Dragon Sunder Fallen Moon Saga:

Dragon Sunder Brittney Binns, 2015-12-21 Declared dead by the Council that hunted him and separated from the sister he vowed to protect Aedan Lockheart's life has become a meaningless existence The swordsman's collapse into despair appears everlasting until an enemy thought to be dead resurfaces with questions about his sister's fate Realizing that she might still be alive brings renewed purpose to the damaged warrior but Paradox's mark makes Aedan pause For the darkness that claimed him may yet lie dormant within When Ember gave her life to the dragon Sentinel Axiom she thought she would never again open her eyes to face the world she traded for Aedan's freedom But when she awakes to find herself still connected to the dragon and guarded by the unlikeliest of allies she finds her work with Axiom isn't finished With Councilwoman and Sentinel at her side Ember must return to the team she abandoned The threat looming over her loved ones is more deadly than any she has already battled it's as ancient as the Fallen Moon As their enemies close in around them doubts and unanswered questions begin to tear the team apart With the freedom of the Sentinels hanging in the balance the siblings must unite to stop a threat to both of their worlds But not all will survive the fight
