thinkers of world to find the best level of description for it the level at which it might be explained concern structure models turn up everywhere including discussions of knowledge management methodologies suicide yoga information systems sex multi agent networking ethics nervous system organization drama military planning speech pragmatics forest conservation education and even philosophy Some concern structure models are quite specialized and obscure but some others count among the most widely used conceptual frameworks we have My main goal in this book is simply to compare all of these frameworks to point out the similarities between them This catalog itself is the argument I make in this book the argument that some universal pattern lurks among all these models a universal pattern that needs description Critical Thinking Richard Paul,Linda Elder,2021-12-15 This introductory critical thinking text provides an integrated universal concept of critical thinking that is both substantive and practical Furthering lifelong application of critical thinking skills the fourth edition features new discussions of argumentation critical thinking in the professional world the internet and media bias Critical Thinking and Reflection for Mental Health Nursing Students Marc Roberts,2015-11-02 The ability to reflect critically is a vital nursing skill It will help your students to make better decisions avoid errors identify good and bad forms of practice and become better at learning from their experiences The challenges they will face as a mental health nurse are complex so this book breaks things down to the foundations helping them to build critical thinking and reflection skills from the ground up Key features Covers the theory and principles behind critical thinking and reflection Explores the specific mental health context and unique challenges students are likely to face as a mental health nurse Applies critical thinking to practice but also to academic study showing how to demonstrate these skills in assignments Ethics and Technology Herman T. Tavani,2011 Offering insights and coverage of the field of cyberethics this book introduces readers to issues in computer ethics The author combines his years of experience in the field with coverage of concepts and real world case studies The Routledge Handbook of Ethics in Technical and Professional Communication Derek G.
