There are many books on the market that deal in detail with the various facets of menopause. This book however will focus on nutrition, food supplements and lifestyles for women on hormones or women who want to pass through this phase of life naturally. I have also added a chapter on the risk and benefits of HRT. Women have now to take responsibility on themselves to learn all facets of menopause and how to cope with the changes that come with menopause so that the last half of a woman's life will be more vigorous and rewarding than the first half. Women who do not take the very best of their health from the five to seven years of menopause are the ones with the most health problems and poorest quality of life in later years.

Reproductive Disruptions Marcia C. Inhorn, 2007-10-01 Nominated for the 2007 Book Prize by the Council on Anthropology and Reproduction AAA. Reproductive disruptions such as infertility, pregnancy loss, adoption and childhood disability are among the most distressing experiences in people's lives. Based on research by leading medical anthropologists from around the world, this book examines such issues as local practices detrimental to safe pregnancy and birth, conflicting reproductive goals between women and men, miscommunications between pregnant women and their genetic counselors, cultural anxieties over gamete donation and adoption, the contested meanings of abortion, cultural critiques of hormone replacement therapy and the globalization of new pharmaceutical and assisted reproductive technologies. This breadth with its explicit move from the local to the global, from the realm of everyday reproductive practice to international programs and policies, illuminates most effectively the workings of power, the tensions between women's and men's reproductive agency and various cultural and structural inequalities in reproductive health.
