Introduction to the Text: Previewing and Predicting

T: Read the title and then say: In this story, The Pot of Gold. A mean man named Grumble caught an elf. Grumble knew every elf had gold, and he wanted this elf's gold. Look at the pictures and tell me what is happening in this story. Continue if the level is appropriate.

Previewing and Predicting

As the student previews the pictures he/she:

☐ gathers limited information☐ predicts next possible event or action☐ gathers some information☐ predicts several possible events or actions with prompting☐ gathers pertinent information☐ predicts several possible events or actions without prompting

T: Read the title again and then say: Now read to find out if Grumble got the elf's gold.

Oral Reading and Strategies Used

Record the student's oral reading behaviors on the record of oral reading that follows, or take a running record on a blank sheet of paper as the student reads. Number the miscues that are not self-corrected.

Once upon a time there was a mean man named Grumble. One day he saw an elf in the woods.
Grumble said, "An elf always has a pot of gold.
I'll make this elf take me to his pot of gold."

Dra Observation Guide:

The Literacy Coach's Companion, PreK-3 Maryann Mraz, Robert Algozzine, Brian Kissel, 2009 Literacy coaches have become an increasingly important part of school literacy teams. As a result, there is a greater need for understanding the issues related to this growing position. This book addresses those issues and highlights the expanding role of literacy coaches in early and elementary literacy programs. Chapters feature user-friendly guidelines and evidence-based strategies for sustained professional development protocols for classroom observations and teacher conferences and vignettes offering solutions to common coaching challenges. Coaches will discover how to define an effective proactive role in promoting literacy initiatives, strengthen content knowledge and coaching skills to support teachers' efforts and students' literacy development, collaborate with teachers and school leaders to establish productive learning communities, and communicate their changing roles to administrators. A Sense of Belonging Jennifer Allen, 2023-10-10 Too often new teachers enter the profession excited to make a difference in the lives of children only to find themselves disillusioned and overwhelmed with the expectations of the classroom. In A Sense of Belonging, Jennifer Allen shares her stories and journey in creating an infrastructure of support for new teachers within her school district. A Sense of Belonging provides research-based practical ideas on how to support new teachers while honoring the innovation idealism and optimistic enthusiasm that they bring to the classroom. From supporting new teachers early in the year with administering and analyzing literacy assessments through using student work to guide instruction to offering ongoing help with curriculum planning, Jennifer shares strategies on fostering relationships with new teachers starting before school even begins, creating learning environments for new teachers to be reflective practitioners coaching new teachers in their classrooms, and providing opportunities for them to observe their peers in action, supporting new teachers beyond their first year through gradual release of support over their first several years in the classroom, and facilitating professional development opportunities where new and veteran teachers learn alongside one another. Jennifer believes, and her book demonstrates, that when schools embrace, encourage, and celebrate the work of new teachers, they establish a supportive environment that fosters excellence and improves retention.

Becoming a Literacy Leader Jennifer Allen, 2023-10-10 In this second edition of Becoming a Literacy Leader: Supporting Learning and Change, author Jennifer Allen reflects on her work as a literacy specialist and how the role has evolved in the decade since she wrote the first edition. Her experiences can apply to all school leaders including principals coaches teachers support staff and office administrators Allen focuses on three ideas to describe her work Layered Leadership the multitude of supports in place for teachers to encourage learning and change within schools Shared experiences that develop community and develop common understanding of practices curriculum and assessment Importance of rowing in the same direction in that literacy coaches and leaders stay interconnected and aligned to the goals of the school Allen knows the challenges of teachers face and advocates literacy coaches implement these layers of support within a school including in class support curriculum support and assessment study group facilitation and the cultivation of teacher leadership In Becoming a Literacy Leader she provides an explicit framework for implementing these layers of coaching and explains how administrators can use the literacy leader position to build and sustain change within their schools This book will be the road map for how literacy leaders and coaches approach their work with purpose and intention Online videos that accompany the book bring the text alive by showing readers what coaching looks and sounds like

El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005 ,2005 Teaching Elementary Social Studies James A. DuPlass,2008 Written for the elementary social studies methods course this interactive program combines features of a textbook and a workbook with thorough integration between the print text and a dynamic web site Increasingly majors in elementary education if not the population at large are more attuned to reading interactive material with relatively brief narrative bulleted items text boxes and targeted messages like web pages rather than traditional denser text To accommodate these preferences the layout of the print text features a larger than usual font an 8 x 11 trim size and spiral binding and the content includes an abundance of bulleted lists shaded text boxes and contemporary graphics The program s interactive approach and flexibility allow the professor to model the kinds of teaching principles and practices that students will want to use in their own elementary school classrooms These principles and practices are integrated throughout the text and include a focus on active learning strategies application of constructivist principles focus on Big Ideas and thinking skills use of the Internet and modeling of Best Practices and Performance based assessments based on INTASC and NCATE standard Thus the book will serve as a springboard for classroom activities web site explorations and or instructor led activities Publications of the
