The Prolific Writing System

Lisa Oliver, 2012-11-20 What you do need to understand is that being a prolific writer is more than just having a fast typing speed You are not only typing quickly you are researching faster you are coming up with ideas faster and you are writing in such a way that editing is a short and easy process that can be done while you are drinking a cup of tea The information in this book is a system A system that I formulated through trial and error and for the longest time didn't even know I had It was only when I was asked how I did get to be so prolific without outsourcing my writing that the system I was using emerged Since that time I have had friends dissect and critique the system asking me questions so that the whole thing was detail specific and above all doable In fact even if you are not a writer but want your outsourced writers to use a replicable system then you should buy them this book you could have a whole team of prolific ebook writers and imagine what that would do to your bottom line every month I have included a checklist at the back of the book that ghostwriters can follow with every project they do for you Enough about me let's concentrate on what you can learn in this book I won't be showing you how to publish a book although there will be a list of places you can publish your books for free as part of the Further Resources section of this book This system can be used to create non-fiction books on just about any topic you can think of Our emphasis is going to be on buying niches niches where the customers expect to pay for the information they receive but you can use it for any topic you are interested in What I will be covering is how to find ideas for your next book how to research quickly and effectively how to organize your information that makes the writing part of the formula that much easier to do We will also cover basic editing how to pretty up your manuscript and then format it so that it is ready for publication Finally we will cover some basic promotion methods that can be used to jump start your book sales So let's get started
