models which serve the needs of all students      The Intelligent, Responsive Leader Steven Katz, Lisa Ain Dack, John Malloy, 2017-06-29 Jump start your roles as learning leader and lead learner Designed for leaders to learn and lead within the middle space between the seemingly opposing dynamics of district expectations and practitioner experience this book advances the concept of the school as a learning organization This innovative perspective guides leaders through an intentional deliberate learning process to develop intelligent responsive leadership practice Using stories strategies and tools the authors Explain the power of purposeful practice as a methodology for getting better Show how to build the requisite capacities to lead effectively via influence Describe how to turn adaptive challenges into leadership inquiries for growth This important work demonstrates and reinforces the idea that continuous improvement can only come from deep intentional focused and hard work on the part of everyone within an organization While the examples are rooted within schools and school districts this work is applicable to any organization that seeks meaningful and specific improvement in their results This is a must read for leaders Lynn Macan University at Albany SUNY Albany NY      Public Education, Neoliberalism, and Teachers Paul Bocking, 2020-04-02 From pressure to teach to the test and the use of quantitative metrics to define education quality to the rise of school choice and the shift of principals from colleagues to managers teachers in New York Mexico City and Toronto have experienced strikingly similar challenges to their professional autonomy By visiting schools and meeting teachers government officials and union leaders Paul Bocking identifies commonalities that are shaping how teachers work and public schools function While arguing that neoliberal education policy is a dominant trend transcending the realities of school districts states or national governments Bocking also demonstrates the importance of local context to explain variations in education governance especially when understanding the role of resistance led by teachers unions      EQAO Grade 6 Math Test Prep! Ruth Solski, 2016-08-11 Created to help Grade 6 students prepare for the EQAO Mathematics Test 10 practice tests are either multiple choice or open response so that students can get familiar with the question answer format and improve their confidence      Passing the Test Marita Moll, 2004      Teaching and Learning Secondary School Mathematics Ann Kajander, Jennifer Holm, Egan J Chernoff, 2018-10-24 This volume brings together recent research and commentary in secondary school mathematics from a breadth of contemporary Canadian and International researchers and educators It is both representative of mathematics education generally as well as unique to the particular geography and culture of Canada The chapters address topics of broad applicability such as technology in learning mathematics recent interest in social justice contexts in the learning of mathematics as well as Indigenous education The voices of classroom practitioners the group ultimately responsible for implementing this new vision of mathematics teaching and learning are not forgotten Each section includes a chapter written by a classroom teacher making this volume unique in its approach We have much to learn from one another and this volume takes the stance that the development of a united vision supported by both research and professional dialog provides the first step      The Politics of Accountability R. J. S. Macpherson, 1998-04-09

This book reports on the outcomes of an international policy research project concerned with how power is being used in education to construct and discharge obligations between stakeholders and to suggest how such processes might better serve educational ends Citizenship Education in the Era of Globalization, 2008-01-01 This collection of timely articles is the first to explore the dynamics between globalization and education from a specifically Canadian perspective The articles engage with emergent debates and new discourses around global orientations to citizenship education currently defining scholarly work and teaching practices in Canada This book will therefore be of great interest to Canadian teacher educators who are seeking to infuse a global perspective into their pre service programs as well as to globally oriented undergraduate and graduate course instructors from a range of scholarly disciplines both in Canada and elsewhere The Canadian perspective proves to be not surprisingly global in essence The articles contained in Citizenship Education in the Era of Globalization Canadian Perspectives map the history of citizenship education and global studies and probe the notion of global citizenship for its possibilities and impossibilities Recognizing the importance of engaging with the lives of students and teachers the contributions also include articles reporting on research and theory about such topics as the complexities of second generation youth identity and the extent to which mainstream teachers can bring global citizenship education into their classrooms The collection presents an engaging look into the theory and practice of citizenship education in Canada during a time when bringing global issues to the classroom is an imperative of democratic schooling Brave New Teachers Rovell Patrick Solomon, 2011 Brave New Teachers is a timely investigation of democratic teacher practice in culturally diverse school systems Based on an original study of the Urban Diversity Teacher Education Program at York University it investigates the extent to which graduates of a teacher education program grounded in the democratic principles of equity diversity and social justice can hold true to these principles in a climate of conservative school culture and state mandated educational reform that focuses on standardization and accountability The result is a critical Canadian perspective on both the challenges and the possibilities of working for social justice in the classroom Alberta Journal of Educational Research, 2003 How School Leaders Contribute to Student Success Kenneth Leithwood, Jingping Sun, Katina Pollock, 2017-03-15 While considerable evidence indicates that school leaders are able to make important contributions to the success of their students much less is known about how such contributions are made This book provides a comprehensive account of research aimed at filling this gap in our knowledge along with guidelines about how school leaders might use this knowledge for their own school improvement work Leadership practices known to be effective for improving student success are outlined in the first section of the book while the remaining sections identify four paths along which the influence of those practices flow to exercise an influence on student success Each of the Rational Emotional Organizational and Family paths are populated by conditions or variables known to have relatively direct effects on student success and also open to influence by effective leadership practices While the Four Path framework narrows the attention of school leaders to a still considerable number conditions known to contribute to student success it leaves school leaders the autonomy to select for improvement efforts the sub set of conditions that make the most sense in their own local circumstances The approach to leadership described in this book provides evidence based guidance on what to lead and flexibility on how to lead for purposes of improving student learning      Critical Approaches Toward a Cosmopolitan Education Sandra R. Schecter, Carl E. James, 2021-08-29 This book aims to reconceptualize teaching and learning in spaces with diverse populations of young people Chapters focus on the schooling experiences and social and cultural adaptation issues of individuals who through the meaning that they assign to their lived experiences ascribe to multiple identity qualifiers Contributors explore the impact of this cosmopolitan awareness on students educators and educational institutions presenting issues such as curricular concerns around civic engagement individual subjectivity versus social identity and the convergence of context specific policy and teaching environments on global dynamics in education reform An emphasis on this understanding promises to better equip educators and policy makers to plan instructional approaches and devise pedagogic resources that serve the needs and career aspirations of an expanding cohort of multifaceted learners      Eqao Test Ready Math and Language 6 Janis Barr, 2020      EQAO 6 Cards Nelson Education Nelson Education, 2017-02-24
