Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention Renée Bradford Garcia, Elizabeth C. Pomeroy, 2021-08-18 With clarity and eloquence Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention comprehensively captures the nuance and complexity involved in counseling bereaved and traumatically bereaved persons in all stages of the life cycle Integrating the various models of grief with the authors strengths based framework of grief and loss chapters combine the latest research in evidence based practice with expertise derived from years of psychotherapy with grieving individuals The book walks readers through the main theories of grief counseling from rapport building to assessment to intervention Each chapter concludes with lengthy case scenarios that closely resemble actual counseling sessions to help readers apply their understanding of the chapter s content In the support material on the book s website instructors will find a sample syllabus PowerPoint slides and lists of resources that can be used as student assignments or to enhance classroom learning Trauma and Grief Assessment and Intervention equips students with the knowledge and skills they need to work effectively with clients experiencing trauma and loss

Living, Loving and Loss Brad DeFord, Richard Gilbert, 2016-12-05 One of the unspoken aspects of mourning concerns the ways that loss affects our intimate relationships and our sexual expressiveness This text opens these subjects for conversation with the aim of promoting the trust care and respect that enable us to be vulnerable It purposefully covers a range of topics including 1 the meaning of intimacy and the significance of sexuality providing a basis for the use of these terms throughout the book 2 death grief and differences in sexual orientation including death and intimacy in the lesbian gay bisexual and transgender LGBT community and the losses endured by young people due to gender issues 3 loss of relationship and restoration of intimacy in families including pharmacological effects on the grief processes of widowers grieving a not so loved parent the layered losses of infertility and intimacy and the tolls of war intimacy and sexuality challenges for soldiers and their families 4 adjusting to life s losses associated with aging or illness or infirmity including Alzheimer s and dementia related illnesses physical health losses after 50 and intimacy sex and hospice self determination and dignity at the end of life and 5 religious bases that have shaped our perspectives for understanding intimacy sexuality and healing after loss and which give us hope including the spiritual reflections of a rabbi and a Christian voice in defining what is right Set in a framework that is both psychological and spiritual the well researched contributions are intended to acknowledge these experiences both professionally and personally The book concludes with an extensive bibliography valuable for research and reference This book will be of value in undergraduate and graduate courses on thanatology as well as for anyone interested in knowing more about grief both those currently bereaved and those who wish to support others in mourning The contributors appreciate both the importance of our capacities for intimacy and sexuality and our inhibitions and hesitations in giving voice to our needs and concerns perhaps especially when we are grieving The information and compassionate understanding they provide encourage us to bridge the gap between the secret and the private and to share what is close to our hearts

A Professional's Guide to Understanding Trauma and Loss David E. Balk, Tracy Wong, Janet R. Balk, 2023-06-05 The purpose of this book is to provide vital information regarding loss and trauma to practicing counselors and therapists Trauma and loss are pervasive presenting problems many counselors and therapists possess scant understanding of trauma and loss and little if any attention is paid to trauma or to loss in the graduate training of clinical psychology and counseling psychology students The book is organized into four sections which cover an overview of loss and trauma key conceptual frameworks for understanding loss and trauma review of several types of events producing trauma and loss and interventions addressing loss and trauma A key contribution of the book is the focus on losses caused by death and losses due to other reasons The contributions to practice include the overview of what is known about trauma and about loss examination of several frameworks for organizing both understanding of and working with traumatized and bereaved clients rich descriptive cases of individuals coping with various traumatic events and the losses embedded in the trauma and presentation of various interventions including changes that can be made in the graduate education of practitioners

Working with Bereaved Parents Louis A. Counselling in Special Conditions Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-05-24 In this book we will study about counselling approaches tailored to individuals with trauma chronic illness disabilities or addiction Comforting the Bereaved Through Listening and Positive Responding Dr. Dee Stern L.C.P.C. PsyD,2022-01-27 We don't seem to handle grief very well whether it's our own or someone close to us Part of the problem is that we live in a death denying society where many people feel awkward using terms like death dying or dead We rarely say that someone has died and instead use metaphors to soften the blow This book helps families friends colleagues and professionals to understand what someone who has lost a loved one is feeling Topics include the death of a child teen adult older adult spouse sibling mentally challenged individuals death of a pet and pets grieve too The author answers questions such as Why are there fewer rituals surrounding death today What do you say to someone who has lost a loved one How long do the bereaved continue to grieve What does it mean to be going through complicated grief Grief is the great equalizer and no matter who or what we are or how rich or poor grief can bring us to our knees But you can navigate it in a healthier way with the lessons in Comforting the Bereaved through Listening and Positive Responding Grieving Beyond Gender Kenneth J. Doka,Terry L. Martin,2011-01-19 Grieving Beyond Gender Understanding the Ways Men and Women Mourn is a revision of Men Don't Cry Women Do Transcending Gender Stereotypes of Grief In this work Doka and Martin elaborate on their conceptual model of styles or patterns of grieving a model that has generated both research and acceptance since the publication of the first edition in 1999 In that book as well as in this revision Doka and Martin explore the different ways that individuals grieve noting that gender is only one factor that affects an individual's style or pattern of grief The book differentiates intuitive grievers where the pattern is more affective from instrumental grievers who grieve in a more cognitive and behavioral way while noting other patterns that might be more blended or dissonant The model is firmly grounded in social science theory and research A particular strength of the work is the emphasis placed on the clinical implications of the model on the ways that different types of grievers might best be supported through individual counseling or group support Grief and Bereavement in Contemporary Society Robert A. Neimeyer,Darcy L. Harris,Howard R. Winokuer,Gordon Thornton,2021-09-08 Grief and Bereavement in Contemporary Society is the authoritative guide to the study of and work with major themes in bereavement The classic edition includes a new preface from the lead editors discussing advances in the field since the book's initial publication The book's chapters synthesize the best of research based conceptualization and clinical wisdom across 30 of the most important topics in the field The volume s contributors come from around the world and their work reflects a level of cultural awareness of the diversity and universality of bereavement and its challenges that has rarely been approximated by other volumes This is a readable engaging and comprehensive book that shares the most important scientific and applied work on the contemporary scene with a broad international audience It s an essential addition to anyone with a serious interest in death dying and bereavement      Clinical Methods in Medical Family Therapy Tai Mendenhall,Angela Lamson,Jennifer Hodgson,Macaran Baird,2018-03-24 This landmark text describes research informed practices and applications of Medical Family Therapy MedFT across a range of care environments and clinical populations e g family medicine obstetrics and gynecology psychiatry alcohol and drug treatment community health centers and military and veteran health systems It is a timely release for a rapidly growing field It includes the work of some of MedFT s most innovative leaders who expertly illustrate MedFT in action across primary secondary tertiary and other unique health contexts describe the make up of healthcare teams tailored to each chapter s distinct environment s highlight fundamental knowledge and critical skillsets across diverse healthcare contexts detail research informed practices for MedFTs who treat patients couples families and communities Clinical Methods in Medical Family Therapy is a comprehensive source for any behavioral health student trainee or professional looking to understand the necessary skills for MedFTs entering the healthcare workforce It is also an essential read for trainers and instructors who are covering the fundamental MedFT knowledge and skills across diverse healthcare contexts This text was written to be applicable for a wide variety of healthcare disciplines including family therapy counseling nursing medicine psychology and social work      DSM-IV-TR in Action Sophia F.
