City Council, 1915. Home-Grown Terror Patrick Gorman, 2013. Peter Maynard is an English mobile telecoms engineer and happily married to his Filipina wife of some three years. Peter takes on a 3 month contract in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia. It is at this time whilst the engineer is carrying out his work on a rooftop site one Friday morning that he makes a sinister discovery. Whilst looking in one of the three rooftop outbuildings for spare parts the engineer discovers something very sinister: a terrorist sleeper cell. Apart from weaponry concealed with a blanket and other suspicious objects he discovers a manual with disturbing data. There are names of prominent MPs, POLITICIANS, addresses, dates, newspaper cuttings and what appears to be planned attacks for some time into the near future in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, the UK and USA. Peter hurriedly takes the manual back to his hotel where he photocopies some of the pages as evidence for the British security authorities. On his return to the rooftop site he finds it impossible to replace the book as the four occupants of the outbuilding have returned He therefore has to conceal the book and he returns to the radio room The terrorists soon discover their precious manual missing and over the course of time the engineer under suspicion is followed spied upon hounded and gradually matters go from bad to worse with unexpected twists and turns along the way Throughout the book there is a thread of tragedy sorrow emotion humour and in some cases a spiritual element The reader is kept in suspense as to what will happen next with an unexpected outcome
